Transaction Overview

Transaction Summary

- On December 5, 2017, Intuit (Nasdaq:INTU) announced that it has signed a definitive agreement to acquire TSheets
  - Total consideration is approximately $340 million
- TSheets is used by over 35,000 customers with over 500,000 workers managed on the platform
  - TSheets is already integrated with Intuit's small business offering, and over 12,000 customers jointly use TSheets and Intuit's QuickBooks
- Following the merger, a new offering called Time Capture will allow customers to track time, streamline invoicing and pay employees on one consolidated platform
  - Matt Rissell will lead the effort, reporting to Alex Chriss, the Chief Product and Platform Officer for Intuit's Small Business and Self-Employed Group
  - TSheet's location in Eagle, ID will become an Intuit site
- Acquiring TSheets will have no material impact on Intuit's earnings guidance for second quarter and full fiscal year 2018
- The transaction is expected to close in the second quarter of fiscal 2018, pending customary closing conditions

Transaction Commentary

"With TSheets as part of Intuit, we have a tremendous opportunity to provide millions of small businesses and self-employed a smarter, simplified way to quickly and accurately track their time, send invoices, run payroll, and understand profitability by project. This acquisition will unlock critical upstream data that will allow us to create frictionless experiences that remove work, make it easier to get paid, and provide valuable insights into the health of our users' businesses."

Alex Chriss
Senior Vice President

"Similar to Intuit, TSheets has built an amazing product, created a strong company culture, and built a reputation on outstanding customer support. With this transaction, we will work together to vastly improve the customer experience and product benefits of the TSheets and QuickBooks integration. We are excited for what this means for customers, as we continue to champion their cause and provide them with the real business insights they need to thrive."
