

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	xxiii
Casebook Correlation Chart	xxv
Capsule Summary	C-1

Chapter 1

INTRODUCTION

I. ROADMAP OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW	1
II. THREE STANDARDS OF REVIEW	2

Chapter 2

THE SUPREME COURT'S AUTHORITY

I. REVIEW OF ACTS OF CONGRESS (MARBURY v. MADISON)	5
II. REVIEW OF STATE COURT DECISIONS	7
A. General principles of review	7
B. Martin v. Hunter's Lessee	7
C. Independent and adequate state grounds	8
III. CONGRESS' CONTROL OF FEDERAL COURT JURISDICTION	9
A. The problem generally	9
B. McCordle case	9
C. Limits on congressional power	10
D. Modern congressional controls on federal jurisdiction	11
IV. THE SUPREME COURT'S JURISDICTION TODAY	11
Quiz Yourself on THE SUPREME COURT'S AUTHORITY (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	12
Exam Tips on THE SUPREME COURT'S AUTHORITY	13

Chapter 3

FEDERALISM AND FEDERAL POWER GENERALLY

I. THE CONCEPT OF FEDERALISM	15
A. Nature of federalism	15
B. Federal government has limited powers	15

C. Specific powers	15
II. McCULLOCH v. MARYLAND	16
A. Doctrine of implied powers	16
B. McCulloch and the “Necessary and Proper” Clause	16
Quiz Yourself on
FEDERALISM AND FEDERAL POWER (ENTIRE CHAPTER).....	19
Exam Tips on
FEDERALISM AND FEDERAL POWER GENERALLY	20

Chapter 4

THE FEDERAL COMMERCE POWER

I. THE COMMERCE CLAUSE GENERALLY	21
A. Introduction	21
B. Limitation on states vs. limitation on Congress	21
C. Chronological approach	21
II. CASES PRIOR TO 1933	21
III. COURT BARRIERS TO THE NEW DEAL	24
A. The New Deal threatened	24
B. The Schechter Poultry (“Sick Chicken”) case	24
C. The Carter Coal case	25
D. The Court-packing plan	25
IV. THE POST-NEW-DEAL TREND	26
V. SOME MODERN LIMITS ON THE COMMERCE POWER	30
A. Some limits still exist	30
B. Can’t ban “guns near schools” (U.S. v. Lopez)	31
C. Violence against women (Morrison)	33
D. Regulation of non-commercial activity as part of broader regulatory scheme	34
E. Forcing someone to buy a product (N.F.I.B. v. Sebelius)	36
F. Summary of the modern limits on the Commerce power	43
G. Summary of modern view	44
VI. THE TENTH AMENDMENT AS A LIMIT ON CONGRESS’ POWER ..	46
Quiz Yourself on
THE FEDERAL COMMERCE POWER (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	52
Exam Tips on
THE FEDERAL COMMERCE POWER	55

Chapter 5

OTHER NATIONAL POWERS

I. THE TAXING POWER	57
II. THE SPENDING POWER	61
A. The spending power generally	61
B. Not limited to enumerated powers	61
C. Achievement of otherwise disallowed objectives	62
D. Spending program can't "coerce" the states (N.F.I.B. case)	63
E. "General welfare" still required	66
III. THE WAR, TREATY AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS POWERS	67
IV. OTHER POWERS	69
Quiz Yourself on
OTHER NATIONAL POWERS (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	70
Exam Tips on
OTHER NATIONAL POWERS	71

Chapter 6

TWO LIMITS ON STATE POWER: THE DORMANT COMMERCE CLAUSE AND CONGRESSIONAL ACTION

I. THE DORMANT COMMERCE CLAUSE — REGULATION	73
A. Negative implications of federal power	73
B. Negative implications of the Commerce Clause	73
C. Traditional approach	73
D. Early interpretations	74
E. Rise of the "local" vs. "national" distinction	75
F. Modern approach	75
G. Application of the test	76
H. Regulation of transportation	79
I. State barriers to incoming trade	81
J. State barriers to outgoing trade	85
K. Local-processing requirements	86
L. Environmental regulation	88
M. State as purchaser or subsidizer	89
II. STATE TAXATION OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE	91
III. CONGRESSIONAL ACTION — PREEMPTION AND CONSENT	93

