Transaction Summary

Transaction Summary

- On October 4, 2017, SalaryFinance announced it has secured £40 million (approximately $53 million) in financing led by Legal & General
 - Founding investor, Blenheim Chalcot also participated in this round
- With this new capital, SalaryFinance has launched its Financial Wellbeing Hub, a comprehensive product suite focused on financial education
 - The Financial Wellbeing Hub empowers clients to help employees better understand their financial situations and provides salary deductible savings along with low-interest loans
 - SalaryFinance provides the Financial Wellbeing Hub to employers at no cost or liability
- The Company will also use the funds to support its international expansion
 - Headquartered in London, SalaryFinance intends to expand into the U.S. first and then into other markets
- This investment in SalaryFinance illustrates a growing recognition of potential workplace benefits to improve employees' lives

Transaction Commentary

"This investment marks the completion of the first phase of our long term plan, proving that finance can be delivered in a socially progressive way. We looked far and wide for the right investment partners who share in our focus on business with social purpose, and we are delighted to have Legal & General on board alongside Blenheim Chalcot. This investment now gives us the ability to take our growth to the next level, allowing us to launch into new and exciting product areas, such as savings. Our market leading Financial Wellbeing Hub is just the first step."

Ashesh Sarkar
Co-Founder, CEO

"Financial wellbeing lies at the heart of Legal & General's business. We provide workplace pensions for 2.4 million customers, Group Protection benefits for 2 million UK employees and Protection cover for over 5 million individuals. We want to help our customers and our employees manage and improve their financial health, using technology to make it easy to access a range of great value products and services. I am excited by the opportunity to work in partnership with SalaryFinance to broaden out and scale up this already successful and socially useful business, improving the financial wellbeing of many more people. This investment will be part of the newly created Legal & General Insurance Fintech business that brings together the many benefits and strategic advantages that Legal & General enjoys with the fast pace, technology first, customer centric approaches of successful digital startups, such as SalaryFinance."

FT Partners Advises Prosper on its Financing

Overview of Transaction

- On February 27, 2017, Prosper Marketplace announced that it has closed a landmark deal with a consortium of institutional investors to purchase up to $5 billion worth of loans through the Prosper platform over the next 24 months
- The investors in the consortium include affiliates of New Residential Investment Corp., Jefferies Group LLC, Third Point LLC and others
 - The consortium will also earn an equity stake in the company based on the amount of loans purchased, further aligning the group with Prosper's future growth and success
- Feature story in the Wall Street Journal highlighting this groundbreaking transaction

Significance of Transaction

- This latest commitment demonstrates the company's success in diversifying its investor base, and the company remains focused on bringing new banks and other institutional investors onto the platform in addition to giving individuals the opportunity to invest in this asset class
- Prosper has grown loan originations every month since July 2016, and its loan portfolio continues to deliver strong returns to its individual and institutional investors, averaging an estimated 7.86% net return in January 2017

FT Partners' Role

- FT Partners served as exclusive strategic and financial advisor to Prosper and its Board of Directors
- This transaction highlights FT Partners' expertise in closing highly complex consortium transactions and multibillion dollar deals; the transaction also further solidifies FT Partners' role as the advisor of choice in the Alternative Lending sector
