

Contents

---

Preface	xxiii
Acknowledgments	xxv
Authors' Note	xxxi

---

PART I

Introduction to International Law and Lawmaking 1

Chapter 1

Tracing the Evolution of International Law 3

I. States, Territory, and Peoples: International Law Through Two Problems	4
A. China's Claims in the South China Sea	4
1. The Philippines Sues China	7
2. China—and the World—React	9
B. The Chagossians' Attempts to Define Their Political Future	10
1. The UK Detaches the Chagos Islands from Mauritius	11
2. The Removal of the Chagossian People	14
3. A New Strategy for the Chagossians: The ICJ Advisory Opinion	16
4. Mauritius and the UK Reach an Agreement	18
II. Tracing the Evolution of International Law	19
A. The Law of Nations in Its Traditional Incarnation	20
B. International Law's Development in the Last Hundred Years	24
C. New Actors, New Issues, New Processes	26
1. International Institutions	26
2. Non-State Actors	27
3. Non-Traditional Lawmaking and Enforcement	28
III. Conceptual Challenges	29
A. The Persistent Question of Compliance	29
B. The Diversification of International Law and Regime Interaction	32
C. Just Rules? Winners and Losers in International Law	32
D. International Legal Theories and Methods	33

Chapter 2

Making Law in a Decentralized System 37

I. Creating and Using Treaties: The Whaling Regime	38
A. The Problem	39
B. Why Do States Enter into Treaties?	40
C. How Do States Enter into Treaties?	42
1. Background on Treaty Law	42
2. Conditioning Consent: Reservations to Treaties	44

3. Invalidating Treaties: Coercion and Consent	50
4. Invalidity and Jus Cogens	52
D. Interpreting and Evolving Treaties	54
E. Enforcing Treaties	62
F. Withdrawing from and Terminating Treaties	65
G. Note on Treaties and Sovereignty	68
II. Custom and Soft Law: Regulating Foreign Direct Investment	70
A. The Key Elements of Customary International Law	70
1. State Practice	72
2. Opinio Juris	73
3. From Practice to Law	74
B. The Problem	78
C. Discerning and Applying Custom to Expropriations	82
D. The Soft Law Alternative	87
E. Note on Incorporating Principles from Domestic Law	92

PART II

Participants in the International Legal Process 93

Chapter 3

The Traditional Actors: States and International Organizations 97

I. The Formation and Breakup of States: Catalonia's Secessionist Claims	98
A. The Problem	99
B. What Is a State? Requisites of Statehood	100
C. Separation Anxiety: Introducing the Law on Self-Determination	101
1. The Pre-UN Charter Era	102
2. Self-Determination After the UN Charter	106
D. Clarifying the Law's Ambiguities?: The Yugoslavia Precedents on Secession	109
1. The Initial Dissolution	109
2. Kosovo's Secession from Serbia	112
E. Beyond the Former Yugoslavia: Three Recent Examples	114
1. Quebec	114
2. Crimea	116
3. Ukraine	118
F. Recognition of New States by Outside Actors: Does It Matter?	119
G. Note on Changes in Governments Within States Under International Law	122
II. State Responsibility: Attributing Malicious Cyber Conduct	124
A. Background on State Responsibility	124
B. The Problem	125
C. Attributing Conduct to a State	127
D. Responsibility for Aiding or Assisting	134
E. Due Diligence Obligations	135
F. Note on the Legal Ramifications of State Responsibility	136
III. International Organizations as Global Actors: The United Nations and Apartheid	138
A. The Problem	140
B. Background on the Structures of International Organizations	141
C. Modes of Decision-Making in International Organizations	144

