

Contents

Acknowledgments	xxxv
Introduction	xxxix

CHAPTER 1

THE PRETRIAL ADVOCATE’S WORLD	1
I. Pretrial Advocacy	2
II. Human Relationships and Civility	3
A. Civility	3
Diversity and Cultural Competency	5
Gender Inclusiveness in Use of Pronouns	5
Gender Inclusiveness in Legal Documents	7
B. Ethical Relationships and Responsibilities	8
Your Client’s Dependence on Your Expertise	8
Your Power and Influence as an Attorney	8
The Importance of Your Professional Reputation	8
Consequences for Ethical Violations	9
C. A System Moving in Time	9
III. Progression of a Civil Case	9
A. Initial Stage	9
B. Pleading	10
C. Discovery	10
D. Motions and Negotiation	11
E. Counseling	11
F. Alternative Dispute Resolution	12
G. Trial Sequence	13
IV. Progression of a Criminal Case	14
A. Initial Stage	14
B. Charging	15
C. Arraignment and Bail	15
D. Discovery	16
E. Motions and Negotiation	16
F. Counseling	16
G. Trial Sequence	17

CHAPTER 2
FORMULATING THE CASE THEORY	19
I. Case Theory	20
II. Developing the Case Theory	21
A. Case Theory Components	21
B. Legal Theory	22
C. Relationship Between the Legal and Factual Theory
Components	22
Your Client's Objectives	22
Evidence	23
III. Plaintiff's Case Theory	23
A. Legal Theory	23
Civil Plaintiff	23
The Prosecutor	24
B. Selecting the Legal Theory	24
Identifying Potential Legal Theories	24
Assessing Strengths and Weaknesses	25
C. Factual Theory	26
Factually Sufficient	26
Persuasive	29
IV. Defense Case Theory	35
A. An Overview of Types of Theories	35
Attacking Weaknesses in the Plaintiff's Case Theory	35
Counterattack or Affirmative Defense	35
B. Attacking Weaknesses in the Plaintiff's Case Theory	36
Insufficient Legal Claim	36
Factual Insufficiency	38
Persuasive Insufficiency	39
Procedural Insufficiency	41
C. Affirmative Defense	42
V. Multiple Legal Theories	43
VII. Ethical Considerations	45
Checklist: Case Theory	45
CHAPTER 3
PREPARING AND MANAGING THE CASE	49
I. Preparing and Managing the Case	50
II. Planning Case Development	51
A. Case Theory as a Guide	51
B. Legal Theory — Researching the Law	54
Research Resources	54
C. Organizing the Fact Investigation	55

D. Avoiding Tunnel Vision	56
Focus Groups — A Valuable Way to Test Assumptions	59
E. Economic Factors	60
F. Informal and Formal Fact Investigation	61
Civil Case Development Methods	61
Criminal Case Development	64
III. Working in Teams	64
IV. Informal Case Development	65
A. The Investigator	65
B. The Internet	66
C. The Expert: Consultant and Witness	67
Using the Fact Development Diagram	67
Yes, You Could Use an Expert, but Should You Retain an Expert?	69
A Model for Selecting an Expert	71
1. The Expert's Conclusions Should Be Compatible with Your Case Theory	71
2. The Expert Should Compare Well to the Profile of Your Ideal Expert Witness	74
3. You Need to Overcome the Practical Problems that Lawyers Face When Choosing an Expert	76
D. Handling Demonstrative, Physical, and Documentary Evidence	78
V. Managing the Case	79
Electronic Case Management	79
Database	80
Search and Retrieval	81
Case Analysis	81
Hosting the Database	82
Discovery	82
Pretrial, Trial, and Settlement Presentations	82
VI. Organizational System	82
Journal	83
Thinking File	84
Case Summary Sheet	84
Motions, Orders, Trial Brief, Stipulations, and Pocket Briefs	85
Jury Selection	85
Opening Statement and Closing Argument	86
Witnesses	86
Exhibits and Trial Visuals	88
Jury Instructions	88
Pleadings	89
Discovery	89
To-Do List	89

