

Preface xvii

CHAPTER 1 ► INVESTIGATION OF THE FACTS 3

I. Areas of Potential Investigation 6

- A. Investigate Witness Credibility 6
- B. Visit the Scene 7
- C. Online Investigative Tools 9
- D. Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Requests 10
- E. Video Surveillance 10
- F. Common Electronic Tracking Devices 12
- G. Receipts, Invoices, Bank Statements, and Other Business Records 14

II. Interview Adverse Witnesses 14

- A. Dress to Disarm 15
- B. Never Underestimate the Value of a Cup of Coffee 15
- C. How to Get Valuable Information from an Adverse Witness 16
  - 1. Resourceful Questioning 16
  - 2. Ethical Considerations in Secretly Recording a Witness 17

III. Tools for Discovery 19

- A. Bills of Particulars 19
- B. Demands for Production 19
- C. Motions to Compel 19
- D. Subpoena Power 20
- E. Depositions 20

IV. E-Discovery (or Electronic Discovery) 20

- A. Common Items of Electronically Stored Information 22
  - 1. Metadata 22
  - 2. Emails and Electronic or Text Messages 22
  - 3. Electronic Documents 23
  - 4. Deleted Materials 23
  - 5. Blockchain Evidence 23
- B. Response to E-Discovery Demands 24
  - 1. Identification, Collection, and Preservation of ESI 24
  - 2. Document Review, Processing, and Production 24
- C. Presentation of ESI at Trial 25

V. Finishing Your Investigation 27*TEAR OUT: INVESTIGATION CHECKLIST 29*CHAPTER 2 ► PRELIMINARY CASE ANALYSIS 31*I. Using Jury Instructions for Case Analysis 31

- A. The General Charges 32
- B. The Specific Charges as to Each Crime or Cause of Action 33
- C. The Initial Proof Matrix 33

II. Organizing Your Data and Documents 34

- A. The Annotated Timeline 35
  - 1. Examples of Different Timelines 35
    - a. Timeline of a Party's Life: Helen L 35
    - b. The Event Timeline 36
- B. Identifying Potential Exhibits 38
  - 1. Exhibits for Possible Admission into Evidence at Trial 38
  - 2. Deposition or Hearing Exhibits 38
  - 3. Exhibits for Questioning but Not for Admitting into Evidence 39

III. Using Trial Software to Organize 39

- A. Digital Tools 39
- B. Case Analysis Software 40
- C. Trial Presentation Software 40

IV. Assessing Scientific and/or Forensic Data 41

- A. Expert Qualifications 41
- B. Methodology 42
- C. Effect of the Scientific or Forensic Evidence 43

V. Pretrial Testimony 43

- A. Depositions 44

1. What Am I Doing in a Deposition? 44
2. How to Prepare for a Deposition 45
3. Questioning the Deposition Witness—Round to Ground 46
  - a. Demanding Specifics and Extracting Details 47
  - b. Recrafting Questions in Deposition Testimony for Impeachment 48
4. Film the Deposition 49
- B. Suppression Hearings in a Criminal Case 50
  1. The Suppression Hearing for the Prosecutor 50
    - a. Preparing Your Witnesses 51
    - b. Asking Questions 52
  2. The Suppression Hearing for the Criminal Defense Attorney 52
    - a. Seeking Suppression 52
    - b. Seeking Discovery 54
    - c. Setting Up Impeachment for Trial 56

TEAR OUT: PROCESS GUIDE FOR DEVELOPING A PROOF MATRIX AND CHECKLIST FOR PRETRIAL TESTIMONY 57

CHAPTER 3 ► CREATING A THEORY OF THE CASE 59

I. Scientific Method for Lawyers 59

- A. The Art of Trial Mastery 60
- B. The Science of Trial Mastery 61

II. The Facts 61

- A. STEP 1: Identify the Undisputed Facts 62
- B. STEP 2: Observe the Facts 64
- C. STEP 3: Document the Patterns and Connections 65
- D. STEP 4: Brainstorm 66

III. Legal Genres 66

- A. Criminal Law 66
- B. Civil Litigation 67

IV. Tagging the Players 68

- A. To Begin 68
- B. The Main Focus Begins to Emerge 70

V. The Test Drive 71

VI. Adding the Symphony to the Stage 72

- A. STEP 1: Search for the Elemental Truth in Your Case 72
- B. STEP 2: Choose Lyrical Words and Phrases that Embody the Story of the Case 73

