Transaction Summary

Transaction Summary

- On November 28, 2021, Slice, an India-based credit card challenger, announced it has raised $220 million in Series B equity financing
 - The round was led by Tiger Global and Insight Partners, with additional participation from Sunley House Capital, Moore Strategic Ventures, and Anfa, alongside existing investors Gunosy, Blume Ventures, and 8i
- According to TechCrunch, the round values Slice at over $1 billion, representing a 5x increase from its $200 million valuation just six months ago ⁽¹⁾
- Slice allows its users to divide monthly bills into three installments, manage expenses via its Passbook product, and share bills with friends within the app
 - The Company currently serves over 5 million customers throughout India and is accepted at nearly all merchants across India that take Visa payments
 - Slice is currently operating at an annual revenue run rate of more than $60 million, issuing over 200,000 credit cards monthly ⁽¹⁾
 - With a waitlist of over 1 million users, Slice is currently the third largest card issuer in India, according to TechCrunch ⁽¹⁾
- Slice will use its latest capital injection to fund product development, with plans to launch support for UPI, an Indian payments rail ⁽¹⁾
- The Company also plans to use the funds for hiring efforts, specifically targeting engineers, data scientists and designers ⁽²⁾

Transaction Commentary

"Slice targets an underpenetrated market in India and seamlessly allows users to make online payments, pay bills and more. There is a large opportunity in the credit and payment space in India, and slice is well-positioned to become the leader in the industry. We look forward to this partnership with slice as they continue to scale up and grow." ⁽¹⁾