VII. Ethical Considerations in Case Preparation and Management	91
A. Supervising the Investigation	91
B. The Expert	92
C. Preservation and Spoliation	92
Checklist: Case Preparation	93
CHAPTER 4
FORGING THE ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP	97
I. The Attorney-Client Relationship	98
A. Legal Relationship	98
B. Economic Relationship	99
C. Cooperative Relationship	99
II. Planning for the Initial Interview	100
A. Setting the Objectives for the Interview	100
B. Preparing for the Interview	101
1. Learn About the Prospective Client’s Situation	101
2. Do Preliminary Research of the Applicable Law	104
3. Anticipate Interpersonal Matters and Problems	104
III. Conducting the Interview	105
A. Information Gathering	105
B. Developing and Maintaining the Three Relationships: Legal, Economic, and Cooperative	107
Building the Legal Relationship	107
Establishing the Economic Relationship	108
The Cooperative Relationship	112
C. Imparting Information — Client Expectations	115
IV. Deciding Whether to Enter into the Relationship	115
Should You Take This Case	116
When Rejecting a Case	117
V. Ensuring an Ethical Relationship	118
Solicitation	118
Conflicts	119
Billing	120
Frivolous Actions	121
Competency	121
VI. Effective Case Management for the New Client	123
A. The Client’s File	123
B. Depositing Client Money in Client’s Trust Account	124
VII. Deciding to End the Relationship	125
Checklist: Client Interview	126

CHAPTER 5
COUNSELING THE CLIENT	129
I. Counseling	130
II. Planning Counseling	130
A. Identifying the Problem	130
Preparation	130
Information Gathering	131
B. Setting Counseling Objectives	132
Objective 1: Maintaining a Good Attorney-Client Relationship	132
Objectives 2 and 3: Achieving the Client’s Long-Term Case Strategy and Achieving the Client’s Short-Term Counseling Objectives	132
C. Deciding Whether to Counsel	134
D. The Extent of Counseling	135
E. Counseling Advice	136
The Process	136
The Client’s Questionable Decision	138
III. Counseling Techniques	139
A. Authoritarian and Partnership Approaches	139
Authoritarian	139
Partnership	139
B. Written or Verbal Advice	142
IV. Follow-Up on Counseling	142
V. Ethical Considerations	143
Checklist: Counseling	144
CHAPTER 6
INTERVIEWING AND PREPARING A WITNESS	147
I. THE WITNESS INTERVIEW	148
A. Identifying and Locating Witnesses	149
Decide Whom to Interview	149
B. Preparing for the Interview	150
Set Objectives for the Interview	150
Familiarize Yourself with the Case	151
Familiarize Yourself with the Jury Instructions	151
C. Planning Interview Logistics and Strategies	152
Decide When to Interview	152
Choose Where to Conduct the Interview	153

Decide Whether to Be Accompanied	154
Preserve the Interview Information	155
Record the Interview?	155
II. A MODEL INTERVIEWING APPROACH	157
A. Use Case Theories as Guides to Gathering Information	157
Preliminaries	157
Evaluate the Witness and the Evidence	158
Develop a Rapport with the Witness	159
Obtain Basic Information about the Witness	159
B. Structuring the Interview: The Funnel Model	161
Step 1 — Open-Ended Inquiry	162
Step 2 — Organize the Information	163
Step 3 — Confirm and Clarify that Information is Complete and Accurate	164
Step 4 — The Closing	166
C. The Unfriendly Witness Interview	166
Use Compelling Arguments	167
Focus on Important Information	167
Lock in Witness Information	167
D. Special Witness Issues	167
Children and the Elderly	167
Gender	169
Cultural and Diversity Competency	169
III. PREPARING THE WITNESS TO TESTIFY	170
A. Preparing the Witness for an Online Trial Appearance	170
Exhibits	171
B. Preparing the Witness for the Courtroom	172
C. Preparing the Witness on the Substance of Their Testimony	173
The Role of the Witness	173
Prior Witness Statements	173
The Witness’s Story	174
Exhibits and Courtroom Demonstrations	174
D. Preparing the Witness on How to Testify	174
1. Appearance	175
2. Communication on Direct Examination and Redirect	175
3. Communication on Cross-Examination	175
E. Methods for Witness Preparation	176
Meeting with the Witness	177
Provide Written Material	177
View a Video	178

