An investment in the GreenFi Redwood Fund is subject to investment risks, including the possible loss of some or the entire amount invested. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be successful in meeting its investment objective. An investment in the Fund is subject to certain risks, including but not limited to:

- Sustainability Risk – The consideration of sustainability factors and the application of positive and negative screening processes may impact the investment decisions as to securities of certain issuers and, therefore, the Fund may forgo some investment opportunities available to funds that do not consider sustainability factors or apply positive or negative screening processes, or that apply different sustainability criteria or screening processes.*
- Focused Investment Risk – There is a risk that investing in a select group of securities, or securities in a particular sector, could subject the Fund to greater risks of loss and could be considerably more volatile than the Fund's primary benchmark or other mutual funds that are diversified across a greater number of securities or sectors.*

More information about these and other risks can be found in the Fund's prospectus. An investor should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses of the GreenFi Redwood Fund before investing. The prospectus and summary prospectus contain this and other information about the Fund. Copies of the prospectus and summary prospectus are available at funds.GreenFi.com or by calling Shareholder Services at 800-683-8529. The prospectus and summary prospectus should be read carefully before investing. Current and future holdings are subject to change and risk. Nothing in this email should be considered a solicitation to buy or an offer to sell shares of any fund in any jurisdiction where the offer or solicitation would be unlawful under the securities laws of such jurisdiction.
