

All About Lizards

Do you know that lizards smell with their long, skinny tongues?

What part of your body do you smell with?

Lizards have hairy feet that work like suction cups. This helps them climb on walls or hang upside down!

Where would you hang upside down?

Lizards take naps in the sun... but when it gets too hot, they find a shady spot!

Do you like to play in the sun or the shade?

Watch “The Curious Case of Lil’ Liz” from Ada Twist, Scientist on YouTube