Practicing Direct Examination	178
Practicing Cross-Examination	179
F. The Expert Witness	179
Interview Your Expert Witness	180
Checklist: Topics for Interviewing Your Expert	180
Prepare Your Expert	181
Checklist: Preparing Your Expert for Direct and Cross Examination	182
IV. ENSURING AN ETHICAL RELATIONSHIP	183
Ethical Rules Relating to Witnesses — Summary	184
Checklist: Witness Interview	184
CHAPTER 7
STRATEGIC PLEADING	189
I. Pleadings	190
A. Civil Pleadings: Basic Pleading Concepts	191
Affirmative Pleading	191
Responsive Pleading	191
B. Criminal Pleadings: Basic Pleading Concepts	193
II. Planning the Civil Pleading	194
A. Setting the Objectives for Pleading	194
Discovery and Pleading	194
Negotiation and Pleading	195
Dismissal and Pleading	195
B. Preparing to Draft Pleadings — Civil Case Theory
Development	195
Procedural Requirements	195
Legal Sufficiency	197
Factual Sufficiency in Civil Pleading: Two Standards — The Plausibility Standard (Twombly and
Iqbal) and Notice Pleading	198
III. Drafting the Civil Pleading	202
A. Two Cases: Federal vs. State Pleadings and Plausibility vs.
Notice Pleadings	202
B. Barefoot Cyclist Case: Factual and Legal Background	202
C. Case Theory and Strategy as Guides	204
D. Pleading Subject Matter Jurisdiction and Venue	205
Considerations in Selecting a Forum	205
Subject Matter Jurisdiction	205
Venue	206
E. Claims and Defenses	207
Legal Theory as Guides	207
Burden of Pleading	209

Contents

Joinder of Claims or Defenses	210
Case Strategies as Guides	210
F. Proper Parties	211
Legal Theory as Guides	212
Rules Governing Joinder of Parties	213
Case Strategy as a Guide	213
G. Pleading a Claim for Relief	214
Legal Theory as a Guide	214
Case Strategies as Guides	215
Damages and Other Forms of Relief	216
H. The Amount of Information to Plead	217
Plausibility: Fully Dressed Pleading — Storytelling	217
Notice: Bare-Bones Pleading	218
The Strategic Considerations	219
I. Anticipating Attacks on the Pleading	220
J. Satisfying Procedural and Technical Requirements	221
Pleading Sources	221
Technical Format	222
K. Writing an Effective Pleading	224
L. Focusing on the Answer	225
A Motion, an Answer, or Both	225
Framing the Answer	227
Affirmative Defenses, Counterclaims, Crossclaims, and Third-Party Claims	228
M. Other Strategic Issues: Deciding When to File	230
Deciding What Additional Pleading You Will Do	230
N. Filing, Service, and Electronic Means	231
Filing and Serving a Pleading	231
E-Filing and Service	232
IV. Learning By Example: Civil Pleadings	234
A. Federal Pleadings and the Plausibility Standard	235
B. State Pleadings and Notice Pleading	260
V. Planning and Drafting Criminal Pleadings	271
A. Setting the Objectives for Pleading	271
B. Preparing to Draft the Charging Document — Case Theory Development	273
Legal Sufficiency	273
Factual Sufficiency	274
C. The Charges to File, If Any	274
Evidentiary Standards	275
Nonevidentiary Reasons to Decline Charges	277
Number and Nature of Charges	277

VI. Ethical Considerations	278
A. Civil	279
B. Criminal	280
Checklist: Strategic Pleading	281
CHAPTER 8
CREATING A COORDINATED DISCOVERY PLAN	283
I. Discovery	284
A. Civil Discovery	284
Procedural and Substantive Rules	284
What Is Discoverable?	285
Initial Disclosure and Formal Discovery	290
Protective Order	294
B. Criminal Discovery	294
C. Freedom of Information Act	295
II. Planning Civil Discovery	296
A. Setting Discovery Objectives	296
B. Discovery and Case Strategy	297
C. Developing a Discovery Plan — Case Theory as a Guide	298
A Focused Discovery Plan	298
A Coordinated Discovery Plan	298
Case Theory and Discovery	299
D. Five-Step Strategy for Coordinated Discovery	302
Step 1 — Using the Case Theories as Guides, Determine What Information You Want	303
Step 2 — Identify Likely Persons and Entities That Could Provide That Information	304
Step 3 — Identify the Types of Information to Seek	307
Step 4 — Select the Discovery Tool Suitable to the Task	308
Step 5 — Determine the Timing and Sequencing of Discovery	311
E. Preservation and Spoliation	312
F. The Lawyer’s Signature — Certification	313
G. E-Discovery	314
“Electronically Stored Information”	315
Rule Number 1	317
Early E-Discovery Plan	318
Form of Production	318
Preservation and Sanctions	319
Objections to ESI Discovery Requests	320
“Proportional to the Needs of the Case”	321
Report of Senate Committee on the Judiciary	324
Responding Party’s Best Practices and Strategies	326

