

CONTENTS

Table of Charts and Sample Documents	xxv
Preface	xxvii
Acknowledgments	xxix
PART I. INTRODUCTION TO LEGAL METHOD: ANALYSIS AND WRITING	1
Endnote	3
Chapter 1. Introduction to Legal Communication: Process, Style, and Purpose	5
I. Overview of the Process of Legal Writing	6
A. Developing Legal Analysis Skills	6
B. Researching the Law	6
C. Prewriting	7
D. Writing	7
E. Revising Your Writing	7
F. Revisiting Earlier Stages	8
II. Perspective and Priorities: Clarity and Concision	8
III. Purpose and Audience	9
A. Purpose	10
B. Audience	10
IV. Proceeding with Enthusiasm	11
Checklist for Chapter 1	11
Endnotes	12
Chapter 2. Sources of Law	13
I. Overview: Lawmaking Powers and Sources of Law	14
A. Legislative and Executive Branches	14
B. Judicial Branch	15
C. Local and Tribal Governments	16
II. Common Law	16
A. Historical Roots	16
B. Common Law as a Backdrop for Legislation	17
C. Example: Incremental Development of the Tort of Negligence	18
D. Common Law in Constant Change	18
III. Legislation	19
A. The Need for Judicial Interpretation of Statutes	19

B. Approaches to Statutory Interpretation	20
1. Textualism and Supplementary Approaches	20
2. Original Meaning Versus Living Statutes	21
C. Statutory Construction If Interpretation Fails	21
IV. Statutory Interpretation by Administrative Agencies	22
Exercise 2-1	22
Checklist for Chapter 2	24
Endnotes	24
Chapter 3. The Court System and Stare Decisis	27
I. Introduction to Stare Decisis	28
II. The Court System	29
A. Structure of State, Federal, and Tribal Courts	29
1. State Courts	29
2. Federal Courts	30
3. Tribal Courts	31
B. Court Structure and Stare Decisis	31
C. A Caveat About Judicial Decisions and Stare Decisis	32
III. Scope and Application of Stare Decisis	33
A. Distinguishing Precedent	34
1. An Inexact Science with Ample Room for Argument	34
2. Gaining Comfort with Legal Uncertainty	36
3. Example: Warrantless Searches of Cars, Houses, and Mobile Homes	36
B. Overruling Precedent	38
1. High Bar for Overruling Precedent	38
2. Factors that Justify Overruling Precedent	38
3. Flexible Application of Stare Decisis to Constitutional Issues	39
Exercise 3-1	40
Checklist for Chapter 3	42
Endnotes	42
Chapter 4. Introduction to Legal Reasoning	45
I. Solving Legal Problems	45
II. Rule-Based Reasoning	46
A. Deductive Reasoning	47
1. The Legal Syllogism	47
2. Validity and Correctness of Legal Syllogisms	48
3. Limitations of the Legal Syllogism	50
B. Inductive Reasoning as a Step in Rule-Based Reasoning	51
III. Analogical Reasoning	52
IV. Policy-Based Reasoning	54
V. Putting It All Together	55
Exercise 4-1	56
Checklist for Chapter 4	57
Endnotes	58

PART II. COMPONENTS AND ORGANIZATION OF LEGAL ANALYSIS	59
Chapter 5. Introduction to IRAC	61
I. Why IRAC?	61
II. Related Acronyms	64
Checklist for Chapter 5	64
Endnotes	64
Chapter 6. “I”—Identifying Issues for Analysis	65
I. Stating the Issue	66
II. Recognizing Subissues	67
III. Scope of Analysis	69
Exercise 6-1	69
Checklist for Chapter 6	70
Chapter 7. “R”—Formulating the Legal Rules	71
I. Overview—Building a Rules Section	71
II. Types of Rules	73
A. General Principles of Law	74
B. Legal Tests	75
1. Elements Tests	75
2. Factors Tests	76
3. Balancing Tests	77
C. Subsidiary Rules	77
Exercise 7-1	79
D. Explicit Versus Implicit Rules	79
Exercise 7-2	82
Exercise 7-3	83
E. Rule Synthesis	84
1. Judicial Synthesis of Authorities	84
2. Synthesizing Decisions with Consistent Outcomes	85
3. Synthesizing Decisions with Different Outcomes	87
Exercise 7-4	88
III. Selecting and Organizing Rules	90
A. A Recursive Process	90
B. Sources of Rules	91
1. Mandatory and Persuasive Authority	91
2. Hierarchy of Primary Authority	92
3. Unpublished and Unreported Decisions	93
C. Arranging and Articulating Rules	94
1. Arranging from General to Specific	94
2. “Dovetailing” Rules	95
Exercise 7-5	95
Checklist for Chapter 7	97
Endnotes	97