Quiz Yourself on

TWO LIMITS ON STATE POWER (ENTIRE CHAPTER).....	96
---	----

Exam Tips on

TWO LIMITS ON STATE POWER.....	98
--------------------------------	----

Chapter 7

INTERGOVERNMENTAL IMMUNITIES & INTERSTATE RELATIONS

I. TAX IMMUNITIES	101
II. FEDERAL IMMUNITY FROM STATE REGULATION	102
III. STATE IMMUNITY FROM FEDERAL REGULATION	103
IV. INTERSTATE RELATIONSHIPS	103

Quiz Yourself on

INTERGOVERNMENTAL IMMUNITIES & INTERSTATE RELATIONS (ENTIRE CHAPTER).....	106
--	-----

Exam Tips on

INTERGOVERNMENTAL IMMUNITIES AND INTERSTATE RELATIONS.....	107
---	-----

Chapter 8

SEPARATION OF POWERS

I. DOMESTIC POLICY AND THE SEPARATION OF POWERS	111
A. General problem	111
B. No right to “make laws”	111
C. President’s veto power	112
II. THE PROHIBITION OF EXCESSIVE DELEGATION BY CONGRESS TO THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH	115
III. FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND THE WAR POWERS	122
A. Special presidential role in foreign affairs	122
B. The war powers	125
C. National security and entry into the U.S.	128
1. Deference to Congress and the Executive Branch	128
2. The travel ban case (Trump v. Hawaii)	128
IV. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF EXECUTIVE PERSONNEL ...	130
A. The President’s power of appointment, generally	130
B. Distinguishing between “principal” and “inferior” officers	130
C. Appointing “inferior” officers	131

D. Dividing line between “principal” and “inferior” officers in more detail	132
E. No appointments by Congress	133
F. Dividing line between “officer” and non-officer	134
G. The President’s Recess Appointments power	137
H. The President’s right to remove appointees	139
I. Removal by Congress	145
J. Impeachment	146
V. LEGISLATIVE AND EXECUTIVE IMMUNITY	148
A. Scope of discussion	148
B. Congress and the Speech and Debate Clause	148
C. Executive immunity in civil cases	148
D. Executive immunity – criminal	151
E. “Executive privilege”	158
Quiz Yourself on
SEPARATION OF POWERS (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	159
Exam Tips on
SEPARATION OF POWERS	168

Chapter 9

DUE PROCESS OF LAW

I. THE BILL OF RIGHTS AND THE STATES	173
A. The Bill of Rights generally	173
B. Enactment of the Civil War Amendments	173
C. Due process of law and “incorporation”	173
D. The Fifth Amendment’s Due Process Clause	175
II. SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS — BEFORE 1934	175
III. SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS — THE MODERN APPROACH TO ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL-WELFARE REGULATION	179
Quiz Yourself on
SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS — ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL-WELFARE REGULATION	181
IV. SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS — NON-ECONOMIC & FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS	182
A. Overview	182
B. The early non-economic cases	184
C. Birth control (the Griswold case)	184
D. Post- Griswold contraceptive law	186
V. SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS — REGULATION OF ABORTION	187

A. Abortion generally	187
B. Roe v. Wade	187
C. The modification of Roe by Casey	189
D. Roe overruled in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health (introduction)	192
VI. OTHER SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS ISSUES:
CONTRACEPTION, CHILD REARING, THE RIGHT TO MARRY, SEXUAL EXPRESSION, AND THE "RIGHT TO DIE"	202
A. Post- Roe regulation of contraception (Carey case)	202
B. Family relations	202
C. Sexuality, including homosexuality	207
D. The "right to die"	210
E. Other assorted autonomy issues	214
F. No right to be protected from privately-imposed harm	216
Quiz Yourself on SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS — PROTECTION OF NON-ECONOMIC RIGHTS	217
VII. PROCEDURAL DUE PROCESS	222
A. Introduction	222
B. "Liberty" and "property" before 1970	223
C. Growth in the '70s of "entitlements"	224
D. Narrowing of "entitlements" theory	224
E. The tenure cases (Roth and Perry)	224
F. Breadth of injury is weighed	225
G. Freedom from arbitrary procedures	226
H. Narrowing of protected "liberty" interests	226
I. Rights of students	226
J. What process is due	226
Quiz Yourself on PROCEDURAL DUE PROCESS	233
Exam Tips on DUE PROCESS OF LAW	236