Requesting Party’s Best Practices and Strategies	329
Digital Forensic Expert	330
III. Drafting Civil Discovery Requests	331
A. Drafting Interrogatories	331
1. Preamble and Definitions	331
2. Combine Broad and Narrow Questions	334
3. Unambiguous Questions	335
4. Require Identification of Persons and Documents	336
5. Party’s Signature Under Oath	336
B. Drafting Responses to Interrogatories	337
Preparation to Respond	337
The Ambiguous Interrogatory	338
Privileged Information	339
E-Discovery and Business Records	340
C. Drafting Requests for Production	342
Preface	342
Particularity	342
Interlink Requests for Production with Interrogatories	343
Protect Against Destruction	343
D. Drafting Responses to Requests for Production	344
Duty to Preserve	344
Form or Forms of Production	344
Formulating the Response	345
E. Drafting Requests for Admissions	347
F. Drafting Responses to Requests for Admissions	350
IV. Criminal Discovery	351
A. Discovery Rules, Statutes, and Devices	351
Court Rules and Statutes	352
Open-File Policy or Defense Motion	352
Other Tools for Discovery	353
B. Brady Material	354
V. Motion to Compel Discovery and Request Sanctions	354
A. Determining When to Make a Motion to Compel Discovery	354
Considerations	355
Resolving Disputes over Civil Discovery	355
B. Sanctions	356
C. Drafting a Motion to Compel Discovery	356
VI. Effective Case Management	357
VII. Ethical and Civility Considerations	358
A. Ethical and Civil Discovery Practices	358
B. Confidential Communications in Electronically Stored Information	360
C. Prosecutor’s Ethical Discovery Obligations	360
Checklist: Civil Discovery	361

CHAPTER 9
TAKING AND DEFENDING DEPOSITIONS	365
I. Depositions	366
A. Procedural and Substantive Rules	367
Who Can Be Deposed	367
When a Deposition Can Be Taken	368
How Many Depositions and Duration	369
Service, Subpoena, and Notice	369
Production of Materials — Subpoena Duces Tecum	370
Where and When	370
Persons Present	370
Recording the Deposition	371
B. Objections	372
Form and Procedure	372
Grounds for Objections	372
C. Other Attorneys' Examinations	375
D. Deponent's Review	375
E. Befriending the Reporter	375
II. Whom to Depose	376
Deciding Whom to Depose	376
Other Considerations	376
III. Planning to Take a Deposition	377
A. Setting the Deposition Objectives	377
B. Five-Step Approach for a Coordinated Discovery Plan	380
Step 1 — Using the Case Theories as Guides, Determine What Information You Want	382
Step 2 — Identify Likely Persons and Entities That Could Provide That Information	382
Step 3 — Identify the Types of Information to Seek and Step 4 — Select the Discovery Tool Suitable to the Task	383
Step 5 — Determine the Timing and Sequencing of Discovery	383
C. Preparation for Taking the Deposition	383
Know Your Case	384
Your Notes — Your Questions	384
Notice and Documents	384
Recording the Deposition	385
Location and Setting for the Deposition	385
Stipulations	385
Exhibits	386
Real-Time Transcription	386
IV. Model Approaches to Opening and Closing a Deposition	387
A. Introductions and Positioning	387

B. Opening Remarks	388
C. Closing Remarks	389
V. Deposition Strategies Driven by the Deposition’s Objectives and the Type of Deponent	390
A. Preservation Deposition — Direct Examination	390
Rule Regarding Preservation	390
Creating Evidence for Trial	391
B. Discovery Deposition — Going Fishing	394
C. Adverse Witness Deposition — Concession-Based Examination	396
Content	397
Construction	402
Control	407
Differences from a Cross-Examination at Trial	409
Interplay Between the Deposition and Cross-Examination at Trial	409
D. Opposing Party’s Expert Witness	410
Expert Witness Fees	410
Preparation to Take the Expert’s Deposition	410
The Expert’s Methodology	412
E. Evaluating the Person and the Evidence	416
VI. Controlling the Deposition	416
A. Meeting Objections	416
B. Responding to an Attorney’s Directions Not to Answer	417
C. Overcoming Problems with Defending Counsel	418
VII. The Pandemic Effect — Remote Depositions	421
The Shift to Virtual Depositions	421
Selecting the Platform	422
Way of the Future	423
Preparing the Deponent	423
VIII. The Video Deposition	424
IX. Defending the Deposition	425
A. The Defending Counsel’s Role	425
B. Preparing for a Deposition	425
Preparing the Deponent	425
Preparing to Object and to Direct the Deponent Not to Answer	431
Questioning the Client or Friendly Witness	432
C. Preparing the Expert Deponent	432
Scheduling	432
Assembling the Expert’s File	433
Topics for Examination	433
D. Reviewing and Correcting the Transcript	434

