

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xxv
About the Authors	xxvii
Chapter One: Trial Basics	1
I. Understanding the Law.....	1
A. Civil Cases	2
1. Cause of Action	2
2. The Burden of Proof.....	2
3. Damages.....	3
B. Criminal Cases.....	3
1. The Burden of Proof.....	3
2. Aggravating and Mitigating Factors and Affirmative Defenses	4
C. Case Law.....	4
II. The Order of a Trial.....	5
III. The Format of a Courtroom	6
IV. The Anatomy of a Case File	7
Chapter Two: Case Preparation	9
I. Organize Your Trial Binder.....	9
II. Read and Outline the Case.....	10
A. Grasp the Applicable Statutes and Case Law	10
B. Determine Which Witnesses are Helpful to Each Side.....	10
C. For Each Witness, Identify the Key Favorable and Unfavorable Facts	12
D. Consider the Admissibility of All Facts	13
E. Compile a Summary of Key Facts that Will Likely be Established at Trial.....	15

- III. Analyze the Facts to Develop a Story, Theory, and Theme..... 16
 - A. Consider the Possibilities.....17
 - B. Prepare Your Case Theory and Theme..... 18
 - 1. Develop a Theory 18
 - 2. Develop a Theme.....19
 - 3. Return to Your Story 20
- IV. Get the Most from Your Work..... 21
 - A. Planning Closing Argument and Opening Statement 21
 - B. Planning Direct Examinations 22
 - C. Planning Cross-Examinations 23
 - D. Planning Objections and Responses..... 23
- Chapter Three: Communication Techniques 25
 - I. The Importance of Effective Communication 25
 - A. Confidence..... 25
 - B. Integrity 26
 - II. Nonverbal Communication Techniques..... 26
 - A. Stay in Role at All Times..... 27
 - B. Be Careful Not to Upstage Your Witnesses 27
 - C. Make Eye Contact with the Witnesses and Factfinder..... 28
 - D. Use Body Movement to Explain and Emphasize Points..... 29
 - E. Minimize Reliance on Notes..... 31
 - III. Verbal Communication Techniques 33
 - A. Show Respect to the Judge 33
 - B. Use Powerful Speech 33
 - 1. Take the Lead Out 34
 - 2. Say What You Mean and Mean What You Say..... 34
 - C. With Descriptive Language and Legalese, Be Mindful of Your Audience 35
 - 1. When the Factfinder Is a Jury..... 35
 - 2. When the Factfinder Is a Judge 36
 - D. Use Primacy and Recency 36

E.	Use Repetition and Duration to Emphasize Your Most Important Points	36
F.	Use Reflective Questioning to Illustrate Time, Distance, and Intensity	38
G.	Use Nouns and Verbs in Place of Adjectives	39
H.	Use Apposition to Compare Related Facts.....	40
I.	Use Headlines for Emphasis and Transition	40
J.	Use Enumeration When Addressing Related Points	41
K.	Do Not Be Overly Thankful	42
L.	Resist the Temptation to Respond to Witnesses’ Answers	42
IV.	Communicating with Pictures and Demonstrations	43
A.	Use the Exhibits	43
B.	Create Visual Aids.....	44
C.	Conduct Demonstrations	44
Chapter Four:	Pretrial Matters.....	45
I.	Preliminary (A.K.A. “Housekeeping”) Matters—Establishing the Courtroom Rules	45
A.	Should I Treat the Trial as a Jury Trial or Bench Trial?	46
B.	Should I Assume Objections are Being Argued at Sidebar?.....	47
C.	Does the Court Have Rules About Moving Around the Courtroom?.....	50
D.	Should I Seek Permission Prior to Each Instance of Approaching a Testifying Witness?.....	51
E.	(In Jury Trials) Is the Court Willing to Read Stipulations Aloud?	51
II.	Additional Housekeeping Matters	52
A.	Provide Pretrial Notice if Required	52
B.	Inform the Court that You Plan to Use Demonstrative Evidence.....	52
C.	Cover Any Other Plans You Have that are Remotely Controversial.....	54
III.	Motions in Limine	55

