Robinhood Raises $600 million in Series F Financing

Transaction Summary

Transaction Summary

- On July 13, 2020, Robinhood announced it has raised an additional $320 million in Series F financing bringing the total round to $600 million
 - The round was originally announced in May at a total of $280 million and was led by existing investor Sequoia Capital
 - The additional funding comes from new investors including TSG Consumer Partners and IVP, along with participation from existing investors
 - Other investors participating in the round include NEA, Ribbit Capital, 9Yards Capital, and Unusual Ventures
 - Robinhood has raised more than $1.4 billion to date
- This latest round of financing values Robinhood at $8.6 billion
- Robinhood will use the funds to continue to invest in scaling its platform, building new products, and accelerating the build-out of its operations
 - The Company plans to hire more top talent across all of its offices, including its newest location in Denver
- The funding round comes amid challenging times and market volatility, including several platform outages
 - Robinhood experienced three recent platform outages in the span of two weeks, meaning investors were unable to trade for extended periods of time
 - Despite these issues, the Company has added more than three million funded accounts so far this year
 - Half of new Robinhood customers this year were first-time investors
- According to Bloomberg, Robinhood recorded around $60 million in revenue in March 2020, representing year-on-year growth of around 3x⁽¹⁾

Transaction Commentary

"Robinhood has made the financial markets accessible to the masses, and in turn, revolutionized the decades-old brokerage industry. We're excited to further our relationship with Robinhood, which we believe is at the beginning of its opportunity."

FT Partners has advised on some of the most prominent and groundbreaking transactions in the Securities / Capital Markets / WealthTech sectors

FT Partners Advises Forge on its Merger with SharesPost

Overview of Transaction

- On May 12, 2020, Forge announced its merger with SharesPost
- SharesPost is a private market alternative trading system focused on enabling retail and institutional investors and company employees to access liquidity
 - Founded in 2009, SharesPost built the first private equity marketplace, which strove to connect buyers and sellers of private securities through its proprietary trading platform
- Forge's digital platform streamlines liquidity for hundreds of unicorn issuers and thousands of institutional and retail investors from around the world
 - Leveraging its robust technology, operations and trust infrastructure, Forge delivers a suite of services that includes trading, custody, data and company solutions

Significance of Transaction

- Together, the two companies will create one of the largest global private securities marketplaces, bringing liquidity and transparency at scale to pre-IPO companies and investors
- Combined, the two will have facilitated thousands of transactions with more than $6 billion in private market transaction volume, for hundreds of unique issuers and over 1 million customers
- The deal will provide Forge with deeper insight on private company trends, as well as bid, offer, and pricing data that provides transparency to clients and partners to better understand and engage in the private markets

FT Partners' Role

- FT Partners served as exclusive strategic and financial advisor to Forge
- FT Partners previously advised Forge on its \$70 million Series B financing
- This transaction underscores FT Partners' deep alternative marketplace domain expertise and its continued success in providing buy-side advisory to top-tier FinTech companies

FT Partners Advises Addepar on its Series D Financing

Overview of Transaction

- On June 8, 2017, Addepar announced it has raised $140 million in Series D financing co-led by Harald McPike, the founder of QuantRes, along with Valor Equity Partners and 8VC
- Headquartered in Mountain View, CA, Addepar is a leading provider of portfolio management and reporting software and services that seeks to become the infrastructure that will connect all aspects of global finance
- Harald McPike is the founder of QuantRes, a quantitative trading firm, and a global private investor with a focus on the financial and technology sectors
- Valor Equity Partners is an operational growth investment firm that does both minority and majority investments in high growth companies at various stages of development
- 8VC is a venture capital firm that makes seed to later stage investments with a focus on the technology industry

Significance of Transaction

- The financing capitalizes on Addepar's unprecedented growth — from $300 billion to over $650 billion assets on platform in less than 18 months — as top wealth managers embraced Addepar's category-defining client reporting software
- With the new capital, Addepar will continue investing significantly in R&D, expanding its product, platform and tech-enabled services to unlock more value for its clients while also serving a wider range of wealth and asset management firms

- FT Partners served as exclusive strategic and financial advisor to Addepar
- Transaction demonstrates FT Partners' continued leadership position as the "advisor of choice" to the highest quality FinTech companies as well as its deep domain expertise and experience in the WealthTech space

- FutureAdvisor is a leading digital wealth management platform with technology-enabled investment advice capabilities
- BlackRock offers investment management, risk management and advisory services to institutional and retail clients worldwide and has over $4.7tn in assets under management
- Following the transaction, FutureAdvisor will operate as a business within BlackRock Solutions (“BRS”), BlackRock’s investment and risk management platform
- The transaction is expected to close in Q4 2015

Significance of Transaction

- Combines FutureAdvisor’s tech-enabled advice capabilities with BRS’ investment and risk management solutions
- Enables BlackRock to provide a B2B digital advice platform, which helps financial institution partners both improve their clients’ investment experiences and grow advisory assets
- Empowers partners to meet the growing demand among consumers to engage with technology to gain insights on their investment portfolios
 - Demand is particularly strong among the mass-affluent, who account for ~30% of investable assets in the U.S.