X. Seeking Judicial Intervention	435
XI. Ethical and Civility Considerations	436
Checklist: Taking the Deposition	437
Checklist: Defending the Deposition	441
CHAPTER 10
PERSUASIVE VISUALS AND MODERN TECHNOLOGY	443
I. Persuasive Visuals	444
A. The Choice: High-, Medium-, Low-, or No-Tech	446
II. Modern Technology	446
A. Software	447
Linear Software	447
Nonlinear Software	447
B. Virtual Trials and In-Person Trials	448
Internet Trial	448
In-Person Courtroom Trial	449
III. Creating Visuals	451
A. On Your Own	451
B. Professionals	452
The Display Options	453
IV. Evidentiary Foundation	453
Relevant	453
Authentic	454
Probative Value	455
Hearsay	456
V. Planning Visuals — An Example	456
A. Case Theory as the Guide	456
B. Scene Visit	457
C. Evidentiary Foundation	459
D. Preparing the Visual	459
E. Preparing to Use the Visuals	460
VI. Examples of Visuals	461
A. Storytelling — Opening Statement	461
B. Complexities	465
Technical Information	465
A Large Quantity of Information	465
C. Improbability of the Opposing Party's Story	467
D. Courtroom Demonstrations	468
E. Argument Visuals	468
VII. Ethical Considerations	471
A. Fairness	471
B. Lawyer Competence and Technology	471
C. Visuals Containing Unethical Content	472
Checklist: Visuals	473

CHAPTER 11
PRETRIAL MOTION ADVOCACY	475
I. Pretrial Motion Practice	477
II. Planning the Motion	477
A. Setting Objectives: Ends-Means Thinking	477
B. Developing a Motion Theory	478
C. Motion Legal Theory	479
Identifying Your Motion Legal Theory	479
Identifying the Standard Motion Legal Theory—An Illustration	482
Creating a Non-Standard Motion	483
Putting a Standard Motion to a Creative Use	484
D. Motion Factual Theory	484
Factually Sufficient	484
Persuasiveness	485
Logic and Human Values	485
E. Responding to a Party’s Motion Theory	485
F. Putting the Process Together: The Motion Theory—An Illustration	486
Legal Theory	486
Factual Theory	488
G. Motion Theme	488
H. Relationship Between the Motion Theory and Case Theory	489
I. Further Research and Preparation	489
III. Making the Factual Record	490
A. The Burden and the Type of Record	490
B. Documentary Factual Record	490
C. Evidentiary Hearing Factual Record	492
IV. A Hearing on the Motion	492
A. Filing and Service	493
B. Conference with Opposing Counsel	494
C. Single Hearing or Separately	494
D. Notice of Motion	494
V. Writing the Compelling Motion or Response	495
A. The Essential Baker’s Dozen Elements	495
1. Motion and Memorandum of Law	496
2. Notice of Motion	496
3. Motion Heading and Caption	496
4. Motion Relief Requested	497
5. Motion Statement of Case	497
6. Motion Statement of Facts	498
7. Motion Statement of Issue Presented	499
8. Motion Argument	500

9. Conclusion	502
10. Signing, Filing, Submitting, or Later Advocating	503
11. Evidence Relied Upon	504
12. Proposed Order	504
13. Proof of Service	505
The Response	505
B. Telling a Persuasive Story — The Statement of Facts	505
Factually Sufficient	505
Persuasive Storytelling	506
C. Framing the Issues — The Statement of Issues	507
D. Arguing the Law — The Argument Section	508
Syllogistic Argument	509
E. Interweaving the Theme	509
F. Writing Style, Structure, and Gaffes	510
VI. Persuasively Arguing the Motion or Response	512
A. The Beginning — Grab the Judge’s Attention	512
B. The Middle — Use Compelling Legal and Factual Arguments	513
Organization	513
Factual Argument	513
Legal Argument	514
C. The End — Present a Strong Conclusion	515
D. Know the Judge	515
E. Fielding Questions — A Dialogue with the Bench	515
F. Be Prepared on the Facts and Law	517
G. Courtesy and Respect	517
H. Courtroom Positioning	518
I. Visuals	518
The Technology	519
The Software	519
J. Appearance and Delivery	520
Body Language	520
Speaking Techniques	521
K. On Time	521
VII. The Adverse Ruling	521
A. Reconsideration	522
B. Appellate Review	522
Appealable?	522
Sensible?	522
VIII. Ethical and Civility Considerations	523
A. Opposing Legal Authority	523
B. Not Frivolous	524