Chapter Five: Playing an Effective Witness.....	57
I. The Importance of Effective Witnesses	57
II. Key Qualities of Effective Witnesses.....	58
A. Be Prepared	58
1. Take Note of Any Conflicts with Another Witness’s Anticipated Testimony.....	58
2. If While Testifying You Forget an Important Fact, Say So.....	59
3. Describe Key Facts Using the Same Words that Appear in the Witness’s Statement/Affidavit/Transcript.....	60
B. Be Believable, Credible, and Confident	61
C. Be Interesting.....	63
III. Techniques for Handling Direct and Cross-Examination	65
A. Listen Critically to Each Question and Pause Before Answering	65
B. On Cross-Examination, Listen for Clues Within Objections	66
1. Vague	68
2. Compound	69
3. Calls for Speculation	69
4. Relevance	70
5. (Calls for) Hearsay or Double Hearsay	70
C. Address Internal Assumptions, Premises, or Predicates Separately	72
D. Be Succinct If Possible but Explain If Needed	72
E. Ask to See Any Document Referenced	73
F. Do Not Fight Necessary Admissions.....	74
G. Do Not Take on the Role of Advocate.....	74
H. Be the Same Person on Cross as Direct.....	75
I. Make Only Reasonable Inferences from the Case File.....	76
Chapter Six: Evidence Made Simple.....	79
I. Relevance.....	79
II. Unfair Prejudice.....	80

III. Lack of Personal Knowledge and Speculation	80
IV. Hearsay.....	81
V. Improper Character Evidence Generally.....	84
A. Conviction of Crime	84
B. Character for Untruthfulness	85
Chapter Seven: Direct Examination.....	87
I. The Role of Direct Examination.....	87
A. Set Forth Your Theory of the Case	87
B. Introduce the Undisputed Facts	87
C. Enhance the Likelihood of Disputed Facts.....	88
D. Lay Foundation for Introducing Exhibits	88
E. Reflect upon Witness Credibility.....	88
F. Hold the Factfinder’s Attention	88
II. The Rules of Direct Examination.....	89
A. Ask Only Nonleading Questions.....	89
B. Avoid Questions That Elicit “Narrative” Responses.....	90
C. Obey the Nonopinion Rule	91
D. Refresh the Witness’s Recollection When Necessary	92
E. Have the Appropriate Witnesses Identify the Defendant (Prosecution Only)	94
F. Use Stipulations When Helpful.....	95
III. Planning Direct Examinations	98
A. Content	98
1. What to Include	98
2. What to Exclude.....	100
B. Organization	101
1. Start Strong and End Strong	101
a. The Overall Examination	101
b. The Sub-Examinations	102
2. Use Topical Organization.....	102
3. Get to the Point.....	103

Contents

4. Tell the Story.....	103
5. Do Not Interrupt the Action	104
6. Affirm Before Refuting.....	105
7. Draw the Sting	105
8. End with a Clincher	106
9. Ignore Any Rule When Necessary.....	106
IV. The Ethics of Direct Examination.....	107
A. Asking Objectionable Questions	107
B. Eliciting Unreasonable Inferences.....	108
Chapter Eight: Foundations and Exhibits.....	111
I. Evidentiary Foundations Generally	111
A. The Requirement of Foundation.....	111
B. Components of Foundation.....	112
1. Relevance	112
2. Authenticity.....	113
3. Specific Admissibility	114
C. Establishing Foundations	114
1. Using a Single Witness	114
2. Using Multiple Witnesses	115
3. Cross-Examination.....	115
4. Conditional Admissibility	116
II. Foundations for Testimonial Evidence.....	117
A. Personal Knowledge	117
B. Conversations.....	117
1. Conversations that Occur in Person	118
2. Conversations that Occur Over the Telephone.....	118
C. Prior Identification	119
D. Habit and Routine.....	120
E. Character and Reputation	121
1. Other Crimes or Past Misconduct	121
2. Reputation for Untruthfulness	124

F.	Foundations for Hearsay Statements	125
1.	Party Admissions.....	125
2.	Present Sense Impression	126
3.	Excited Utterance	127
4.	State of Mind	128
5.	Dying Declaration.....	129
III.	Exhibits Generally.....	130
A.	The Role of Exhibits	130
B.	Types of Exhibits.....	131
1.	Real or Tangible Evidence	131
2.	Demonstrative Evidence.....	131
3.	Documentary Evidence	131
C.	Offering Exhibits at Trial	132
1.	Mark the Exhibit for Identification.....	132
2.	Identify the Exhibit for Opposing Counsel	133
3.	Show the Exhibit to the Witness.....	133
4.	Have the Witness Identify the Exhibit.....	133
5.	Complete the Foundation for the Exhibit.....	134
6.	Offer the Exhibit into Evidence.....	134
7.	Publish and Use the Exhibit	134
a.	Publishing an Exhibit	134
b.	Using an Exhibit.....	135
IV.	Specific Foundations for Exhibits	137
A.	Real Evidence/Tangible Objects	137
1.	Establishing Authenticity	138
2.	Showing the Chain of Custody.....	139
B.	Photographs	141
C.	Demonstrative Evidence.....	141
1.	Maps, Charts, and Diagrams.....	142
2.	Illustrative Aids	142
D.	Documentary Evidence	143
1.	Authentication.....	143