Chapter 8. “R”—Illustrating the Legal Rules	99
I. The Roles Case Illustrations Play	100
A. Explaining and Supporting Rules	100
B. Proving Implicit and Synthesized Rules	103
C. Illustrating a Spectrum of Decisions	104
D. Bridging Rules and Analogical Reasoning	105
II. Drafting In-Text Case Illustrations	106
A. Components of a Case Illustration	106
B. Selecting Cases to Illustrate	109
C. Avoiding Overreliance	110
Exercise 8-1	113
Exercise 8-2	114
III. Parenthetical Illustrations	115
A. An Efficient and Flexible Tool	115
B. Drafting Parenthetical Illustrations	120
1. Drafting Guidelines	120
2. Using Present Participles	121
C. Choosing Between In-Text and Parenthetical Illustrations	123
Exercise 8-3	124
Checklist for Chapter 8	125
Endnotes	126
Chapter 9. “A” and “C”—Applying Law to Facts and Reaching a Conclusion	129
I. Application Approaches	130
A. Rule-Based Reasoning	130
1. General Framework	130
2. Applying Subsidiary Rules	132
3. Common Pitfalls	134
B. Analogical Reasoning	136
1. Identifying Cases for Comparison	137
2. Comparing the Cases	138
3. Stacking Analogies and Pairing Analogies with Rule-Based Reasoning	140
C. Policy Reasoning	141
D. Addressing Weaknesses	142
Exercise 9-1	145
II. “C”—Reaching Conclusions	145
Exercise 9-2	146
III. Organizing Paragraphs and Sentences Within the IRAC Framework	147
A. The Role of Paragraphs	148
B. Paragraph Content and Development	148
C. The Role of Sentences Within a Paragraph	150
1. Paragraph Length	150
2. Beginning with a Thesis Sentence	151

3. Logical Organization Within a Paragraph	151
4. Substantive Transition (“Dovetailing”) Within a Paragraph	152
Checklist for Chapter 9	153
Endnotes	154
 PART III. ADVISING CLIENTS: OBJECTIVE ANALYSIS AND WRITING	 155
Chapter 10. Overview of Objective Analysis and Its Presentation	157
I. Explaining “Objective” Analysis	157
II. Audience, Purpose, and Perspective	158
III. Traditional Office Memo, Streamlined Email Memo, Client Letter, or Oral Report?	160
A. Traditional Office Memo	160
B. Streamlined Email Memo	160
C. Client Letter	161
D. Oral Report	161
IV. Preparing for an Assignment	161
Checklist for Chapter 10	163
Endnotes	163
Chapter 11. Office Memoranda	165
I. Format	166
A. Memo Heading	166
B. Question(s) Presented and Brief Answer(s)	167
C. Statement of Facts	170
1. Purpose of Stating Facts	170
2. What to Include	171
3. Organization and Formatting	172
4. Example	173
D. Discussion	174
1. Organizing and Introducing Your Analysis with Descriptive Headings	175
2. Ordering Related Issues and Subissues	177
a. Parallel and Nested Topics	177
b. Logical Order of All Topics	180
3. Previewing Your Organization with an Umbrella Paragraph	181
4. Demonstrating Thoroughness and Objectivity	183
E. Conclusion	185
F. Format Variations—Flexibility and Adaptation	186
G. Gaining Comfort with Repetition	187
II. Using IRAC and Subsections Together to Organize Legal Arguments	188
Checklist for Chapter 11	190
Endnotes	190