C. Not for an Improper Purpose	524
D. Civility in Motion Advocacy	525
Checklist: Pretrial Motion Advocacy	526
CHAPTER 12
NEGOTIATING THE BEST DISPOSITION	531
I. Negotiation	532
II. Planning Negotiation	533
A. Setting Objectives	533
B. Developing a Negotiation Theory	534
C. Facts	535
D. Law	536
Supporting Legal Precedent	538
Guideline for Optimum Solution	538
Limitation on Optimum Disposition	539
E. Client's Needs and Wishes	539
F. Incentives	540
Noneconomic	541
Economic	543
III. The Bargaining Range	544
A. A Persuasive Range of Solutions	544
B. Determining the Range	544
C. The Optimum Solution	545
Settlement Value	546
D. The Least Desirable Solution	547
Settlement Value	548
The Client's Recovery	549
Client's Needs and Wishes	549
Reconsider — Alternatives and Consequences	550
E. Solutions Within the Range	551
IV. Successful Negotiation	551
A. The Right Frame of Mind	551
Ends-Means Thinking	552
Creative Thinking	553
Reasonable and Rational	554
B. Demand Letter	554
C. Negotiation Styles — Competitive Versus Cooperative	558
D. Applying the Negotiation Theory	561
V. Negotiation Techniques	563
A. Administrative Matters	564
B. A Favorable Setting and Time	565
C. Bargaining	566
Choices in Bargaining Tactics	566

Applying the Bargaining Tactics	568
D. Pressure	568
Carrot or Stick	569
Ultimatum	569
E. Exchanging Information	570
Persuasion — Settlement Presentations	570
Discovery — Gathering Information	571
F. Bringing Negotiation to Closure	571
VI. Settlement	573
A. Settlement Agreement	573
The Contract	573
Types of Settlement Agreements	573
B. Other Settlement Documents	575
Dismissal	575
Release	575
Covenant Not to Sue	575
VII. Ethical Considerations	575
A. False Representations	576
B. The Client's Decision	577
C. Communication with the Client	578
VIII. Negotiation in the Criminal Justice System: Parallels to and Contrasts with Civil Case Negotiation	579
A. Parallels	579
Whether to Negotiate	579
Preparation for Negotiation	580
Plan a Hierarchy of Solutions	580
Peripheral Benefits	583
B. Contrasts	583
1. Moral Values	583
2. Protection of the Innocent	584
3. Institutional Players	584
4. Sentencing Schemes	585
5. Constitutional Rights	588
6. Judge Has the Final Say	588
Checklist: Negotiation	589
 CHAPTER 13
ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION ADVOCACY	593
I. Alternative Dispute Resolution	594
II. Choosing the ADR Process	595
III. Planning and Preparing for an ADR Process	596

IV. Attributes of Arbitration and Mediation	598
V. Arbitration	599
A. The Arbitration Process	599
B. Voluntary or Mandatory	600
Voluntary	600
Mandatory	601
C. The Arbitrator	602
D. Arbitration Proceedings	603
E. Appeal	605
VI. Mediation	606
A. The Mediation Process	606
B. Participation	608
C. Confidentiality	608
D. Advocacy Techniques and Strategies	612
Law and Evidence	612
Knowing the Mediator	613
Selecting the Mediator	614
Mediator Techniques	615
Advocating To and Through the Mediator	616
Advocating the Case Theory	617
Advocating for Money	618
Visual Advocacy	620
E. Persuasive Mediation Brief	622
But First	622
Confidential or Not — Your Audience	623
Timeliness	624
Structure and Content	624
Length	628
Tone and Hyperbole	628
F. Mediation Settlement Agreement	628
VII. Hybrid ADR Processes	629
VIII. Settlement Conferences	631
IX. Ethical Considerations	632
A. Scope of Representation, Allocation of Authority, and Communication	632
The Client’s Decision	632
Communication with the Client	633
B. Aggregate Settlement	633
C. Client Counseling	633
Checklist: ADR	634