Chapter 10

EQUAL PROTECTION

I. INTRODUCTION	241
II. ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL LAWS —
THE "MERE-RATIONALITY" STANDARD	246
A. Deferential review	246
B. Broad reading of "legitimate public objective"	246

C. “One step at a time” approach	247
D. Determining a statute’s “purpose”	247
E. Legal disabilities motivated by “animus” towards unpopular groups	248
F. Highly deferential standard	249
G. Summary of Court’s approach	250
Quiz Yourself on
EQUAL PROTECTION — ECONOMIC & SOCIAL LAWS	251
III. SUSPECT CLASSIFICATIONS, ESPECIALLY RACE	252
A. Suspect classes generally	252
B. Groups covered	253
C. “Purposeful” discrimination	253
D. Other requirements for strict scrutiny	258
E. How strict is “strict scrutiny”	259
F. Segregation and its remedies	262
IV. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION AND “BENIGN” DISCRIMINATION	268
A. “Benign” discrimination generally	268
B. Benign use of sex classes	269
C. Race	270
D. Desegregation	271
E. Preferential admissions to universities – before the SFFA decision	271
F. Preferential admissions: the SFFA v. Harvard decision	275
G. Admissions to public secondary schools by race-conscious pupil-assignments (the Parents Involved case)	281
H. Minority set-asides by states and cities	282
I. Set-asides by Congress	286
J. Hiring, lay-offs, and promotions	288
K. Drawing of election districts on race-conscious grounds	290
L. Harm to members of minority	293
M. Law enforcement, prison administration and military operations	294
N. Popular votes to repeal affirmative action	294
V. CLASSIFICATIONS BASED ON SEX	295
A. Introduction	295
B. Traditional deference by Court	296
C. Stricter review	296
D. Middle-level review not always fatal	298
E. Stereotypical thinking rejected	299
F. Remedial statutes	302
G. Discriminatory purpose required	303
H. “As applied” challenges	305
Quiz Yourself on
EQUAL PROTECTION — SUSPECT CLASSES, AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

AND CLASSIFICATIONS BASED ON SEX.....	305
VI. CLASSIFICATIONS BASED ON ALIENAGE	312
VII. ILLEGITIMACY	317
VIII. MENTAL RETARDATION AND MENTAL ILLNESS	318
IX. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF MIDDLE-LEVEL SCRUTINY	320
Quiz Yourself on EQUAL PROTECTION — ALIENAGE AND ILLEGITIMACY	321
X. UNEQUAL TREATMENT OF GAYS, AND THE BANNING OF SAME-SEX MARRIAGE	323
A. Issues generally	323
B. Singling out of gays because of animus (Romer v. Evans)	324
C. The federal Defense of Marriage Act struck down (Windsor)	325
D. States must allow same-sex marriage (Obergefell)	327
XI. FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS	333
A. Introduction	333
B. Education	334
C. Marriage as fundamental right	336
D. Voting rights	336
E. Access to the ballot	343
F. Access to courts	346
G. The right to travel	349
H. Wealth classifications	351
Quiz Yourself on EQUAL PROTECTION — UNEQUAL TREATMENT OF GAYS; FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS.....	353
Exam Tips on EQUAL PROTECTION	357

Chapter 11

MISCELLANEOUS CLAUSES: 14TH AM. PRIVILEGES OR IMMUNITIES; TAKING; CONTRACT; RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS;
EX POST FACTO; BILLS OF ATTAINDER

I. THE 14TH AMENDMENT'S PRIVILEGES OR IMMUNITIES CLAUSE	365
A. "Privileges or Immunities" Clause	365
II. THE "TAKING" CLAUSE	367

A. The Taking Clause generally	367
B. The taking/regulation distinction, generally	367
C. Denial of all economically viable use of land	369
D. “Prevention of harm” or “noxious use” rationale	370
E. Zoning, environmental and landmark-preservation rationales	371
F. Physical occupation	372
G. Subsequent owner who takes with notice of restriction	374
H. Dedications, and the requirement of a tight means-end fit	374
I. Requirement of “public” use	377
III. THE “CONTRACT” CLAUSE	378
IV. THE SECOND AMENDMENT “RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS”	382
V. EX POST FACTO LAWS	396
VI. BILLS OF ATTAINDER	397
Quiz Yourself on
MISCELLANEOUS CLAUSES (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	398
Exam Tips on
MISCELLANEOUS CLAUSES	405