a.	Handwriting and Signature	143
b.	Circumstantial Evidence of Authorship or Origin	144
c.	Mailing or Transmission.....	145
E.	Hearsay Exceptions	145
1.	Business Records	145
2.	Public Records.....	146
3.	Party Admissions.....	147
Chapter Nine: Cross-Examination		149
I. The Purpose of Cross-Examination.....		149
A.	Repair or Minimize Damage Done on Direct.....	149
B.	Enhance Your Case	150
C.	Detract from Your Opponent’s Case.....	150
D.	Lay the Foundation for Introducing Exhibits	150
E.	Discredit the Witness or Another Witness.....	150
F.	Stay in Control.....	150
II. The Rules of Cross-Examination.....		151
A.	Ask Only Leading Questions	152
B.	Get In and Get Out	152
C.	Ask Only Questions to Which You Already Know the Answers.....	153
D.	Do Not Invite Objections or Argue with Witnesses	153
1.	Ask Short Questions.....	154
2.	Ask Fair Questions	155
E.	Do Not Ask the Ultimate Question	155
F.	Insist on a Responsive Answer.....	157
1.	Correct the Problem Yourself.....	157
2.	Enlist the Judge’s Help, if Necessary.....	158
III. Planning Cross-Examination.....		159
A.	Content	159
1.	Determining the Usable Universe.....	160
2.	Preparing Your Questions.....	161

B.	Organization	162
1.	General Tips for Organizing Cross-Examinations.....	163
a.	Do Not Worry About Starting Strong	163
b.	Use Topical Organization	163
c.	Give the Details First.....	165
d.	Scatter the Circumstantial Evidence	165
e.	Save a Zinger for the End	165
2.	A Classic Format for Cross-Examination.....	167
a.	Friendly Information	167
b.	Affirmative Information	167
c.	Uncontrovertible Information.....	167
d.	Challenging Information.....	167
e.	Hostile Information.....	168
f.	Zinger.....	168
IV.	The Ethics of Cross-Examination.....	168
Chapter Ten:	Impeachment.....	171
I.	The Role of Impeachment.....	171
II.	The Rules of Impeachment.....	172
A.	Impeach Only on Significant Matters	172
B.	Impeach Only on Actual Inconsistencies.....	173
C.	Be Sure of Success Before Beginning.....	174
D.	Do Not Impeach Favorable Information	174
E.	Consider the Impact of Multiple Impeachment.....	175
F.	Consider the Timing of Impeachment	175
III.	The Types of Impeachment	177
A.	Prior Inconsistent Statements	177
1.	Recommit the Witness	178
2.	Accredit the Witness’s Prior Opportunity to Tell the Full Story.....	178
3.	Confront the Witness with the Prior Statement.....	180
B.	Impeachment by Omission.....	182

Contents

1.	Recommit the Witness	184
2.	Accredit the Witness's Prior Opportunity to Tell the Full Story.....	184
3.	Confront the Witness	185
C.	Character and Case-Specific Motive Impeachment	187
1.	Impeachment Based on the Witness's Character or Characteristics.....	187
a.	Conviction of a Crime	188
b.	Past Untruthfulness and Other Bad Acts.....	188
c.	Impaired Perception or Recollection.....	188
2.	Case-Specific Motive Impeachment.....	189
Chapter Eleven:	Redirect and Recross-Examinations	191
I.	Redirect Examination	191
A.	The Purpose of Redirect Examination	191
B.	The Rules of Redirect	191
1.	Follow the Same Rules as Direct Examination	191
2.	Stay Within the Scope of the Cross-Examination.....	191
C.	Planning Redirect Examination	192
D.	Waiving Redirect Examination	192
E.	Conducting Redirect Examination.....	193
II.	Recross-Examination	194
Chapter Twelve:	Expert Testimony	197
I.	The Purpose of Expert Testimony	197
II.	The Standards for Expert Testimony.....	197
A.	Areas of Expertise.....	198
B.	Scope of Opinion	198
C.	Bases for Opinion.....	198
III.	Direct Examination of Experts	199
A.	Planning Expert Testimony.....	199
1.	Determine the Expert's Theory.....	199
2.	Encourage Using Plain Language	200