CHAPTER 14
PRETRIAL READINESS CONFERENCES	639
I. Judge-Hosted Pretrial Conference	640
II. Pretrial Conferences in Civil Cases	642
A. Overview	642
Local Rules Govern	643
Scheduling Conference, Joint Status Report, or Both	643
B. Agenda Items for the Conference	643
Nature of the Case	644
Pretrial Conference Memorandum or Order	645
Trial Ground Rules	646
Proposed Jury Instructions	648
Narrowing the Issues	650
Motions in Limine	650
Witnesses	652
Exhibits	654
Special Procedures	656
Special Needs	656
Alternative Dispute Resolution	656
Settlement	656
C. Pretrial Order	657
III. Pretrial Conferences in Criminal Cases	661
A. Nature of a Criminal Case Pretrial Conference	661
B. Omnibus Hearing	661
IV. Ethical Considerations	664
Checklist: Pretrial Conference	664
 CHAPTER 15
THE CASES AND ASSIGNMENTS	667
I. Experiential Learning	668
II. Factual Summary	669
A Brief Summary of Facts	669
III. Case Files on CasebookConnect.com	671
IV. Videos on CasebookConnect.com	672
V. Rules of the “Game”	672
A. Jurisdiction	672
B. The Procedural and Professional Responsibility Rules	673
C. Dates	673
D. Civil Case	673
E. Cultural Competency	674
F. Your Responsibilities	674
G. The “Game”	675

VI. Pretrial Advocacy: Assignments	676
Assignment 1: The Role of an Attorney in the Adversary System	676
Assignment 2: Prosecutor: Initial Development of a Case Theory (Homicide)	676
Assignment 3: Defense Attorney: Initial Development of a Case Theory (Charge of Premeditated First-Degree Murder)	677
Assignment 4: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Theorizing About Summers v. Hard	678
Assignment 5: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Theorizing About Summers v. Hard	679
Assignment 6: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Theorizing About Summers v. Hard	680
Assignment 7: Attorneys for Defendants Hard and Davola: Meeting and Theorizing About Summers v. Hard	680
Assignment 8: Prosecutor and Defense Attorney: Case Fact Development Overview	681
Assignment 9: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Case Fact Development Overview	682
Assignment 10: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Utilizing Case Analysis and Management Software	682
Assignment 11: Defense Attorney: Interviewing Ed Hard Regarding a First-Degree Murder Charge (the Formation of an Attorney-Client Relationship)	683
Assignment 12: Defense Attorney: Interviewing Ed Hard for a Bail Reduction Motion (Charge of First-Degree Murder)	684
Assignment 13: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Interview of Deborah Summers	684
Assignment 14: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Interview of Ronnie Summers	685
Assignment 15: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Client Interview	686
Assignment 16: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Client Interview	686
Assignment 17: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Interview of Mary Apple	687

Assignment 18: Prosecutor: Counseling a Witness Whether to Talk to Your Adversary (Peter Dean)	687
Assignment 19: Prosecutor: Counseling a Key Witness Who Is Threatening to Leave Town (Deborah Summers)	688
Assignment 20: Defense Attorney: Counseling the Defendant Concerning a Drinking Problem and Testifying at a Suppression Motion	688
Assignment 21: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Counseling Client to See a Psychologist (Deborah Summers)	689
Assignment 22: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Counseling Client Concerning Remarriage (Deborah Summers)	690
Assignment 23: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Counseling Client Concerning Granddaughter's School Truancy (Gretchen Summers)	691
Assignment 24: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Counseling Client Concerning His Objections to Deposition of Adverse Witness (Deborah Summers)	691
Assignment 25: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Counseling Client About the Litigation	692
Assignment 26: Plaintiff's and Defendants' Attorneys: Counseling Clients to Accept Settlement	692
Assignment 27: Prosecutor: Interview of Dr. L. H. Jackson (Medical Examiner)	693
Assignment 28: Prosecutor: Interview of Peter Dean	694
Assignment 29: Prosecutor: Interview of Jack Waters	694
Assignment 30: Prosecutor: Interview of Detective Tharp (Investigating Officer for the Case)	695
Assignment 31: Defense Attorney: Interview of John Gooding	696
Assignment 32: Defense Attorney: Interview of Cindy Rigg	696
Assignment 33: Defense Attorney: Interview of Marty Saunders (Witness for a Suppression Motion)	697
Assignment 34: Defense Attorney: Interview of James Raven (Polygrapher)	698
Assignment 35: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Interview of Bert Kain	698
Assignment 36: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Interview of Dr. Brett Day	699
Assignment 37: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Interview of Karen Sway	699

