

CONTENTS

Preface to the Ninth Edition	xxi
Acknowledgments	xxiii
Introduction	1
I. Who Me? A Writer?	1
II. Why Master Legal Writing When AI Can Write?
A. The Irreplaceable Human Element in Legal Analysis	2
B. Why AI Makes Legal Writing Skills More Important, Not Less	2
C. The Bar Exam Reality	3
D. Professional Responsibility and Competence	4
E. Looking Forward	5
III. Pliable Authority	5
IV. Ethics	7
V. Plagiarism	8

CHAPTER 1 FIRST THINGS FIRST

I. Adult Learning: Incremental Learning, the Writing Process, and “Flipped” Classrooms	11
II. Understanding Your Role	14
Exercise 1-1 Recognizing Your Role	16
III. Reading Cases: Introduction	16
Exercise 1-2 Finding the Parts of a Case	17
IV. How Lawyers Think	17
Exercise 1-3 Forms of Reasoning	20

PART I

THE PROCESS OF WRITING PREDICTIVELY: THE OFFICE MEMO

STAGE ONE ORGANIZING FOR ANALYSIS: OUTLINING YOUR WORKING DRAFT

CHAPTER 2

OUTLINING RULES

I. Outlining a Rule: Overview	25
II. Common Rule Structures	26
III. A Few Hints About Outlining Rules	29
Exercise 2-1 Formulating a Rule from a Statutory Format	31
Exercise 2-2 Formulating a Rule from a Statutory Format	31
Exercise 2-3 Formulating a Rule from a Statutory Format	32
Exercise 2-4 Formulating a Rule from a Statutory Format	32
Exercise 2-5 Formulating a Rule from a Statement in a Case	32

CHAPTER 3

USING RULES TO ORGANIZE YOUR ANALYSIS

I. Organizing a Working Draft	33
II. Hints for Organizing the Draft	34
III. Rules Within an Umbrella Rule	37
Exercise 3-1 Rule Outlining	38
Exercise 3-2 Rule Outlining	39
Exercise 3-3 Rule Outlining	40
Exercise 3-4 Rule Outlining	40
IV. Organizing by Rule: Special Circumstances	41

CHAPTER 4

FINDING A RULE IN A STATUTE

I. Reading Statutes	43
II. Identifying Issues	45
Exercise 4-1	46
Exercise 4-2	47
III. Interpreting Statutory Language	47
IV. Interpreting Statutory Language: Canons of Construction	49

CHAPTER 5

FINDING A RULE IN A CASE

I. Why Formulate a Rule from a Case?	51
II. A Slippery Task	53
III. Inherited Rules and Processed Rules	54
IV. Tools for Finding New Information About the Rule	56
V. Choosing the Rule's Breadth	57
VI. Holding Versus Dicta	60
Exercise 5-1 Formulating and Outlining a Rule from an Opinion	62
Exercise 5-2 Distinguishing Holding from Dictum	62

CHAPTER 6

FINDING A RULE FROM MULTIPLE AUTHORITIES

I.	The Continuing Search for a Rule	63
II.	Comparing Precedential Values	65
	A. Primary Authority: Is This “Law”?	65
	B. Primary Authority: Is It Binding?	66
	C. Subsequent Treatment: Is It Still “Good Law”?	68
	D. Any Other Factors?	69
	Exercise 6-1 Comparing Precedential Values	71
	Exercise 6-2 Comparing Precedential Values	72
III.	Reconciling Authorities: Pulling Them All Together	73
	Exercise 6-3 Reconciling Opinions	75

STAGE TWO

DRAFTING FOR ANALYSIS: WRITING THE WORKING DRAFT

CHAPTER 7

ANALYZING A SINGLE ISSUE: RULE EXPLANATION

I.	What Is a Single-Issue Discussion?	82
II.	The Paradigm for Legal Analysis	83
	Exercise 7-1 Identifying and Labeling the Parts of the Paradigm	85
III.	Explaining the Rule	85
IV.	Rule Explanation Using a Single Case	87
	V. Counteranalysis	91
	Checklist for Rule Explanation	94
	Exercise 7-2 Writing the Rule Explanation	95