Chapter 12. Sharing Objective Analysis Via Email	193
I. Comparing Traditional and Email Memoranda	193
II. Choosing Between Traditional and Email Memos	194
III. Formatting Email Memos	195
IV. Considerations for All Email Correspondence	196
Checklist for Chapter 12	198
Endnotes	199
Chapter 13. Advice Letters	201
I. Advice Letters Distinguished from Opinion Letters	202
II. Purpose, Audience, and Writing Style	203
III. Format	204
IV. Introduction and Statement of Issues	205
V. Brief Answers	206
VI. Facts	208
VII. Legal Analysis	209
VIII. Conclusion and Strategic Recommendations	210
Exercise 13-1	211
Checklist for Chapter 13	211
Endnotes	212
Chapter 14. Oral Reports of Objective Analysis	213
I. Oral Report as a Substitute for Writing	213
II. Oral Report as a Complement to Writing	215
III. Preparing for and Delivering an Oral Report	216
Exercise 14-1	216
Checklist for Chapter 14	217
PART IV. INTRODUCTION TO ADVOCACY	219
Chapter 15. Advocacy: Overview and Ethics	221
I. Comparison to Objective Writing	221
II. Overview—Procedure and Format	222
A. The Litigation Process	222
B. Basic Formats for Briefs	225
III. Advocacy in an Adversarial System	226
A. Presentation of Arguments for Review	227
B. Assertion of Claims and Defenses in Good Faith	227
C. Disclosure of Adverse Authority	228
D. Inclusion of Misleading Legal Argument	230
E. Civility	230
F. Misuse of Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI)	232
IV. Persuasive Writing Style	234
Checklist for Chapter 15	235
Endnotes	235
Chapter 16. Persuasive Writing	237
I. Introducing Persuasive Writing	237

A. Starting Strong	238
B. Engaging the Reader with an Effective Theme	239
C. Issue Statements as Preliminary Advocacy	241
Exercise 16-1	244
II. Persuasive Statement of Facts	246
A. Telling a Compelling Story	247
B. Constraints That Build Trust	248
1. Advocacy with Credibility	248
a. Organization of Facts	248
b. Word Choice, Sentence Structure, and Organization	248
Exercise 16-2	251
2. Premature Legal Argument	251
Exercise 16-3	252
III. Organizing Your Argument	252
A. Selecting Arguments	253
1. Include Only Arguments That Earn a Place in Your Brief	253
2. Consider Your Reader's Burdens	254
3. Presenting Alternative Arguments	254
B. Persuasively Introducing Arguments	256
C. Determining the Order of Your Argument	258
1. Starting with an Umbrella Paragraph	258
2. Leading with Your Strongest Argument	259
3. Special Considerations for Responsive Briefs	260
IV. Developing Persuasive Arguments	261
A. Framing Rules	261
1. Framing the Rules to Favor Your Client	261
2. Scope of Rules and Holdings	263
3. "Adverse" Rules	264
4. Sources of Rules and Hierarchy of Authority	266
B. Applying Law to Facts	268
C. Addressing Weaknesses and Adverse Authorities	270
1. Introducing Responses to Weaknesses and Adverse Authorities	270
2. Considerations for Opening and Responsive Briefs	272
D. Conclusions	272
Checklist for Chapter 16	274
Endnotes	274
Chapter 17. Pretrial Advocacy: Pleadings and Motions	275
I. The Complaint	276
A. Overview: Format and Content	276
B. Jurisdictional Statement	277
C. Claim for Relief	277
1. Allegations of Fact and Citations to Law	278
2. Substance of Allegations	280
3. Specificity of Fact Allegations	281

D. Request for Relief	283
E. Style and Organization	283
1. Writing Style	283
2. Organization	284
II. The Answer	286
A. Admissions and Denials	286
B. Affirmative Defenses	287
C. Counterclaims	288
III. Motion to Dismiss	288
A. Standards and Procedure	288
B. Format	290
1. The Motion	290
2. The Supporting Brief	290
IV. Motion for Summary Judgment	291
A. Standards for Summary Judgment	292
B. Format for Summary Judgment Briefs—Overview	293
C. Statements of Facts	294
D. Supporting Evidentiary Materials	296
E. The Motion	297
F. The Brief	299
1. The Introduction	299
2. The Argument	300
3. The Conclusion	301
Checklist for Chapter 17	301
Endnotes	302
Chapter 18. Appellate Briefs	307
I. Summary of the Appellate Process	308
II. The Record on Appeal	309
III. Standards of Review	310
A. Overview	310
B. Restricted Appellate Review of Findings of Fact	311
1. Review of Jury Findings	311
2. Review of a Judge's Findings of Fact	312
C. Conclusions of Law: Mixed Conclusions of Fact and Law in a Nonjury Trial	313
1. Review of Discretionary Rulings	314
2. Mixed Findings as Predominantly Fact or Law	314
3. Constitutional Facts Doctrine	315
IV. Overview of Appellate Briefs	316
A. Components of Appellate Briefs	316
1. Opening Brief	316
2. Answering Briefs and Reply Briefs	317
B. Statement of the Issues	317
C. Statement of Procedural History	319
D. The Argument	320
1. Summary of Argument	320
2. Standard of Review	320

