COMPASS

Transaction Summary

Transaction Summary

- On November 8, 2017, Compass announced it has raised $100 million in a Series E financing round
 - The investment comes from new investor Fidelity Investments, along with existing investors IVP and Wellington Management
 - Wellington Management led Compass' Series D round of $75 million
 - IVP led the Company's Series C round of $50 million
 - This injection of new capital brings Compass' total funding to date up to $325 million
 - According to TechCrunch, this Series E round values Compass at $1.8 billion ⁽¹⁾
- The Company intends to use the new capital to expand its sales and rental listings service to every major U.S. city, as well as develop a new CRM technology to integrate data from clients, listings and transactions
 - Compass is currently in 10 U.S. regions, covering major cities like New York, Boston, San Francisco, Miami, Washington and LA, and plans to expand into 10 more regions in the next 12 months
 - In the past 24 months, Compass grew its real estate agent base 500% and is on track to complete approximately 16,000 transactions, which equates to over $14 billion in sales ⁽¹⁾
 - These sales are expected to generate more than $350 million in annual revenue ⁽¹⁾

Transaction Commentary

"[This round is about] really aggressive growth...We have a pretty well-defined growth and expansion strategy and we will keep going in this direction: we want to hire the best agents and offer them the best technology. Right now, we are not interested in investing platforms or other areas like it. There are a lot of opportunities out there but what's made us successful so far is focus. We just want to make sure we have as many people using our existing service as we can ⁽¹⁾

"Compass is building the infrastructure, data and tools that will power the next generation of this industry. This new funding will allow us to double down on our development of transformative technology, while fueling continued expansion into all of the top real estate markets in the country. Our long-term vision is for Compass to be everywhere as the world's largest real estate platform."

COMPASS

Ori Allon
Co-founder, Executive Chairman

"Compass has proven that its technologically advanced platform is incredibly attractive to the industry's top agents. Their position at the intersection of technology and real estate gives them the unique opportunity to be the single largest holder of real estate data, ushering in a new realm of possibilities for agents and clients alike."