3.	Help to Avoid Narratives	201
a.	Prompt the Witness to Give Internal Summaries.....	202
b.	Use Visual Aids	203
B.	Organizing Expert Testimony	204
1.	Introduce the Witness and Foreshadow the Testimony.....	204
2.	Elicit the Expert’s Qualifications	205
a.	Fulfill the Technical Requirements.....	205
b.	Be Persuasive When Qualifying	206
c.	Tender the Witness (If Allowed).....	207
3.	Elicit the Expert’s Opinion and Theory	207
a.	Have the Expert State Opinions Up Front.....	207
b.	Elicit the Expert’s Theory.....	208
4.	Elicit the Explanation and Support for the Expert’s Opinion.....	209
a.	Have the Expert Explain the Data	209
b.	Be Clear About What Assumptions Were Made.....	210
5.	Use Theory Differentiation If Your Case Involves Dueling Experts	210
6.	Send Expert Out with a Bang.....	212
IV.	Cross-Examining Experts	212
A.	Challenge the Witness’s Credentials	212
1.	Voir Dire on Credentials.....	212
2.	Cross-Examine on Credentials	214
a.	Limit the Scope of the Witness’s Expertise.....	214
b.	Stress Missing Credentials	215
c.	Contrast Your Expert’s Credentials.....	215
B.	Obtain Favorable Information.....	217
1.	Affirm Your Own Expert.....	217
2.	Elicit Areas of Agreement	217
3.	Criticize the Opposing Party’s Conduct	218
C.	Challenge the Witness’s Impartiality	218
1.	Question Fees.....	219

- 2. Question the Expert’s Relationship with the Participants219
- 3. Question the Expert’s Positional Bias219
- D. Point Out Omissions..... 219
- E. Substitute Information 221
 - 1. Change Assumptions..... 221
 - 2. Maximize Any Uncertainty 221
- F. Challenge Technique or Theory..... 222

- Chapter Thirteen: Objections..... 225
 - I. The Purpose of Objections 225
 - A. Nonsubstantive Objections 226
 - B. Substantive Objections 226
 - II. The Rules of Objecting..... 226
 - A. Consider Objections Carefully 226
 - B. Direct All Arguments to the Judge 227
 - C. In Jury Trials, Request Sidebars..... 228
 - D. Raise Objections Appropriately 228
 - 1. Stand Up 228
 - 2. Object and State Your Grounds..... 229
 - 3. Pause for the Judge to Consider the Objection 229
 - 4. If Appropriate, Respond to the Court..... 230
 - 5. Special Considerations..... 230
 - a. Repeated Objections..... 230
 - b. Requests for Voir Dire of the Witness..... 232
 - E. Time Objections Appropriately 233
 - F. Respond to Objections Appropriately..... 235
 - 1. Wait for the Judge’s Cue to Respond 235
 - 2. If Appropriate, Request to Be Heard 235
 - 3. Respond Specifically..... 236
 - a. Inform the Court of Limited Admissibility 237
 - b. Inform the Court of a Conditional Offer..... 237
 - 4. Cure the Objection Whenever Possible..... 238

G.	Follow Up on the Judge’s Ruling.....	239
1.	Objection Overruled	239
a.	Proponent’s Job.....	239
b.	Opponent’s Job.....	240
2.	Objection Sustained	241
a.	Proponent’s Job.....	241
b.	Opponent’s Job.....	243
H.	Reevaluate Your Theory.....	244
III.	Ethics and Objections	245
A.	Asking Objectionable Questions	245
B.	Making Improper Objections.....	246
C.	Making “Tactical” Objections.....	246
IV.	A Short List of Common Objections	247
A.	Nonsubstantive Objections	247
1.	Leading Question (On Direct Examination Only).....	247
2.	Compound Question.....	247
3.	Vague Question.....	248
4.	Argumentative Question	248
5.	Narratives.....	248
6.	Asked and Answered	249
7.	Assumes Facts Not in Evidence	249
8.	Nonresponsive Answers (On Cross-Examination Only)	250
B.	Substantive Objections.....	250
1.	Hearsay	250
a.	Statements that Are Not Hearsay.....	251
b.	Exceptions to the Hearsay Rule	251
2.	Irrelevant.....	252
3.	Unfair Prejudice	253
4.	Improper Character Evidence Generally.....	253
a.	Conviction of Crime.....	253
b.	Untruthfulness	254
c.	Reputation.....	254