Chapter 12

STATE ACTION

I. INTRODUCTION	407
II. THE “PUBLIC FUNCTION” APPROACH	410
A. The “public function” approach generally	410
B. The White Primary Cases	410
C. Company towns and shopping centers	411
D. Parks and recreation	412
E. The requirement of state “exclusivity”	413
F. Future of “public function” doctrine	414
III. “NEXUS” — THE SIGNIFICANCE OF STATE INVOLVEMENT	414
A. The “nexus” theory generally	414
B. “Commandment”	414
C. “Encouragement” by the state	416
D. “Symbiosis” between state and private actor	417
E. Involvement or “entanglement” by state	418
Quiz Yourself on
STATE ACTION (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	422

Exam Tips on STATE ACTION	424
--	-----

Chapter 13

CONGRESSIONAL ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL RIGHTS

I. INTRODUCTION	427
II. CONGRESS' POWER TO REACH PRIVATE CONDUCT	428
III. CONGRESS' POWER TO REMEDY VIOLATIONS OF THE CIVIL WAR AMENDMENTS	434
A. General problem	434
B. Congress' broad "remedial" powers	435
C. The Voting Rights Act	435
IV. CONGRESS' POWER TO REDEFINE THE MEANING AND SCOPE OF CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEES	440
V. CONGRESS' POWER TO ABROGATE THE ELEVENTH AMENDMENT, AND THUS AUTHORIZE PRIVATE DAMAGE SUITS AGAINST THE STATES FOR DISCRIMINATION	442
Quiz Yourself on CONGRESSIONAL ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL RIGHTS (ENTIRE CHAPTER).	447
Exam Tips on CONGRESSIONAL ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL RIGHTS	448

Chapter 14

FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION

I. GENERAL THEMES	451
A. Text of First Amendment	451
B. Two broad classes	451
1. Two tracks	451
C. Analysis of "track one" cases ("content-based" regulation)	453
D. Analysis of "track two" cases ("non-content-based" regulation)	464
E. Regulation of "pure conduct"	465
II. ADVOCACY OF ILLEGAL CONDUCT; THREATS OF VIOLENCE ...	465
III. OVERBREADTH AND VAGUENESS	477
Quiz Yourself on FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION — GENERAL THEMES; ADVOCACY OF

ILLEGAL CONDUCT; OVERBREADTH AND VAGUENESS	481
IV. REGULATION OF CONTEXT — “TIME, PLACE AND MANNER” . . .	485
A. Context regulations generally	485
B. Requirement that means be “narrowly tailored” to the objective	487
C. “Leave open alternative channels” requirement	489
D. Licensing	490
E. Intrusive speakers vs. right to be left alone	491
F. Canvassing and soliciting	493
G. Protest and persuasion on public property outside of abortion clinics	494
H. The hostile audience and “fighting words”	495
I. Offensive words and the sensitive audience	498
J. Regulation of “hate speech”	502
K. All speech not necessarily created equal (the disfavoring of indecent speech)	507
L. Regulation of indecency in media	509
M. The public forum	512
N. Right of access to private places	521
V. SYMBOLIC EXPRESSION	522
Quiz Yourself on
“TIME, PLACE AND MANNER” RESTRICTIONS;
SYMBOLIC EXPRESSION.	527
VI. DEFAMATION, INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL
DISTRESS, AND THE BANNING OF “FALSE SPEECH”	533
A. Regulation of defamatory and other false speech	533
B. Initially no protection	533
C. New York Times v. Sullivan	533
D. Extension to “public figures”	534
E. Private figures	535
F. Non-media defendants	536
G. Statements of no “public interest”	536
H. Statements of opinion	537
I. Intentional infliction of emotional distress	537
J. False statements of fact outside the defamation context	538
VII. OBSCENITY	540
A. Generally unprotected	540
B. Miller	542
C. Private possession by adults	543
D. Protection of children	543
E. Protection of animals, and the “animal crush video” issue	544
F. Other issues	545

