By applying Early Decision, you have previously affirmed that, if accepted, you would immediately withdraw any applications submitted to other colleges and make no additional applications to any other college in any country.

By signing this agreement, you confirm:

- You have withdrawn all outstanding applications from other institutions and declined any offers of admission you received prior to learning that you were admitted to the University of Chicago
- You will not submit additional applications to other colleges or ask your school counselor to submit additional application information to other colleges on your behalf
- If applicable, you have received your financial aid package, reviewed it, and understand it

Students are responsible for taking all outlined steps but we ask that students complete this agreement along with their parent and school counselor so that all parties are aware of the responsibilities and requirements of Early Decision admission and the student's confirmation to enroll. If you do not complete the steps outlined in this agreement, or fail to adhere to them after confirming your enrollment, you will be referred to the Area Admissions Review Committee, which has the authority to withdraw your offer of admission.