CHAPTER 8

ANALYZING A SINGLE ISSUE: RULE APPLICATION

I.	Two Approaches to Writing the Application Section	97
II.	Content of Rule Application	98
III.	Analogy	99
	A. Which Similarities and Differences Matter?	99
	B. Choosing a Format for Your Analogy	100
IV.	Common Trouble Spots in Rule Application	103
	Checklist for Rule Application	106
	Exercise 8-1 Recognizing Analogies and Counter-Analogies	107
	Exercise 8-2 Practicing Analogies and Counter-Analogies	107
	Exercise 8-3 Writing the Rule Application, Using Analogies and Counter-Analogies	107

CHAPTER 9
ANALYZING A SINGLE ISSUE:
USING MULTIPLE AUTHORITIES

I. Investigating the Options	109
II. Organizational Options: Rule Explanation	111
III. Formats for Using Cases to Explain the Rule	115

CHAPTER 10
ANALYZING MULTIPLE ISSUES

I. Writing the Analysis of an Umbrella Rule with Subparts	117
A. The Umbrella Section	118
B. The Discussion of Each Subissue	119
C. The Overall Conclusion	119
II. Writing the Analysis Without an Umbrella Rule	120
III. Variations	121
A. Order of Elements	121
B. Whether to Cut Short the Analysis	121
C. Whether to Combine Rule Explanation and Rule Application for All Elements	122
Exercise 10-1 Identifying the Parts of a Multi-Issue Discussion	123
Exercise 10-2 Writing a Multi-Issue Discussion	123

STAGE THREE
CONVERTING YOUR WORKING DRAFT TO AN OFFICE MEMO

CHAPTER 11
THE OFFICE MEMO AND THE LAW-TRAINED READER

I. Observations About Readers	127
A. Focus on the Reader	127
B. Attention Levels	128
C. Road Maps	129
D. Law Professors as Readers	129
II. An Overview of the Office Memo	130
A. Function	130
B. Format	130
C. Degree of Formality	132
D. Ethical Requirements	132
III. E-Memos	133

CHAPTER 12
ORGANIZING FOR YOUR READER:
THE DISCUSSION SECTION

I. The Umbrella Section	135
II. Organizational Choices	136

A. Dispositive Issues	137
B. Important Issues	137
C. Threshold Issues	137
D. Familiar Order	138
III. Check Subsection Lengths	138
IV. Revise Headings	139
V. Insert a Thesis Sentence or Paragraph	139

CHAPTER 13

COMPLETING THE DRAFT OF THE OFFICE MEMO

I. The Heading	141
II. The Question Presented	142
A. Content and Format	142
B. Generic Versus Specific References	144
C. Degree of Detail	144
D. Role	144
Exercise 13-1 Drafting a Question Presented	145
III. The Brief Answer	145
A. Content and Format	145
B. Generic Versus Specific References	146
C. Degree of Detail	146
D. Degree of Certainty	146
Exercise 13-2 Drafting a Brief Answer	147
IV. The Facts Section	147
A. Fact Selection	147
B. Organization	148
C. Remembering Your Role	149
Exercise 13-3 Critiquing a Facts Section	150
V. The Conclusion	151
Checklist for an Office Memo	151

STAGE FOUR

REVISING TO ACHIEVE A FINAL DRAFT

CHAPTER 14

CITATIONS AND QUOTATIONS

I. Citation in Legal Writing	157
Exercise 14-1 Recognizing Ideas That Need Citations	158
II. Citation Form	159
A. Using the ALWD Guide	160
1. Sections of the ALWD Guide	160
2. How to Locate the Rules You Need	161
B. Using the Bluebook	161
1. Sections of the Bluebook	162
2. How to Find the Rules You Need	162