VII. Putting It All Together 74

TEAR OUT: HOW TO CREATE A CASE THEORY 77

CHAPTER 4 ► TRIAL IN A BOX: MOBILIZING THE CASE THEORY 79*I. The Case Theory Proof Matrix 79*II. Organizing the Law 85

- A. Motions in Limine 86
- B. Bench Briefs 86
- C. Case Law and Statutes 86

III. Organizing the Evidence 86

- A. For Direct Examination 87
- B. For Cross Examination 88
  - 1. Witness Statement Charts 88
  - 2. Transcript Keys 89
- C. The Witness List 91
  - 1. Advance Written Notice for Special Witnesses 92
  - 2. Witness Lists in Criminal Cases 92

IV. Boxing the Exhibits 93

- A. Order and Organization 93
  - 1. The Exhibit List 93
  - 2. The Importance of an Exhibit List 95

V. The Finished Trial in a Box 95*CHAPTER 5 ► SELECTING THE RIGHT JURY FOR YOUR THEORY 99*I. The Purpose of Voir Dire 99

- A. The “Cause” Challenge 100
- B. The “Peremptory” Challenge 100
- C. Selection Procedure 100

II. General Propositions 103

- A. Observe and Analyze the Full Panel 103
- B. Interact with Your Client During Jury Selection 104
- C. Social Media/Internet Research During Jury Selection 104

III. The Voir Dire 106

- A. The Initial Questioning by the Judge 106
  - 1. First Impressions 106
  - 2. Learning from Opposing Counsel's Voir Dire 107
- B. Attorney Voir Dire 107
  - 1. What to Look for During Voir Dire 107
  - 2. Open-Ended Questions 108
  - 3. Use Your Case Theory to Voir Dire 108
  - 4. Framing Cause Challenges 109
  - 5. Time Limits 112
- C. Judicial Voir Dire 112
  - 1. How to Impact Court Questioning—Written Objections 112
  - 2. Oral Objections 113
  - 3. What Success Looks Like 114
- D. Dealing with Publicity Cases 114
  - 1. Move for a Change of Venue 115
  - 2. How to Voir Dire on Pretrial Publicity 116

IV. Selection Poker—The Strategy of the Strike 119

- A. Jury Selection Basics 119
  - 1. The Struck (or Strike) System 119
  - 2. The Sequential or “Jury Box” Method 119
- B. Selection Strategy 120
  - 1. The First Jurors Should Be Your Strongest 121
  - 2. Keep Looking Ahead 121
- C. Batson Challenges 122
- D. Selection of Alternate Jurors 123
  - 1. The Importance of Alternate Number 1 123
  - 2. Horse-Trading for Alternates 123

TEAR OUT: SAMPLE QUESTIONS FOR COMMON JURY SELECTION ISSUES 125*CHAPTER 6 ► HOW TO CRAFT A WINNING OPENING 127*I. General Principles 127

- A. Opening Statement, or Opening Argument? 127
- B. Purpose—Why Open at All? 129

II. The Importance of Storytelling 130

- A. Why Story? 131
  - 1. What Are the Components of the Story? 132
    - a. Convey Central Theory, Convey Themes, and Introduce Labels 132
    - b. Cement Personal Credibility 132
    - c. Identify the Responsible Person, Place, or Thing 133
- B. Inoculate Jurors to Bad Facts 134
- C. Tell Them What You Expect Them to Do 136

III. The Structure of a Winning Opening 137

- A. Fighter Bombing 137
  - 1. Organization of the Facts 137
- B. Build the Tension 138
  - 1. Universally Relatable Truth 138
  - 2. Goals and Actions 139
  - 3. Pace the Action 139
  - 4. Snapshots in Time 139
- C. Solve the Problem 140

IV. Persuasive Techniques 140

- A. Don't Walk and Talk 140
- B. Don't Stand Behind Anything 140
- C. Don't Read or Memorize Your Opening 140
- D. Show Respect 141
- E. Stand Close to the Jury, but Not Too Close 141
- F. Use Visuals 141

TEAR OUT: PROCESS GUIDE FOR STRUCTURING AN OPENING 143*CHAPTER 7 ► CRAFTING THE DIRECT EXAMINATION 145*I. The Fundamental Purpose of Direct Examination 145

- A. What Are We Trying to Accomplish? 145
- B. Who Is Called for Direct Examination? 146
- C. What Is Included in Direct Examination? 147