D. Legal "Personality"	147
E. Condemnations of Apartheid	150
F. The UN's Sanctioning Processes	152
G. Limits to UN Reactions: A Word on Accusations of Double-Standards	158
H. Note on Judicial and Quasi-Judicial Settlement of Disputes	160
IV. Are International Organizations Accountable?: Sexual Abuse by UN Peacekeepers	164
A. The Problem	165
B. The Challenge of Holding International Organizations Accountable	166
1. A Schema of UN Peace Operations	166
2. A Framework for Addressing Accountability	166
3. The Secretary-General Reacts	167
4. The Security Council's Members Respond	169
C. Quasi-Judicial Accountability?	171
D. An Alternative Path: Holding States to Account	173
 Chapter 4
Beyond the State: The Participation of Non-State Actors	179
 I. Non-Governmental Organizations as Participants in International Arenas: The UNAIDS Program	180
A. The Problem	180
B. Evolving Modes of NGO Participation	181
C. Representativeness of NGOs	183
D. NGO Influence and Accountability	184
II. Indigenous Peoples' Path Toward Inclusion: The Ogieks' Claims Against Kenya	190
A. The Problem	191
B. Emerging Recognition of Indigenous Peoples' Status and Rights	193
C. The Ogiek Sue to Assert Their Status and Rights	198
1. Proceedings in Kenya's Courts	198
2. Proceedings in the African Human Rights System	199
D. The Current Situation of the Ogiek	202
E. Questioning International Law and Indigenous Peoples	202
III. Corporations as International Actors: Worker Safety in Bangladeshi Apparel Factories	205
A. The Problem	205
B. Attempts at Multilateral Regulation of Corporate Conduct	206
1. ILO Treaties	206
2. Standard-Setting Outside of Treaties: Two Approaches	208
3. A Treaty on Corporations and Human Rights?	212
C. Corporate Self-Regulation: Codes of Conduct	214
D. Corporations as Defendants	217
E. Options for Direct Participation of Corporations in Lawmaking	219
IV. States of the United States in the International Arena: California Combats Climate Change	221
A. The Problem	222
B. State and Local Foreign Policy Making: The South African Precedent	223
C. State Sanctions on Burma	226
D. State Prerogatives in the Absence of Congressional Action	230

---

PART III
International Law and Domestic Law 235
Chapter 5
International Law in the Domestic Arena 237

- I. The Monist-Dualist Debate 237
- II. Making International Law: A Jilted Lover, Chemical Weapons, and the Limits of the Treaty Power 243
  - A. The Problem 243
  - B. Treaties and Federalism: Are There Limits to the U.S. Government's Power to Make and Implement International Agreements? 244
  - C. Guidance from the Supreme Court? 250
  - D. Shifts in United States Practice 254
  - E. Are There Limits to the President's Authority to Enter Into—or Leave—International Agreements? 257
- III. Breaking International Law: Consular Notification and the Arrest of Foreign Nationals 263
  - A. The Problem 263
  - B. Addressing Conflicts Between International and Domestic Legal Obligations 265
    - 1. The Execution of Angel Breard 265
    - 2. The LaGrand Case 267
    - 3. Avena and Its Aftermath 268
    - 4. The Supreme Court Addresses the Domestic Effects of ICJ Judgments 270
- IV. Opening and Closing the Courthouse Door to International Law Claims: Seeking Redress for Corporate Complicity in Human Rights Violations 279
  - A. The Problem 280
  - B. Opening the Door to International Law Claims? The Alien Tort Statute 280
  - C. The Sosa Decision: "The Door Is Still Ajar" 283
  - D. Closing the Door 286
  - E. An Alternative Path 290

Chapter 6
The Reach of Domestic Law in the International Arena: Jurisdiction and Its Limits 295

- I. Regulating the Reach of Domestic Law 295
  - A. The Lotus Case 296
  - B. Questioning Lotus 298
- II. Jurisdiction to Make and Apply Law: The EU Directive on Aircraft Emissions 299
  - A. The Problem 300
  - B. Prescribing Law Based on Territorial Links 301
    - 1. The Presumption Against Extraterritoriality in U.S. Law 302
    - 2. Expanding Territoriality: The Effects Doctrine 305
    - 3. A European Alternative? 307

C. Assessing the Legality of the EU's Aviation Directive	309
D. Note on Other Judicial Approaches Limiting the Extraterritorial Reach of U.S. Law	312
E. Other Bases for Prescriptive Jurisdiction	315
1. The Nationality Principle	315
2. The Protective Principle	316
3. The Passive Personality Principle	317
4. Universal Jurisdiction	318
F. Note on the Exercise of Jurisdiction over Internet-Based Activities	322
III. Capturing Criminals Abroad: The Arrest of Dragan Nikolić	324
A. The Problem	325
B. Seizing War Criminals: The Eichmann Precedent	325
C. Kidnapping or Extradition?: The Alvarez-Machain Case	329
D. Challenging Irregular Renditions in Other Jurisdictions	333
E. The ICTY Opines	335
F. Irregular Renditions by the United States of Alleged Terrorists	337
IV. Sovereign Immunity: The Legality of Seizing Russian State Assets	339
A. The Problem	340
B. Development of Foreign Sovereign Immunity	341
1. The Classical View of Sovereign Immunity	341
2. The Tate Letter	343
3. Codification of the Restrictive Theory: The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act	344
C. What Is Commercial Activity?	347
D. From "Freezing" to "Seizing" Central Bank Assets	351
E. An Exception for Violation of Jus Cogens Norms?	352