3. Arguing the Law—The Role of Policy Analysis	321
a. Enhanced Role of Policy in Appellate Briefs	321
b. Contrasting Examples	322
c. The Persuasive Value of Warning About Negative Consequences	325
4. Arguing the Law and the Facts	326
a. Strategic Choices	326
b. Varieties of Fact Analysis	329
E. The Conclusion	331
Checklist for Chapter 18	331
Endnotes	332
Chapter 19. Oral Argument	335
I. Oral Argument to the Court	336
A. General Format	336
B. Formality and Demeanor	337
C. Content of the Argument	338
1. Introducing Yourself and Your Argument	338
2. Body of the Argument	339
a. General Strategy	339
b. Balancing Discussion of the Facts and Law	340
c. Responding to Questions	341
3. The Conclusion	342
D. Preparing for Oral Argument	342
E. Nervousness and Verbal Stumbling	343
Checklist for Chapter 19	345
Endnote	345
PART V. INTRODUCTION TO OTHER LEGAL WRITING GENRES	347
Chapter 20. Contract Drafting	349
I. Basic Approaches to Contract Drafting	350
II. Fundamental Components	351
A. General Format	351
B. Introduction to the Contract	351
C. Recitals	352
D. Statement of Reciprocal Promises	353
1. Introductory Clause and Recital of Consideration	353
2. Precision in Drafting	355
a. Simplicity; Terms of Art	355
b. Deliberate Imprecision	356
c. Plain English: Perfection and Pitfalls	357
3. Allocating the Risk of Unexpected Impediments to Performance	358
E. Signature Line	358
Exercise 20-1	359
Checklist for Chapter 20	361
Endnotes	361

Chapter 21. Additional Legal Writing Genres	363
I. Genres	364
A. Scholarly Writing	364
1. Overview	364
2. Guidance for Students Preparing Seminar Papers and Journal Notes and Comments	365
B. Business Development and Service to the Legal Profession	367
C. Judicial Writing	368
II. Process	370
Checklist for Chapter 21	371
Endnotes	371
 PART VI. DRAFTING AND REVISING	 373
 Chapter 22. The Drafting Process	 375
I. Understand the Assignment	376
II. Review and Digest the Facts	377
A. Review the Available Facts	377
B. Create a “Digest”	378
III. Research the Law	380
A. The Research Process	380
B. Keeping Track of Research	383
IV. Outline the Analysis or Argument	385
V. Draft the Analysis or Argument	388
VI. Revise and Proofread	389
A. Revision	389
B. Proofreading and Cite-Checking	390
C. Using LLMs to Proofread and Revise	392
VII. Incorporating Feedback	393
Checklist for Chapter 22	394
Endnotes	395
 Chapter 23. Legal Writing Style	 397
I. Clarity	398
A. Creating Order Out of Chaos	398
B. Simplicity and Plain English	398
C. Clear Sentence Structure	400
1. Straightforward Sentences	400
Exercise 23-1	403
2. Correct Punctuation	404
3. Concrete Verbs	406
4. Active and Passive Construction	407
Exercise 23-2	410
D. Transitions	410
II. Precision	413
A. Importance of Precise Expression	413
B. Exercising Caution with Elegant Variation	414

C. Pronouns and Other Gendered Titles	416
III. Concision	417
Exercise 23-3	419
IV. Consistent and Mistake-Free	420
Checklist for Chapter 23	420
Endnotes	421
Chapter 24. Presenting, Quoting, and Signaling Authority	423
I. Presenting Your Authority Effectively	424
A. Citation Accuracy	424
B. Incorporating Citations	425
1. Footnotes	425
2. Subordinating Citations	425
3. String Citations	428
II. Quotations	429
A. Using Quotations Selectively	429
B. Quotations in the Statement of Facts	430
C. Presenting Quotations	431
1. Incorporating Quotations	431
2. Grammatical Considerations	432
3. Block Quotations	433
D. Modifying and Citing Quotations	434
1. Modifying Quotations	434
2. Providing Informative but Streamlined Citations	437
III. Citation Signals	438
A. Common Signals in Practice	439
1. No Signal	439
2. “ See ”	440
3. “ E.g. ”	441
4. “ See also ”	442
5. “ Cf. ,” “ Compare . . . with ,” and “ Contrast ”	443
B. Less Common Signals in Practice	445
1. “ Accord ”	445
2. “ See generally ”	446
3. “ But ” and “ Contra ”	446
Exercise 24-1	447
Checklist for Chapter 24	448
Endnotes	448
Index	451