II. The Proper Format of Direct Examination 148

- A. Crafting the Open-Ended Question 148
  - 1. Use the Six "WH" questions 148
  - 2. Ask the Witness to Describe or Explain Using the Five Senses 148
  - 3. Beware of Overly Broad Questions 149
- B. Leading Questions on Direct Examination 149

III. Techniques 152

- A. Clear, Concise Language 152
- B. Ask Simple, Noncompound Questions 153
- C. Looping 153
- D. Presence 155
- E. Tone of Voice 155
- F. Movement 156
  - 1. Attorney Movement 156
  - 2. Witness Movement 157

IV. Preparing a Witness for Direct Examination 157

- A. Beginning Witness Preparation 158
  - 1. Review the Witness's Prior Statements or Testimony 158
  - 2. Re-interview the Witness 159
- B. Practice Admitting and Using Exhibits 160
  - 1. Practice the Foundation Questions for Admitting the Evidence 160
  - 2. Anticipate Objections and Opposing Counsel's Possible Voir Dire 161
  - 3. Using the Exhibit During Direct Examination 161
- C. Preparing for the Courtroom and Trial 161
- D. Preparing for Cross Examination 162
  - 1. The Four Answers of Cross Examination 162
  - 2. Prepare the Witness to Maintain Demeanor 165
  - 3. Two Commonly Troublesome Questions 166
  - 4. What to Say When You Don't Know What to Say 167

V. The Structure and Execution of an Effective Direct 168

- A. Chronological Structure 168
- B. Storytelling Structure 169
- C. The Beginning of an Effective Direct 170
- D. The Middle of an Effective Direct 172
- E. Taking the Sting Out of "Bad" Facts 174
- F. How to End Direct Examination 176
  - 1. The Statement Technique 176
  - 2. The Evidence Technique 177
  - 3. How Not to End Direct—"Asked and Answered" 178

VI. Redirect Examination 179

TEAR OUT: SIMPLE STRUCTURE FOR A CHRONOLOGICAL DIRECT EXAMINATION AND SIMPLE STRUCTURE FOR STORYTELLING DIRECT EXAMINATION 181

CHAPTER 8 ► THE ART AND SCIENCE OF CROSS EXAMINATION 183

I. The Fundamental Purpose of Cross Examination 184

- A. What Are We Trying to Accomplish? 184
- B. Who Should Be Cross Examined? 185
- C. Why Is Cross Examination So Important? 185

II. The Structure of an Effective Cross Examination 186

- A. First, a Few Rules 186
  - 1. Don't Yell at a Witness 187
  - 2. Don't Use Chronology on Cross 187
  - 3. Drive Your Case Theory Through Cross 187
  - 4. Control the Witness 188
  - 5. Don't Rehash the Direct 188
- B. Learn the "Language" of Cross Examination 189
- C. The Methodology—How to Ask Cross Examination Questions 190
- D. Start Strong 191
  - 1. The "First Three Questions" Method 192
  - 2. Example of the First Three Questions Method 193
- E. Wading into the Middle 194
  - 1. The End Around 195
  - 2. Use Transitions 196
  - 3. Close Down Excuses 197
- F. Beware the Sucker Punch 199
- G. Crossing in the Void 201

III. Completing Your Cross 202

- A. End Strong 202
- B. Primacy, Recency, Repetition 203
- C. Don't End on a Point Scored by Your Opponent 203
- D. Redirect and Recross Examination 203

TEAR OUT: THE THREE PURPOSES OF CROSS EXAMINATION AND THE DOS AND DON'TS OF CROSS EXAMINATION 207

CHAPTER 9 ► HOW TO IMPEACH WITH POWER AND PRECISION 209

I. The Purpose of Impeachment 209

- A. What Is Impeachment Material? 210
- B. Where to Look for Impeachment Material 210
- C. Ingredients of Effective Impeachment 211