PART IV

The Protection of Human Dignity 359

Chapter 7

The Claims of Individuals on States: International Human Rights 361

I. Protecting Political and Civil Rights: U.S. Use of "Enhanced Interrogation Techniques"	363
A. The Problem	364
B. The Architecture of International Human Rights Law with Respect to Torture	365
1. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights	366
2. The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights	368
3. The Convention Against Torture	369
4. The Extraterritorial Reach of Human Rights Treaties	371
5. Implementation Mechanisms	372
C. Judicial Decisions Applying the Law on Torture	373
D. U.S. Incorporation of the Torture Convention	378
E. U.S. Practice Regarding the Law on Torture in Counter-Terrorism Operations	380

II. Guaranteeing Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights: The Right to Food	383
A. The Problem	384
B. Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights and Obligations	385
C. Resource Constraints and Tradeoffs	392
D. The U.S. Government Position on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights	394
III. Gender-Based Rights and the Persistent Claims of Cultural Relativism	396
A. The Problem	397
B. Background on Women's Rights and Religious Freedom	399
1. Women's Rights	399
2. Religious Freedom	400
3. The Public-Private Distinction	401
C. The ECHR and the Human Rights Committee Address L'Affaire du Foulard	403
D. Debating Cultural Relativism	408
E. Note on LGBTQ+ Rights	412

Chapter 8

Mitigating the Harms of War: International Humanitarian Law 415

I. Limiting the Instruments of War: Artificial Intelligence and Autonomous Weapons	416
A. The Problem	416
B. The Evolution of International Humanitarian Law	418
C. IHL Today	421
D. Judicial Attempts to Fill Normative Gaps: The ICJ and Nuclear Weapons	422
E. Governmental Efforts to Fill the Normative Gap on Autonomous Weapons	429
II. Protecting Non-Combatants: The Qana Incident	431
A. The Problem	432
B. Establishing the Facts	433
C. The Geneva Conventions and Customary Law	439
D. Applying the Lessons of Qana to Kosovo	443
E. The 2023-2025 Conflict in Gaza	447
III. Occupying Foreign Territory: Morocco and Western Sahara	449
A. The Problem	449
B. Identifying Occupations	452
C. When Does an Occupation Become an Annexation?	457
D. Limiting the Economic Exploitation of Occupied Territories	463

Chapter 9

Individual Accountability for Violations of Human

Dignity: International Criminal Law and Beyond 469

I. Identifying International Crimes	470
A. Nullum Crimen Sine Lege and the Nuremberg Trials	471
B. Codification of International Criminal Law: The Genocide Convention	475
C. Modern Codification of Crimes Against Humanity	478
II. Wartime Abuses: U.S. Treatment of Prisoners at Abu Ghraib	481
A. The Problem	481
B. Prosecuting the Immediate Perpetrators at Abu Ghraib	483

C. Responsibility of Military and Civilian Commanders	485
1. International Law on Command Responsibility	485
2. Governmental and NGO Views of Individual Responsibility at Abu Ghraib	487
D. Defenses to War Crimes?	489
1. Following Orders	490
2. Duress	490
III. Domestic Fora for Justice After Atrocities: Chile After Augusto Pinochet	494
A. The Problem	495
B. To Prosecute or to Pardon?	497
1. The View from International Human Rights Bodies	497
2. The View from a Domestic Tribunal	501
C. Prosecuting Pinochet Outside Chile	505
D. Beyond Chile	509
IV. The International Criminal Court as a Venue for Justice: Prosecuting Atrocities After Kenya's 2007 Elections	513
A. The Problem	513
B. Prelude to the ICC: The UN's Ad Hoc Criminal Tribunals	514
C. The ICC: Structure and Jurisdiction	516
D. Complementarity and Challenges to ICC Legitimacy	519
1. The ICC Proceeds with the Kenya Defendants	520
2. The ICC and the Situation in Libya	521
3. Accusations of ICC Bias and Selectivity	524
E. United States Policy Toward the ICC	527