VIII. COMMERCIAL SPEECH	546
A. Overview	546
B. The Virginia Pharmacy revolution	546
C. Regulation of lawyers	548
D. Commercial speech doctrine curtailed (Central Hudson Gas)	549
E. Advertising of lawful but harmful products	551
F. Current status	552
G. Constitutionally-protected products	555
Quiz Yourself on
DEFAMATION, OBSCENITY AND COMMERCIAL SPEECH	555
IX. REGULATION IN THE CONTEXT OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS	557
A. Money in political campaigns, generally	557
B. Buckley v. Valeo	558
C. Limits on aggregate contributions by an individual (McCutcheon)	562
D. “Soft money” and pre-election “issue ads” (McConnell , Wisconsin Right to Life and Citizens United)	564
E. Campaign spending by political parties	570
F. How low can limits be set	570
G. Corporate and judicial expression during campaigns	571
X. SOME SPECIAL CONTEXTS	574
A. Scope	574
B. Schools	574
C. Furnishing of legal services by lay groups	582
D. Government as speaker or as funder of speech	582
E. Government intimidation	589
XI. THE FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION, THE RIGHT NOT TO SPEAK OR ASSOCIATE, AND THE DENIAL OF PUBLIC JOBS OR BENEFITS	591
A. Freedom of association generally	591
B. Right not to associate, generally	592
C. Right to avoid compulsory financial support	592
D. Veto on unwanted participants	594
E. Right to exclude from membership in group	595
F. The “right not to speak”	597
G. Illegal membership	604
H. Denial of public job or benefit	604
I. Compulsory disclosure (Americans for Prosperity v. Bonta)	609
J. The bar membership cases	613
XII. UNCONSTITUTIONAL CONDITIONS	613
XIII. SPECIAL PROBLEMS CONCERNING THE MEDIA	616

A. Summary of issues	616
B. Special role for the press	616
C. Prior restraints	618
D. Governmental demands for information held by press	623
E. Disclosure of confidential or illegally-obtained information	626
F. Right of access to government-held information	628
G. Regulation of broadcast media	630

Quiz Yourself on

REGULATION IN POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS; SPECIAL CONTEXTS; FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION; DENIAL OF PUBLIC JOBS OR BENEFITS; SPECIAL PROBLEMS OF THE MEDIA	631
---	-----

Exam Tips on

FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION	639
-----------------------	-----

Chapter 15

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

I. INTRODUCTION	651
II. THE ESTABLISHMENT CLAUSE	651
A. Background	651
B. Religion and the public schools	653
C. Sunday closing laws	661
D. Property-tax exemptions for churches	661
E. Military and prison chaplains	662
F. The “excessive entanglement prong”	662
G. Entanglement by church involvement in government affairs	664
H. Ceremonies, displays and monuments — generally	664
I. Ceremonies	664
J. Displays and monuments with religious themes	665
K. The Ten Commandments cases	667
L. The Christian cross case (Amer. Legion)	669
M. Financial aid to religious schools	671
N. No intentional preference for one sect over others	674
III. THE FREE EXERCISE CLAUSE	679
A. Introduction	679
B. Intent to disfavor religious practice	680
C. Incidental burdensome effect, and required accommodations	689
D. The 1990 “generally-applicable rule” case (Employment Div. v. Smith)	692
E. Post- Smith law generally	693
F. The meaning of “generally applicable”	693
G. Anti-discrimination laws, and a group’s right to pick its “ministers”	698

H. Possible overruling of Smith	698
I. Public health regulations	698
J. What constitutes a “religious belief”	699
Quiz Yourself on
FREEDOM OF RELIGION (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	700
Exam Tips on
FREEDOM OF RELIGION	708

Chapter 16

JUSTICIABILITY

I. INTRODUCTION	713
II. ADVISORY OPINIONS	713
III. STANDING	714
A. Nature of “standing” generally	714
B. Federal taxpayer and citizen suits	716
C. Standing not based on taxpayer or citizen status	717
D. The “injury in fact” requirement	718
E. Harm suffered by many	720
F. Causation by government	721
G. Special deference when plaintiff is a state acting for its citizens	723
H. Third-party standing	723
IV. MOOTNESS	725
V. RIPENESS	726
VI. THE 11TH AMENDMENT, AND SUITS AGAINST STATES	728
VII. POLITICAL QUESTIONS	732
Quiz Yourself on
JUSTICIABILITY (ENTIRE CHAPTER)	747
Exam Tips on
JUSTICIABILITY	753
TABLE OF CASES	759
SUBJECT MATTER INDEX	767