II. Impeachment Technique—The Basic Formula 212

- A. Impeachment by Prior Inconsistent Statement 212
  - 1. Step #1: COMMIT the Witness to the Current Testimony 212
  - 2. Step #2: CREDIT the Circumstances of the Prior Statement 213
  - 3. Step #3: CONFRONT the Witness with the Prior Inconsistent Statement 214
  - 4. Memorize This Formula 215
- B. Slight Adjustments for Various Forms of Prior Inconsistent Statements 215
  - 1. Prior Sworn Testimony 215
  - 2. Statements that Are Not Sworn but Given Under Official Circumstances—Police Interviews, Doctor-Patient Interviews, Business Records 216
  - 3. Statements Given Orally in Nonofficial Circumstances 217
- C. Impeachment by Omission 218
  - 1. Omission—Unsworn While Witness Is Asked General Questions 219
  - 2. Omission—Unsworn Witness Asked Specific Question 220
  - 3. Omission—Sworn While Witness Is Asked General Questions 221
  - 4. Omission—Sworn While Witness Is Asked Specific Question 221
- D. Impeachment with Prior Bad Acts 222
  - 1. Impeachment with Criminal Conviction 223
  - 2. Impeachment with Conduct Underlying an Arrest or Conviction 223
  - 3. Impeachment with a Prior Bad Act Not Resulting in Arrest or Conviction 227
- E. Impeachment With Real Evidence 229

III. Completing Impeachment—What About the Witness’s Answer? 229

- A. Witness Admits the Prior Inconsistency 230
- B. Witness Denies the Prior Inconsistency 231

TEAR OUT: THE IMPEACHMENT FORMULAS 233

CHAPTER 10 ► CROSSING SPECIAL WITNESSES 237

I. The Police Witness 237

- A. What to Do with “I Don’t Recall” 238
  - 1. Demonstrate the Absurdity of the Position that the Officer Doesn’t Remember 238
  - 2. Focus on the Practical Concept that a Police Officer Must Have a Decent Memory 239

3. When You Have a Prior Statement on a Point that the Officer “Does Not Recall,” Impeach with the Prior Statement 239
- B. Challenging an Officer’s Version of Events 240
  1. First, Challenge the Lack of Documentation 240
  2. Challenge the Officer’s Version of Events as Illogical and/or Absurd 241
  3. Challenge the Testimony by “Crossing in the Void” 241
  4. Challenge with Questions that Anticipate a Future Witness with a Different Version of Events 242
- C. Exposing the “Big Four” — Bias/Hostility/Interest/Motive 243
  1. Bias and/or Hostility: Start by Backing Up and Giving Context 243
    - a. Class/Race Differences: Where Did the Officer Grow Up and Compare/Contrast to the Neighborhood the Incident Took Place in, if Applicable 243
    - b. Ask Questions About the Assumptions Made by This Officer, if Applicable 243
    - c. Ask Directly if the Officer Has Ever Had Any Dangerous or Life-Threatening Experiences in that Neighborhood or Had Friends on the Force Who Have Had Such Experiences 243
    - d. Probe Officers Who Have Strongly Held Beliefs and Feelings About the Particular Community 244
  2. Interest 244
  3. Motive and Motive to Lie 245

II. The Child Witness 246

- A. The Approach 247
  1. Get Small 247
  2. Have a Child-Friendly Appearance 247
  3. Be the Nice Teacher 247
- B. The Voir Dire on a Child’s Ability to Understand the Need to Tell the Truth 247
- C. How to Challenge Rote Testimony: Use Open-Ended Questions 249

V. Forensic Experts 250

- A. The Daubert Hearing 252
  1. Cross Examination at the Hearing 252
  2. If the Testimony Is Ruled Admissible 253
- B. Challenging the Forensic Testimony at Trial 255
  1. Challenging Firearm and Tool Mark Identification 255
  2. Authoritative Texts 257

IV. Medical Experts 258

- A. What Is the Expert Being Called For? 259
  1. Example: Practicing Gastroenterologist 259

- 2. Example: Child Abuse Expert on Shaken Baby Syndrome 259
- B. What Facts or Data Is the Testimony Based On? 260
- C. The Hypothetical Question 261
- D. Medical Experts Who Are Not Doctors 263

V. The Criminal Defendant 263

- A. Where to Locate Information for Cross of a Criminal Defendant 263
  - 1. Defense Counsel's Pretrial Motions 264
  - 2. Plea Negotiations 264
  - 3. Defense Counsel's Opening Statement 264
- B. Planning the Cross Examination: Getting Admissions 265
- C. The Devil Is in the Details 265
- D. The Interested Witness Cross 266
- E. The Prosecutor's Special Obligation to the Defendant 266

CHAPTER 11 ► CLOSING ARGUMENT (OR SUMMATION) 267

I. General Principles 268

- A. Argue the Evidence 268
- B. Include Fair Comment on the Evidence 268
- C. Comment on the Failure of Your Adversary to Deliver on Promises 269
- D. Use Real and Documentary Evidence in a Visual Manner 269
- E. Highlight the Important Jury Instructions 269