Part V

Interdependence and Integration: The Challenge of Collective Action Problems 531

Chapter 10

Responding to the First Global Commons Issue: The Law of the Sea 535

I. The Territorial Sea and International Straits: Regulating the Passage of Nuclear-Armed Submarines	537
A. The Problem	538
B. Regulating Offshore Waters	539
C. Developing a Regime for International Straits	542
D. Toward Codification	547
E. Note on Anti-Piracy Efforts off the Horn of Africa	550
II. Exploitation and Protection of the Water and Fish: The Canada/Spain Turbot Conflict	551
A. The Problem	552
B. Earlier Fishing Disputes: The United Kingdom-Iceland "Cod Wars"	553
C. Toward Codification	557
D. Toward a Solution for Straddling Stocks	561
E. Putting Biodiversity First: The 2023 Agreement	563
F. Note on Dispute Resolution Under UNCLOS: Structure and Some Key Cases	565

III. Economic Exploitation of the Continental Shelf: Competing Claims to the Arctic Region	567
A. The Problem	568
B. Unilateral Claims to the Continental Shelf: The Truman Proclamation and Reactions	569
C. Prescription Through the United Nations	571
D. Norms for Dividing the Arctic's Continental Shelf?	574
E. The Arctic Today: The UNCLOS Commission and State Claims	584
F. Note on the Deep Seabed Mining Regime of the 1982 Law of the Sea Convention	586

Chapter 11

Protecting the International Environment 591

I. International Waters: Resolving Conflict over the Nile	593
A. The Problem	594
B. Allocating the Nile's Waters	596
C. Development of Norms on International Watercourses	599
1. Procedural Norms	599
2. Substantive Norms	601
D. Guidance from the World Court?	604
1. The Gabcikovo-Nagymoros Dispute	604
2. The Argentina-Uruguay Pulp Mills Dispute	608
E. An Institutional Approach	611
II. Protecting the Earth's Atmosphere: Saving the Ozone Layer	613
A. The Problem	614
B. The Ozone Regime	615
1. The Politics of Ozone Depletion: The Run Up to Vienna	615
2. The Politics of Ozone Depletion: From Vienna to Montreal	617
3. The Politics of Ozone Depletion: From Montreal to London and Beyond	622
C. Promoting Compliance with the Ozone Treaties	625
D. Achievements to Date and Challenges Ahead	628
E. Note on the Precautionary Principle	630
III. Protecting the Planet: Combating Climate Change	632
A. The Problem	633
B. Building a Climate Change Regime: If at first you don't succeed . . .	634
1. The Road to Rio	635
2. From Rio to Kyoto	636
3. Towards a New Approach	638
C. The Paris Agreement	639
1. Aims	639
2. Core Commitments	640
3. Forward-Looking Provisions	642
D. After Paris	642
E. Alternative Legal Pathways	643
1. Recognizing—or Conjuring—a Right to Environment?	644
2. Climate Claims in Domestic Courts	646
3. Climate Claims in Regional and Multilateral Fora	648
a. UN Human Rights Treaty Bodies	648

b. The European Court of Human Rights	648
c. The International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea	651
d. Pending Cases	653

