

Table of Contents

Introduction to the Second Edition	xvii
Part I: Antitrust Fundamentals	1
Chapter 1. Foundational Economic Assumptions	3
1. Markets, Competition, and Marginal Costs	3
2. Market Power, Efficiency, Deadweight Losses, and Wealth Transfers	6
3. Consumer Welfare and Other Objectives of Antitrust Policy	8
4. Competitive Markets, Monopoly Power, and Forms of Anticompetitive Conduct	10
Chapter 2. Triage of Antitrust Problems	13
1. Statutes and Common Law	13
2. Rules and Standards	15
3. Precedent and History	16
4. Vertical and Horizontal Relationships	17
Chapter 3. Market Definition and Market Power	21
1. Defining Relevant Markets	21
1.1 Du Pont and the Cellophane Fallacy	22
1.2 Grinnell and Unique Customer Preferences	26
1.3 Brown Shoe and Submarkets	30
1.4 The Brown Shoe Factors	32
1.5 Putting It All Together: A Market Definition Toolkit	34
2. Market Power	37
2.1 Market Share	38
2.2 Entry Barriers	39
	xi

Table of Contents

2.3	Other Factors	41
2.4	Profits: The Non-Factor	42
Chapter 4. Anticompetitive Effects		45
1.	The Usual Canon—Price, Output, Quality, Variety, and Innovation	45
1.1	Price, Output, and Choice	45
1.2	Harm to Innovation	46
2.	Harm to Competition in Two-Sided Markets	48
3.	Buyer Power and Labor Markets	50
Part II: Agreements in Restraint of Trade		53
Chapter 5. Juridical Categories		55
1.	Historical Development	55
2.	Triage of the Categories	60
3.	The Per Se Rule	62
3.1	Naked Price-Fixing Agreements	62
3.2	Bid Rigging, Market Manipulation, Output Reduction, and Related Market Distortion Schemes	62
3.3	Naked Market Division Agreements	62
3.4	Buyer Price Fixing or Market Division	63
3.5	Horizontal Group Boycotts	63
4.	The Quick Look	63
4.1	Ethical Rules or Professional Codes of “Learned Professions”	64
4.2	Cases Where Some Restraints on Competition Are Inherent	64
4.3	Agreements with Noncommercial Motivations	65
4.4	Complex Agreements About New Circumstances or Technologies	65
4.5	The Evolving Quick Look	66
5.	The Rule of Reason	67
6.	The Meaning of Procompetitive	73
Chapter 6. Horizontal Restraints		77
1.	Cartels	77
2.	Other Naked Restraints	82
2.1	Buyer Cartels	82

Table of Contents

2.2	Maximum Price Setting	83
2.3	Agreement on Pricing Components	84
2.4	Market Division	84
2.5	Group Boycotts	87
3.	Information Exchanges and Other Facilitating Practices	90
4.	Joint Ventures	93
5.	Other Ancillary Restraints	96
Chapter 7. Vertical Restraints		97
1.	Types of Vertical Restraints	97
2.	A Brief Historical Sketch	98
3.	Economic Considerations	101
4.	The Current Doctrinal Landscape	104
5.	Looking Ahead	105
Part III: Exclusionary and Exploitative Practices		107
Chapter 8. The General Tests for Monopolization		109
1.	Monopolization Fundamentals	109
2.	The Anticompetitive Conduct Element	111
3.	Competition, Not Competitors	115
4.	The Microsoft Principles	116
5.	Attempted Monopolization	118
Chapter 9. Exclusionary Practices		123
1.	Refusals to Deal	124
2.	Predatory Pricing	128
2.1	The Appropriate Measure of Cost	129
2.2	Recoupment	131
3.	Predatory Overbidding and Price Squeezes	132
4.	Tying	134
4.1	Legal Doctrine	134
4.2	Economics and Policy	139
4.3	Contractual Tying, Technological Tying	142
4.4	Kodak and the Single-Brand Issue	143
5.	Exclusive Dealing	144
6.	Bundled and Loyalty Discounting	147

Table of Contents

Chapter 10. The Robinson-Patman Act	151
1. Jurisdictional and Technical Limitations	153
2. Lines of Price Discrimination	154
3. Elements of Secondary Line Price Discrimination	154
4. The Meeting Competition and Cost Justification Defenses	157
Part IV: Mergers	159
Chapter 11. Merger Law: Historical Foundations	161
1. Celler-Kefauver, Structuralism, and the “Government Always Wins” Period	162
2. The Chicago School Assault on Structuralism	165
3. Hart-Scott-Rodino and the Era of Silence	166
4. Where Are We Now?	167
Chapter 12. Merger Law: Contemporary Practice	169
1. The 11 Principles	171
2. Horizontal Merger Analysis	177
2.1 Direct Evidence of Anticompetitive Effects	178
2.2 The Structural Approach: Market Definition, Shares, and Concentration	179
2.2.1 Defining a Relevant Market	179
2.2.2 Identifying the Market Participants	184
2.2.3 Calculating Market Shares	185
2.2.4 Calculating the HHI	186
2.3 Theories of Anticompetitive Harm	187
2.3.1 Unilateral Effects Theories	187
2.3.2 Coordinated Effects Theories	189
2.4 Mitigating Factors and Defenses	191
2.4.1 The Failing Firm Defense	191
2.4.2 Entry and Repositioning	192
2.4.3 Efficiencies	192
3. Vertical Mergers	194
3.1 Historical Context	194
3.2 The Structural Approach	195
3.3 The Qualitative Approach	196
3.3.1 Foreclosure	197
3.3.2 Collusion	198
3.4 Efficiencies	198

Table of Contents

4. Sources of Evidence	199
5. Order from the Chaos	200
Part V: Procedural Hurdles and Immunities	203
Chapter 13. Antitrust Injury, Standing, and Jurisdiction	205
1. Antitrust Injury	205
2. Standing	207
2.1 Purchaser Standing: General Framework	207
2.2 Purchaser Standing in the Gig Economy	210
2.3 Standing of Competitors and Other Affected Parties	210
3. Jurisdiction	212
Chapter 14. Antitrust Immunities	215
1. Noerr-Pennington Immunity	216
2. Parker Immunity	218
3. Interactions Between Noerr-Pennington and Parker Immunity	222
Glossary	225
Index	233