II. How to Structure Your Closing Argument 270

III. Message Islands 271

IV. Persuasive Techniques 273

- A. Speak Simply and Clearly 273
- B. Start Strong and End Strong 273
- C. Use Nonverbal Communication Effectively 274
- D. Outline and Do Not Write a Speech 274
- E. Talk to the Jury Not at Them 276
- F. Be Yourself 276
- G. Speak Confidently and with Passion 277
- H. Mark Your Territory 277

V. Use Visuals 277

VI. Practice Your Closing 278

VII. The Law of Closing Argument 278

- A. The Line Between “Fair Comment” and Denigrating Opposing Counsel 278
- B. Draw Inferences but Do Not Ask the Jury to Speculate 279
- C. Do Not Ask a Jury to “Nullify” the Law 279
- D. Keep Your Personal Opinions Out of Your Closing 280
- E. Don’t Ask the Jury to “Send a Message” Unless You are Asking for Punitive Damages 281

VIII. Oratorical Fireworks 281

TEAR OUT: THE TOOLS OF ARGUMENT 283

CHAPTER 12 ► COURTROOM DYNAMICS 287

I. The Playing Field 288

- A. The Physical Space 288
  - 1. The Logic Behind the Layout 288
- B. Occupying the Physical Space 289
  - 1. Adjust the Well to Your Comfort Level 289
  - 2. Occupy the Entire Physical Space 290
  - 3. Ask Questions 291

II. How to Present Yourself in the Courtroom 291

- A. Dressing to Win 291
- B. A Winning Attitude 293
  - 1. It’s Not About You 294
  - 2. Smile 294
  - 3. Heads Up 295
- C. Authenticity 295
- D. The Moral High Ground 296

III. Dealing with Court and Counsel 297

- A. Dealing with Difficult Judges 297
  - 1. Make a Record 298
  - 2. Just Say No 300

- 3. Make an Offer of Proof 301
- 4. Judicial Bias 302
  - a. Deducing Bias 302
  - b. Dealing with Bias 303
  - c. Moving for a Mistrial 304
- 5. Recusal Motions 305
- B. Dealing with a Difficult Adversary 305
  - 1. Assume the Worst 306
  - 2. Document Everything 307
  - 3. Demand Details 307
  - 4. Stay a Step Ahead by Anticipating Issues 308

IV. Using Technology in the Courtroom 308

- A. Smart Courtrooms 309
  - 1. The Document Camera 309
  - 2. The Integrated Lectern 310
- B. How to Effectively Use a Smart Courtroom 310
  - 1. Organize Exhibits on Your Laptop with Litigation Software Programs 310
  - 2. Demonstrative Animations 311
  - 3. Annotation Equipment 312
  - 4. Creative Ways to Use the Smart Courtroom 313
- C. Pretrial Issues 313
  - 1. Common Objections to Technical/Digital Displays of Evidence 314
  - 2. Shared Use of Equipment 314

CHAPTER 13 ► ADVOCACY THROUGH OBJECTIONS 317

I. Preserving the Record for Appeal 317

- A. What Is “The Record”? 318
  - 1. Protecting the Record 319
  - 2. How to Place Matters on the Record 319
  - 3. Remain on the Record During Trial 320
- B. Why Is Preserving the Record So Important? 321
  - 1. The Principal of Finality 321
  - 2. Preserving the Record Changes Trial Behavior 322
- C. The Opportunity to Cure 323
  - 1. Objection Sustained 323
  - 2. Curative Instruction 323
  - 3. Motion for a Mistrial 324
  - 4. Other Cures for Error at Trial 325
    - a. Move to Strike a Witness’s Testimony (Either in Part or Entirely) 325

- b. Move for a Hearing, or to Reopen a Hearing, Midtrial 326
- c. Move to Question Jurors Individually on Their Ability to Be Fair After Some Prejudice Occurs 326
- d. Ask that Previously Excluded Evidence Now Be Admitted in Response to Error 327
- e. Be Creative in Trying to Cure Error 327

