Compounding, Crediting, and Balance Information

- Balance Computation: Interest is calculated using the daily balance method, which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal each day.
- Crediting: Interest accrues daily and is compounded monthly. Interest is paid into the member's account once a month, typically on the 1st business day of the following month.
 - If an account is closed before accrued interest has been credited, no interest will be paid.
- Minimum Balance: There is no minimum balance required to open an account or to obtain the APY.

Qualification Criteria for our highest APY

- Spend $500 or more with your GreenFi debit card in the calendar month. Qualifying debit card transactions include those made with your physical or digital card, in-person or online. However, debit card transactions for money transfer vendors (e.g., CashApp, Venmo, Facebook Pay) do not qualify towards the $500 spend requirement.
- A Qualifying Direct Deposit. A Qualifying Direct Deposit is typically a recurring deposit of regular income from your employer, payroll provider, or a government agency made via the Automated Clearing House Network. To earn the higher APY for a given calendar month, a Qualifying Direct Deposit must be received and posted to your Savings Account within the calendar month for which interest is calculated. Deposits that are not from an employer or government agency, including but not limited to check deposits, peer-to-peer transfers (e.g., transfers from PayPal, Venmo, etc.), merchant transactions (e.g., transactions from PayPal, Stripe, Square, etc.), and bank ACH funds transfers and wire transfers from external accounts, or are non-recurring in nature (e.g. IRS tax refunds), do not constitute Qualifying Direct Deposit activity. There is no minimum Qualifying Direct Deposit amount required to qualify for the stated interest rate. Although we do our best to identify all eligible direct deposits, some employers do not designate payments as direct deposit. If you believe your interest rate is not correct, please contact us at 800-683-8529 with the details of your direct deposit.