Chapter 12

Managing the World Economy 655

I. WTO Dispute Settlement: Balancing Economic and Non-Economic Values	656
A. The Problem	658
B. The Rise and Fall of Dispute Settlement in the Trade Regime	659
1. GATT Dispute Settlement	659
2. The Birth of WTO Dispute Settlement: A Triumph of Judicialization?	661
3. The Demise of the Appellate Body	662
C. When Do a State's Social Policies Violate International Trade Law?	663
1. Trade and Environment at the GATT: The Tuna-Dolphin Dispute	664
2. Trade and Environment at the WTO: The Shrimp-Turtle Dispute	666
II. Resolving Investment Disputes: Economic Turmoil in Argentina	670
A. The Problem	672
B. Bilateral Investment Treaties	673
C. BITs' Substantive Provisions	675
1. Expropriation	675
2. Fair and Equitable Treatment	677
a. FET and Customary International Law	677
b. FET and Argentina's Actions	680
D. Fair's Fair: Claimant Rights, Claimant Responsibilities?	681
E. Review of Arbitral Awards	686
F. Challenges to the Legitimacy of Investor-State Arbitration	688
G. A Way Forward?	690
III. International Monetary and Financial Affairs: The IMF in Ecuador	692
A. The Problem	693
B. The Legal Framework for IMF Assistance	694
C. Beyond the Law: Understanding IMF Assistance	697
1. Negotiating IMF Programs	697
2. The Politics of Conditionality	698
3. Technocracy versus Democracy?	700
D. Are the IFIs Bound by Human Rights Law?	701
E. Reform Efforts	705

---

PART VI

Challenges to International Law 707

Chapter 13

The Use of Force 709

I. The Collective Security System: The 1990-1991 and 2003 Gulf Wars	714
A. The Problem	715
B. Responses: Condemnations, Sanctions, and Authorized Force	716

C. The 1990-1991 Gulf War and Its Aftermath	718
D. The 2003 War and Its Aftermath	721
E. Debating the Legality of the War	724
F. Note on Russia's Invasion of Ukraine	728
II. Interventions in Internal Conflicts: Syria	729
A. The Problem	730
B. The Principle of Non-Intervention	730
C. Intervention by Invitation	734
D. Self-Defense in the Context of Civil Wars	736
III. Pushing the Boundaries on Self-Defense: Armed Action Against Non-State Groups in Syria	740
A. The Problem	740
B. The Armed Activities Case	742
C. The Competing Claims on Defensive Force Against Non-State Actors	745
D. Anticipatory Self-Defense	750
IV. Humanitarian Intervention: Responding to Chemical Attacks in Syria	752
A. The Problem	753
B. The Kosovo Precedent	754
1. The Lead-Up to and Immediate Aftermath of NATO's Action	755
2. The ICJ Suit	756
C. From Humanitarian Intervention to the Responsibility to Protect	758
1. The Articulation of R2P	759
2. R2P in Practice	761
D. Assessing the Strikes Against Syria for the Use of Chemical Weapons	763
1. The Legal Debate on the April 2017 U.S. Airstrikes	763
2. The April 2018 Reprise	765
E. Note on Peacekeeping	766

Chapter 14

Conceptual Challenges to International Law: Legitimacy, Relevance, and Justice 769

I. The Changing Roles of International Courts and the Limits of International Adjudication	771
A. The Problem	773
B. The Limits of Justiciability: A View from a WTO Panel	774
C. The Limits of Justiciability: A View from the International Criminal Court	778
D. A Power of Judicial Review?	783
1. The Lockerbie Precedent	783
2. Challenging the UN Sanctions Regime	785
3. Debating Judicial Review of International Organizations	789
II. The Ontological Challenge: U.S. Targeted Killing Operations Against Suspected Terrorists	791
A. The Problem	791
B. Articulating the U.S. Legal Position	792
1. The Genesis of the U.S. Legal Position: Security Detention	792
a. International Legal Frameworks on Security Detention	792
b. The U.S. Supreme Court Weighs In	794
2. From Security Detention to Targeted Killing Operations	798

C. Identifying the Applicable Law	799
1. What Are the Boundaries of an Armed Conflict?	799
2. Who May Be Targeted for Attack Under IHL?	801
3. Assessing Targeted Killing Operations Under International Human Rights Law	806
D. Continuity or Change in the U.S. Legal Position?	808
E. Appraising International Law's Relevance	811
1. The Realist Challenge to International Law	811
2. Affirmations of International Law	815
3. Some Perspectives on Law and Power	817
4. Views from International Relations	820
III. Justice, Inequality, and International Law: The AIDS Pandemic and Access to Affordable Medicines	823
A. The Problem	824
B. The International Legal Framework: TRIPs and Public Health	825
C. Two Domestic Responses	826
1. South Africa	827
2. Brazil	828
D. The Evolving International Response	831
E. The Doha Declaration	833
F. A Note on COVID-19	836
G. International Law and Inequality	838
H. International Law and Justice	841
I. International Law: Change and Continuity	846
Table of Authorities	851
Index	861