

The Science of Smell

When you breathe in,
your nose sends
messages to your brain.
And your brain tells you what you're smelling!

Smell and taste go together!
If you have a stuffy nose,
your food will taste
different because you can't smell it!

Did you know that the tiny hairs in your nose help keep out
dust and germs?
Way to go, nose!