C. Several Key Concepts	163
D. Introduction to Citation Form	163
E. Matching the Citation to the Text	166
Exercise 14-2 Identifying the Text the Citation Supports	167
F. Citing with Style and Grace	167
Exercise 14-3 Editing the Placement of Citations	169
G. Citation to AI-Generated Content	170
H. Editing Citation Form	170
Checklist for Editing Citations	170
Exercise 14-4 Editing for Citation Form	177
III. Quotations	177
A. When Quotation Marks Are Required	177
B. Choosing to Use Quotation Marks	179
C. Overquoting	179
D. The Mechanics of Quoting	181
E. Editing Quotations	183
Checklist for Editing Quotations	183

CHAPTER 15

REVISING FOR USAGE AND STYLE

I. Professional Tone and Level of Formality	186
II. Legal Usage and Customs	187
III. Gender-Neutral Writing	189
A. Nouns: Eliminate or Substitute	190
B. Pronouns (He, She, His, Hers, They, Them, Theirs)	190
C. Proper Names and Titles	192
IV. Clear Subjects and Strong Verbs	192
V. Avoiding Wordiness	196
VI. Miscellaneous	198
Checklist for Language and Usage Errors	199

PART II

PROFESSIONAL CORRESPONDENCE

CHAPTER 16

WRITING PROFESSIONAL CORRESPONDENCE

I. General Characteristics of Professional Legal Correspondence	203
II. Letters to Clients	206
A. General Considerations	206
B. Retainer Letters	207
C. Advice Letters	207
D. Status Letters	208
III. Letters to Other Lawyers	209

A. General Considerations	209
B. Demand Letters	210
C. Confirming Letters	211
IV. Letters to Clients, Other Lawyers, and the Court: Transmittal Letters	212
V. Texts and E-Mails: Special Considerations	213
A. Texts	214
B. E-Mails	215

PART III

THE PROCESS OF WRITING PERSUASIVELY: THE BRIEF

STAGE ONE STRUCTURING FOR PERSUASION: OUTLINING THE WORKING DRAFT

CHAPTER 17 ETHICS, JUDGES, AND BRIEFS

I. The Ethics of Brief Writing	224
II. Judges as Readers	227
III. Overview of a Brief	228

CHAPTER 18 STRUCTURING THE ARGUMENT: FIRST STEPS

I. Formulating and Structuring a Rule: Review	234
II. Using the Rule to Begin to Organize the Draft	236
III. Identifying Issues	237
IV. Identifying and Drafting Working Point Headings	238
A. Identifying Working Point Headings	238
B. Variations on Identifying Point Headings	239
1. Arguing an Important Threshold Issue	240
2. Arguing Two Major Issues	240
C. Drafting Working Point Headings	241
Exercise 18-1 Evaluating Working Point Headings	242
V. Identifying and Drafting Working Subheadings	243

CHAPTER 19 STRUCTURING A MORE FAVORABLE RULE

I. Formulating a More Favorable Rule	245
A. Discounting Troublesome Cases	246
B. Synthesize the Authorities into a More Favorable Rule	248
II. Structuring a Favorable Rule	252
A. Subparts	252

1. Choosing Subheadings for Emphasis	252
2. Subheadings as a Tallying Mechanism	253
B. Example: Structuring a Favorable Rule from Fox and Clein	253

STAGE TWO
DRAFTING FOR PERSUASION: WRITING THE WORKING DRAFT

CHAPTER 20
WRITING THE WORKING DRAFT: FIRST STEPS

I. Getting Ready to Write	259
II. Review of the Paradigm	261
Exercise 20-1 Identifying and Labeling the Parts of the Paradigm	262
III. Using Cases to Explain the Rule	262
IV. Arguments About Statutes	264
V. Counteranalysis of the Rule	267
VI. Writing the Rule Application: Two Approaches	267
VII. Overall Content of Rule Application	268
VIII. Making Factual Inferences	268
IX. Using Case Comparisons	269
X. Common Trouble Spots in Rule Application	271
XI. Counterapplication	272

