Jon Moeller will be P&G's President and Chief Executive Officer, succeeding David Taylor, effective November 1, 2021. Currently, Jon is P&G's Vice Chairman and Chief Operating Officer.

Jon has been an integral part of P&G's leadership team for well over two decades, developing strategies that P&G people are executing with excellence to drive the Company's growth today. P&G's positive momentum and return to balanced growth and value creation reflect the underlying strength of these strategic choices and the organization.

As the Company's Chief Operating Officer today, he has profit/loss responsibility for P&G's Enterprise Markets (Latin America, India, Middle East, Africa, Southeast Asia and Eastern Europe). He also leads the Company's Investor Relations, Information Technology, Global Business Services, Sales, Market Operations, Purchasing, Manufacturing, and Distribution efforts.

Jon held the role of P&G's Chief Financial Officer for more than 12 years, leading P&G's Finance & Accounting, Tax, Treasury, Corporate Strategy, Business Development and Investor Relations functions. He managed P&G's global Duracell, Salon Professional, Retail Hair Color, Prestige Fragrances and Retail Hair Color businesses for a multi-year period as those businesses were transitioned for sale.

Since joining P&G in 1988 as a cost analyst, Jon has held various senior leadership roles in categories, sectors and regions, including assignments in China, as the Company's Treasurer, Global Beauty, Health, Feminine Care Finance VP, and Corporate Forecasting & Analysis.

He has led major merger and acquisition operations, including the Merck KGaA acquisition and the divestitures of P&G's coffee, snacks, pharmaceuticals, battery and prestige beauty businesses.

Jon previously served on the Board of Directors for Monsanto for eight years and was Chairman of that Board's Audit Committee.

He is active in the business, civic and cultural leadership of Greater Cincinnati, serving in an advisory role on local Boards and is a Trustee Emeritus and Former Chairman of the Cincinnati Art Museum Board of Trustees.