II. How to Object 327

III. Some Common Objections During Opposing Counsel's Examination 328

- A. Objections to the Form of a Question 328
- B. Questions "Asked and Answered" 329
- C. Questions that Ask a Witness If Other Witnesses are Lying 329
- D. The Answer Is Not Responsive to the Question 330
- E. The Answer Is Hearsay 330
- F. The Answer Contains an Improper Opinion 331
- G. Objections to the Judge's Comments on the Credibility of Witnesses or Evidence 331

IV. When You Don't Know the Legal Basis for an Objection 332

- A. Is It a Fairness/Prejudice Issue? 332
  - 1. The Rule 403 Balancing Test 332
  - 2. Ask the Judge to Cure the Error 333
- B. Is It a Notice Issue? 333
- C. Is It a Damage Control Issue? 334
  - 1. Too Many Moving Parts 334
  - 2. Human Breakdown 335
  - 3. Juror Unrest or Inattention 336

VI. When Should I Object and When Should I Not? 337

TEAR OUT: OBJECTION CHEAT SHEET 339

CHAPTER 14 ► INTRODUCING EVIDENCE AT TRIAL 341

I. The Evidence Battle 342

- A. Relevance and Fairness 342
  - 1. Before All Else—Relevance 343
  - 2. After Relevance, Fairness 343
- B. Authentication—Is the Object What It Purports to Be? 344
  - 1. Unique Objects 344
  - 2. Generic Objects—Chain of Custody 345
  - 3. Stipulations 346
  - 4. Photographs 347

- 5. Recordings 347
- 6. Writings that Are Not Business Records 349
- 7. Scientific Evidence 349

II. The Process of Moving Items into Evidence—Exhibits 351

III. Documentary Evidence 353

- A. Hearsay Issues 353
- B. When in Doubt, Keep It Out 354
- C. Critical Evidentiary Foundations for Documents 354
  - 1. The Business Records Exception 354
  - 2. Past Recollection Recorded 355

IV. Electronic Evidence 356

- A. Text Messages, Chat Room Messages, and Instant Messages 356
- B. Emails 358
- C. Social Media Pages 359
- D. Websites and Computer Downloads 361

V. Opposing Real and Documentary Evidence 362

- A. The Voir Dire 362
- B. The Rule of Completeness 363
- C. In Limine Motions 363

TEAR OUT: FOUNDATIONS FOR AUTHENTICATION OF EVIDENCE 365

CHAPTER 15 ► THE ROLE OF SOCIAL MEDIA AS EVIDENCE 369

I. The Affirmative Use of Social Media Content as Proof 369

- A. Proving Intent or Knowledge 370
  - 1. Single Statement Posts, Comments, or Tweets 370
  - 2. Blogs 371
- B. Proving Emotional Distress or Physical Injury 372
- C. Proving Notice for Civil Actions 372
- D. Proving Conspiracy or Collusion 373

II. Impeachment with Social Media 375

III. Effectively Opposing Inferences Drawn from Social Media 376

- A. Jumping to Conclusions 376
- B. The Perils of Exaggeration 377
  - 1. Showing Exaggeration on a Website 377
  - 2. Showing Exaggeration in Posts and Online Videos—Physical Injury 378

- 3. Posts and Online Videos—Disproving Business Puffery 378
- 4. Showing Exaggeration in Online Music or Other Videos 379
- C. Know What’s Out There 381

CHAPTER 16 ► THE END GAME: AFTER YOU CLOSE, WHAT NEXT? 383

I. Preparing for Jury Deliberations—The Jury Charges 383

- A. Tailoring Jury Charges 384
  - 1. An Example in a Criminal Case 384
  - 2. An Example in a Civil Case 385
- B. Timeliness of a Request to Charge 385

II. Jury Notes 386

- A. Hints 387
  - 1. Readbacks of Testimony 388
  - 2. Exhibits 389
- B. Requests to Clarify the Law or Readbacks of the Charges 390
  - 1. Reading the Tea Leaves from Early Notes 390
  - 2. Requests for Readback or Clarification of Charges After Substantial Deliberation 391
  - 3. What Needs to Be Read Back on a Recharge? 392

III. Jury Deadlock Notes 393

- A. Actions in the Early Going 393
- B. Deadlock Notes More than a Few Hours into Deliberations 394
- C. The Allen Charge 395
  - 1. The Charge in the Allen Case 395
  - 2. Allen Charges Today 396
  - 3. Dealing with an Allen Charge 397
- D. Partial Verdicts 397

IV. Polling the Jury 398

V. The Final Note 398

TEAR OUT: SAMPLE ALLEN CHARGE 401

Index 403