Contents

Assignment 38: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Interview of Rebecca Karr	700
Assignment 39: EKKO Attorney for Defendant Davola: Interview of Roberta Montbank	701
Assignment 40: Prosecutor: Drafting a Criminal Pleading	701
Assignment 41: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Planning and Drafting Pleadings	702
Assignment 42: Defendants' Attorneys: Planning and Drafting Responsive Pleadings	703
Assignment 43: Defense Attorney: Seeking Discovery from the Government	703
Assignment 44: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Discovery Planning	704
Assignment 45: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Initial Disclosure and Written Discovery Requests	705
Assignment 46: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Preparing a Client for a Deposition (Deborah Summers)	706
Assignment 47: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Preparing a Client for a Deposition (M. C. Davola)	706
Assignment 48: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Preparing an Expert Witness for a Deposition (Dr. Thomas Monday, Economist)	707
Assignment 49: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Preparing an Expert Witness for a Deposition (Dr. Brett Day, Treating Physician)	707
Assignment 50: Plaintiffs' Attorney: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Party (Tom Donaldson)	708
Assignment 51: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Party (Deborah Summers)	709
Assignment 52: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Party (Gretchen Summers)	710
Assignment 53: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Taking the Deposition of a Neutral Witness (Roberta Montbank)	710
Assignment 54: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Taking the Deposition of a Neutral Witness (Bert Kain)	711

Assignment 55: Attorney for Defendant Davola: Taking the Deposition of Neutral Witness (Betty Frank, Nurse)	712
Assignment 56: Defendant Davola's Attorney: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Dr. David Bowman, Plaintiffs' Behavioral Psychologist)	713
Assignment 57: Defendants' Attorneys: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Dr. Bruce Hann, Plaintiffs' Economist)	714
Assignment 58: Attorney for Defendant Hard: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Dr. Brett Day, Plaintiffs' Medical Expert)	715
Assignment 59: Defendants' Attorneys: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Hao Tredwell, Firearms Expert)	715
Assignment 60: Defendants' Attorneys: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Dr. Pat Gage, Psychiatrist)	716
Assignment 61: Plaintiffs' Attorneys: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Dr. Ennis Martinez, Psychologist)	717
Assignment 62: Plaintiffs' Attorneys: Taking the Deposition of an Adverse Expert Witness (Dr. Dale Thompson, Hotel Management)	717
Assignment 63: Prosecutor and Defense Attorney: Planning and Visiting the Scene	718
Assignment 64: Prosecutor and Defense Attorney Prepare Exhibits and Other Visuals	719
Assignment 65: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Planning and Visiting the Scene	719
Assignment 66: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys Prepare Exhibits and Other Visuals	720
Assignment 67: Defense Attorney: Planning Constitutionally-Based Pretrial Motions	720
Assignment 68: Prosecutor: Planning Responses to Constitutionally-Based Pretrial Motions (Suppression Motions)	721

Contents

Assignment 69: Defense Attorney and Prosecutor: Constitutionally-Based Pretrial Motion (Suppression of Ed Hard's Gun)	722
Assignment 70: Defense Attorney: Constitutionally- Based Pretrial Motion (Evidentiary Hearing: Suppression of Statements to Officer Yale)	722
Assignment 71: Defense Attorney and Prosecutor: Constitutionally-Based Pretrial Motion (Suppression of the Statement Given to Detective Tharp)	723
Assignment 72: Defendants' and Plaintiffs' Attorneys: Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment and Plaintiffs' Response (Mental Distress)	725
Assignment 73: Plaintiffs' Attorney and Defendant Davola's EKKO Attorney: Plaintiffs' Motion to Compel Production of Documents and Defendant Davola's Response	726
Assignment 74: Defense Attorney and Prosecutor: Negotiation (Plea Bargaining)	727
Assignment 75: Attorney for Plaintiff Deborah Summers: Draft a Demand Letter	728
Assignment 76: Attorneys for Defendant Hard and SAPO Insurance Company: Negotiation Concerning Duty to Defend	729
Assignment 77: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Negotiation Between Plaintiffs and Defendants	729
Assignment 78: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Arbitration and Mediation	730
Assignment 79: Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Attorneys: Pretrial Readiness	731
VII. Table of Contents for Case Files on CasebookConnect.com	734
VIII. Table of Contents for Exemplary Forms on CasebookConnect.com	739
IX. Table of Contents for Additional Material on CasebookConnect.com	740
Index	743