Duck Creek Raises $120 million in Financing

Transaction Summary

Transaction Summary

- On December 9, 2019, Duck Creek Technologies announced that it has secured $120 million in financing from Dragoneer Investment Group, funds advised by Neuberger Berman, Insight Partners and Temasek
 - The Company plans to use the funds for continued investment in the business and to repurchase equity from existing investors
 - The Company has recently invested in product development and international expansion, resulting in increased market share – SaaS revenue grew 32% in its latest fiscal year
- In 2016, Duck Creek was established as a new, independent company when Apax Partners acquired a majority stake in the Company from Accenture

Commentary

"The partnership of these new investors with Duck Creek speaks to the momentum we have achieved as the SaaS leader in P&C core systems and the opportunities we see ahead. Our Platform's ability to deliver real business value has driven our strong operating and financial performance. That success combined with this increased investment will power our growth – particularly through Duck Creek OnDemand, our industry-leading SaaS solution – and international expansion."

Michael Jackowski

Commentary

"Duck Creek's growth has accelerated over the past three years as the insurance industry has embraced its cloud platform. We are very excited about the long-term prospects for the company and its plan to continue to invest in products and people. We are proud of our partnership with Mike Jackowski and the Duck Creek team and are pleased to welcome Dragoneer, Insight Partners, Neuberger Berman, and Temasek as additional investors to support the company's growth strategy."