CHAPTER 21
REFINING THE ARGUMENTS

I. Identifying the Standard of Review	273
A. Categories of Trial Court Decisions	274
1. Questions of Law	274
2. Questions of Fact	274
3. Mixed Questions of Law and Fact	275
4. Questions Within the Trial Court's Discretion	276
B. Advocating a More Favorable Standard of Review	277
C. Editing Headings to Conform to the Standard of Review	277
Exercise 21-1 Identifying Categories of Trial Court Decisions	278
II. Drafting the Question Presented	279
A. Purpose and Function	279
B. Traditional Content and Format	280
C. "Deep" Issue Statements	283
D. Drafting Hints	284
Exercise 21-2 Critiquing Questions Presented	284
III. Persuading Using Policy	285
IV. Rule Application with Factors or Guidelines: Advanced Techniques	286
A. First Organizational Option: By Factor	287
B. Second Organizational Option: By Party	287
C. Third Organizational Option: By Theme	288

STAGE THREE
CONVERTING THE WORKING DRAFT TO A BRIEF

CHAPTER 22
ORGANIZING FOR YOUR READER:
THE ARGUMENT SECTION

I. Umbrella Section	293
Exercise 22-1 Labeling the Components of the Umbrella Section	295
II. Choosing an Order for the Arguments	295
A. Ordering Point Headings	295
1. Strength on the Law	296
2. Strength on the Equities	296
3. Your Reader's Priorities	296
B. Ordering Subheadings	297
III. Converting Working Headings to the Brief's Point Headings	297
A. Adding the Key Facts	297
Exercise 22-2 Evaluating the Content of Point Headings	299
B. Editing for Persuasion	299
C. Editing for Readability	301
Exercise 22-3 Editing Headings for Readability	302

CHAPTER 23
COMPLETING THE DRAFT OF THE BRIEF

I. Statement of Facts	305
A. Ethics, Readers, and the Conventions of Fact Statements	306
1. Reminders About Ethics	306
2. Reminders About Readers	307
3. The Conventions of a Statement of Facts	307
B. Developing a Theory of the Case and Selecting Facts	309
1. Developing a Theory of the Case	309
2. Selecting Facts	310
C. Organization	311
1. Formats	311
2. Subheadings	312
3. Procedural History	312
II. Techniques for Persuasion	312
A. General Principles	312
B. Large-Scale Organization	313
1. The Beginning	313
2. The Middle	314
3. The End	314
C. Paragraph Organization	314
D. Techniques with Sentences	315
E. Other Small-Scale Techniques	316
Checklist for Statement of Facts	319

Exercise 23-1 Critiquing a Statement of Facts	320
III. Formatting the Brief	323

STAGE FOUR
REVISING TO ACHIEVE A FINAL DRAFT

CHAPTER 24
EDITING THE BRIEF

I. Persuasive Style	327
A. Degree of Formality	327
B. Competence and Clarity	328
C. Tact and Good Judgment	329
II. Writing with Confidence	330
Final Checklist	331

PART IV

ORAL ADVOCACY

CHAPTER 25
ORAL ARGUMENT

I. The Purpose of Oral Argument	335
II. Formalities and Organization of Oral Argument	336
III. The Content of the Argument	339
IV. Preparation	341
V. Virtual Oral Arguments	343
VI. Handling Questions from the Bench	344
VII. Presentation	347

APPENDICES 349

Appendix A Sample Office Memorandum	351
Appendix B Sample Office Memorandum	357
Appendix C Sample E-Memo	363
Appendix D Sample Correspondence	365
Appendix E Sample Trial-Level Brief	373
Appendix F Sample Appellate Brief	381
Appendix G Sample Appellate Brief	393
Appendix H Cases Used in the Text's Examples and Exercises	411
Coffee System of Atlanta v. Fox	411
Goldman v. Kane	414
Clein v. Kapiloff	416
Jacobson v. Kamerinsky	418
Lucy v. Zehner	420

Index	425
--------------	-----