5. Speculation or Lack of Personal Knowledge	255
6. Improper Lay Opinion	255
7. Authenticity.....	256
8. Lack of Foundation	256
Chapter Fourteen: Opening Statement	259
I. The Purpose of the Opening Statement	259
A. Grab the Opening Moment.....	259
B. Explain the Anticipated Evidence.....	260
C. Advocate for Your Client	260
II. The Rules of Opening Statement.....	261
A. Do Not Argue	262
1. Defining Argument.....	262
2. Other Considerations	263
B. Do Not Comment on the Law	263
C. Weave Your Theory and Theme into Your Trial Story.....	264
1. State Your Theory Clearly.....	264
2. Introduce Your Theme.....	265
D. Order and Contrast the Facts Persuasively.....	266
III. Planning Your Opening Statement	268
A. Content	268
1. Include Only Provable Facts	268
2. Include the Necessary Facts	268
a. The Physical Scene.....	269
b. Action and Key Events.....	269
c. Transactions and Agreements	269
3. Include a Brief Reference to the Other Side’s Case	270
a. Plaintiff/Prosecution Opening.....	270
b. Defendant’s Opening.....	271
B. Organization	272
1. Begin with Your Theme and Theory	272
2. Introduce Yourself and Your Client	273

3.	Tell the Full Story.....	274
a.	Avoid the Witness-By-Witness Approach.....	274
b.	Use Chronology Wisely.....	275
4.	Highlight the Legal Issues.....	276
5.	Request a Verdict.....	277
IV.	Objections.....	277
A.	Raising Objections.....	277
B.	Responding to Objections.....	278
Chapter Fifteen:	Closing Argument.....	279
I.	The Purpose of the Closing Argument.....	279
II.	The Principles of Closing Argument.....	281
A.	Use Your Theory and Theme.....	281
B.	Argue, Argue, Argue!.....	282
1.	Make Inferences and Conclusions.....	282
2.	Cluster Circumstantial Evidence and Accumulate Details.....	282
3.	Use Analogies, Allusions, and Stories.....	283
a.	Analogies.....	283
b.	Allusions.....	284
c.	Stories.....	284
4.	Emphasize the Undisputed Facts.....	285
5.	Refute the Opposing Witnesses' Testimony.....	285
6.	Tie Up Your Cross-Examinations.....	286
7.	Argue Witness Credibility and Motive.....	287
8.	Assert the Weight that Should Be Given to Evidence.....	288
9.	Comment on the Opposing Witness's Demeanor.....	288
10.	Confront Your Weaknesses.....	288
11.	Comment on Promises Kept and Broken.....	289
12.	Argue Damages, Where Applicable.....	290
13.	Apply the Law.....	290
C.	Avoid Making Impermissible Arguments.....	291
1.	Do Not Comment on Privilege.....	291

- 2. Do Not Misuse Evidence.....291
- 3. Do Not Interject Your Personal Beliefs Regarding the Facts or Issues in the Case 293
- 4. Do Not Make Appeals to the Factfinder’s Personal Interest..... 293
- 5. Do Not Make Appeals to Emotion, Sympathy, or Passion..... 294
- 6. Do Not Misstate the Evidence..... 294
- 7. Do Not Misstate the Law or Discourage the Jury from Following It..... 295
- III. Planning Closing Arguments..... 296
 - A. Content 296
 - 1. Tell a Persuasive Story 296
 - a. Known Facts—What Happened? 296
 - b. Reasons—Why Did It Happen? 297
 - c. Credible Witnesses—Who Should Be Believed? 297
 - d. Supportive Details—How can We Be Sure? 297
 - e. Common Sense—Is It Plausible? 298
 - 2. Use the Format of Closings to Your Advantage 298
 - a. Plaintiff/Prosecution Argument in Chief..... 299
 - b. Defendant’s Argument..... 299
 - c. Plaintiff/Prosecution Rebuttal 301
 - B. Organization 304
 - 1. Use Topical Organization..... 304
 - a. Issues 304
 - b. Elements..... 304
 - c. Jury Instructions..... 305
 - 2. Alternative Organization Methods 305
 - a. Chronological Organization 305
 - b. Witness Listing..... 306
 - 3. Whatever Your Format, Follow These Guidelines..... 306
 - a. Start Strong and End Strong..... 306
 - b. Argue Your Affirmative Case First 308
 - c. Embrace or Displace the Burden of Proof..... 308

- d. Address Witness Credibility Throughout..... 309
- e. Argue Damages310
- IV. Objections 311
 - A. Raising Objections 311
 - B. Responding to Objections 311
 - C. Asking for a Cautionary Instruction.....311
- Appendix313
- Index315

