Atom Bank Raises ~$207 million in Financing

Transaction Summary

Transaction Summary

- On March 7, 2018, Atom Bank, a UK-based digital bank, announced it had secured £149 million (approximately $207 million) in financing led by BBVA and Toscafund
 - BBVA invested a further £85.4 million this round, raising its stake in Atom Bank up to 39% - an increase from its existing 29% stake when BBVA invested £45 million in November 2015
 - Atom Bank has confirmed that despite BBVA's increased stake, it will not be launching a takeover attempt at the Company ⁽¹⁾
 - Toscafund invested £54.4 million, also increasing its stake in the Company
 - Other existing Atom Bank shareholders also participated in the round
- According to Tech Crunch, this new round values Atom Bank at approximately $593 million ⁽¹⁾
- Atom Bank intends to use the fresh injection of capital to roll out new products and services
 - These new product launches are intended to capitalize on the opportunities created by the introduction of Open Banking and PSD2
- Atom Bank has experienced rapid growth – since launching in 2016, the Company has already secured £1.3 billion in deposits and has lent over £1.2 billion through mortgages and business loans

Transaction Commentary

"This further significant injection of capital secures the bank's place as a disruptive force in the mainstream of UK banking. We will continue to invest in growth, in our technology and in our products as we continue to push ahead with the support of our investors."

Mark Mullen
Chief Executive Officer

"Atom is progressing extremely well and we continue to support the company. We are fully aligned with the vision of banking that Atom is pursuing, and the disruption it is already bringing to the UK financial services sector."

Carlos Torres Vila
Chief Executive Officer

"Atom is a rapidly growing, ambitious and vibrant business that is founded on the unique fit of our shareholders, our team and our partners. I am delighted that our investors have decided to back the bank with such a significant injection of capital to fuel our mission to change banking permanently for the better."

FT Partners Advises ING on its Acquisition of Payvision

Overview of Transaction

- On January 29, 2018, ING announced that it has reached an agreement to acquire a 75% stake in Payvision
 - The transaction values Payvision at EUR 360 million (approximately $447 million)
- Headquartered in Amsterdam, ING is a global financial institution with a strong European base, offering banking services through its operating company ING Bank
 - The purpose of ING Bank is empowering people to stay a step ahead in life and in business. ING Bank's more than 51,000 employees offer retail and wholesale banking services to customers in over 40 countries
- Founded in 2002 in the Netherlands, Payvision is a fast growing, independent international card acquirer and payments platform, connecting payment service providers and their global merchants

Significance of Transaction

- The transaction will enable ING to strengthen its footprint in omnichannel payments services and expand its merchant services for its business customers, particularly in the fast-growing e-commerce segment
- By offering Payvision's solution, ING's business customers will be able to accept payments through any channel, including in store terminals and web shops and through any device

FT Partners' Role

- FT Partners served as strategic and financial advisor to ING in this transaction
- This transaction further supports FT Partners' continued success in the Payments space and highlights the Firm's versatility in generating attractive outcomes on both the sell-side and the buy-side
