

Contents

Preface	xix
Acknowledgments	xxi

Part 1: Context

Introduction: Transitioning from Predictive to Persuasive Legal Writing	3
---	----------

Classroom Exercise #1	8
Classroom Exercise #2	8
Classroom Exercise #3	8

Chapter 1: Types of Legal Documents Lawyers Use to Persuade	11
--	-----------

Persuasive Legal Writing in the Transactional Context	12
Persuasive Legal Writing in the Dispute Resolution Context	12
Prelitigation Persuasive Demand Letters, Settlement Letters, and Settlement Agreements	13
Persuasive Pleadings	14
Persuasive Motions and Briefs	16
Pleadings Phase: Persuasive Motions to Dismiss	16
Fact Discovery Phase: Persuasive Discovery Motions	18
Expert Discovery Phase: Persuasive Motions in Limine	19
Pretrial Phase: Persuasive Motions for Summary Judgment and Motions in Limine	20
Trial Phase: Persuasive Trial Motions	21
Posttrial Phase: Persuasive Posttrial Motions and Appellate Briefs	22
ADR: Mediation and Arbitration Papers	24
Checklist of Types of Persuasive Legal Writing	25
Classroom Exercise	26

Part 2: Writing Persuasive Letters in the Litigation Context

Chapter 2: Writing Persuasive Letters to an Opposing Party or Counsel	31
Letter Formatting and Structure	32
Writing a Persuasive Prelitigation Demand Letter	33
Writing a Persuasive Prelitigation Settlement Letter	35
Persuasive Letters During Litigation to Resolve Discovery Disputes	39
Persuasive Letters During Litigation to Resolve Evidentiary Disputes	45
Writing Persuasive Letters to Settle a Dispute After Discovery and Before Trial	47
Pathos and Ethos in Letter Writing	50
Exercise	51

Part 3: Writing Persuasive Pleadings in the Litigation Context

Chapter 3: Drafting a Persuasive Complaint	55
Jurisdiction	55
Case Caption	57
Title	57
Introduction	57
Numbered Paragraphs	58
Jurisdiction and Venue	58
Parties	59
Facts	60
Counts/Causes of Action (Elements, Factors)	64
Damages or Other Remedies/Relief Sought	66
Signature (Fed. R. Civ. P. 11) and Verification (if Required)	66
Exhibits	67
Finalizing the Complaint and Filing and Serving It	67
Persuasive Complaint-Writing Checklist	68

Chapter 4: Drafting a Persuasive Answer 71

Caption, Title, and Introduction 72

Using Numbered Paragraphs to Admit or Deny the Allegations in the Complaint 73

Lacking Knowledge or Information to Admit or Deny an Allegation 74

Example of Numbered Paragraphs in an Answer to a Complaint 74

Defenses and Affirmative Defenses 75

Pleading Alternative Defenses 76

Prayer for Relief 76

Counterclaims and Third-Party Claims 77

Signature Block and Certificate of Service 77

Persuasive Answer-Writing Checklist 78

Chapter 5: Drafting a Persuasive Counterclaim, Third-Party Claim, or Cross-Claim 81

Part 4: Persuasion in the Scheduling
Phase of Litigation

Chapter 6: Persuasively Negotiating a Case
Schedule 85

Persuasive Case Scheduling Negotiation Checklist 91

Part 5: Writing Persuasive Motions and Briefs in the Litigation Context

Chapter 7: Types of Persuasive Motions Written by Lawyers 95

Motions to Dismiss 96

Discovery Motions 99

Evidentiary Motions 101

Motions for Summary Judgment 102

Trial Motions 105

Posttrial Motions 106

Appellate Briefs 107

Chapter 8: Drafting a Persuasive Trial-Level Brief 109

Logos, Pathos, and Ethos in a Persuasive Brief	109
Components of a Single-Issue Trial-Level Brief	111
Avoiding the Dreaded “Benchslap”	112
Substantive Brief-Writing Rules	113
Formatting and Procedural Rules	114
Professionalism Counts	116
Where to Find Courts’ Legal Writing Rules	116
The Brief-Writing Process	117
Identifying and Narrowing the Issue in a Brief	118
Identifying and Describing the Rule Governing the Issue in a Brief	121
Identifying a Rule in a Brief Supporting a Discovery Motion	121
Identifying a Rule in a Brief Supporting an Evidentiary Motion	122
Identifying a Rule in a Brief Supporting a Dispositive Motion	123
Explaining the Rule in a Brief (RE)	125
Drafting Logical RE Paragraphs	126
Transitions Between REs	131
Signal Cites Plus Explanatory Parentheticals	131
Choosing the Proper Signal	132
Citing the Case	133
Crafting a Helpful Parenthetical	133
Expanding a Signal Cite to a String Cite	135
Choosing Cases for REs and Signal or String Cites	135
Organizing the E Part of IREAC or CREAC	136
Applying the Rule in a Brief (RA)	138
Rule-Based Reasoning	138
Analogical Reasoning	140
Policy-Based Reasoning	140
Structuring an RA	141
Using Language to Persuade in an RA	143
Language Choices in a Brief Supporting a Discovery Motion	143
Language Choices in a Brief Supporting an Evidentiary Motion	144
Language Choices in a Brief Supporting a Dispositive Motion (i.e., Motion to Dismiss or Motion for Summary Judgment)	145
Bringing a Brief to Life Through Language Choices	145
Drafting the Conclusion in a Brief	148
Date and Signature Block	150
Drafting the Introduction to a Brief	151
First Sentence of the Introduction	151
Theme Sentence	152
Issue Sentence	155
Rule Framework	156
Concise List of Reasons the Filing Party Should Prevail	157

Examples of Reasons in Sentence Form	157
Examples of Reasons in Numbered-List Form	157
Statement of the Exact Result Sought	158
Writing a Persuasive Statement of Facts in a Brief	159
Putting the Parts of the Brief Together	161
Caption and Title	161
Smoothing Transitions	163
Drafting Persuasive Substantive Headings	164
Weaving the Case Theme Throughout the Brief	165
Twelve-Step Editing and Proofreading Process	166
Attachments and Exhibits	169
Preparing a Certificate of Service	170
Drafting a Proposed Order	171
Requesting Oral Argument	172
Single-IREAC/CREAC Versus Multi-IREAC/CREAC Brief	172
Drafting a Motion to Be Supported by a Brief	178
Brief-Writing Checklist	179

Chapter 9: Drafting Persuasive Opposition and Reply Briefs 189

Following Court Rules	189
Identifying Issues in an Initial Brief Warranting Response in an Opposition or Reply	190
Checking the Law	191
Checking the Facts	191
Single-Issue Versus Multiple-Issue Opposition/Reply Briefs	192
The R and E Sections of IREAC or CREAC in an Opposition Brief	192
The A Section of IREAC or CREAC in an Opposition Brief	195
Drafting Persuasive Conclusions and Requests for Relief in an Opposition Brief	196
Caption, Title, and Introduction in an Opposition Brief	196
Statements of Facts in an Opposition Brief	199
Drafting Persuasive Headings in an Opposition Brief	200
Language Choices in a Responsive Brief	200
Special Tips for Reply Briefs	201
Editing and Proofreading an Opposition or Reply Brief	202
Checklist for Drafting Opposition Briefs	202

Chapter 10: Drafting an Appellate Brief 211

Substantive Sections of an Appellate Brief That Differ from a Trial-Level Brief	212
---	-----

Table of Contents	214
Table of Authorities	215
Jurisdictional Statement (If Required)	215
Statement of the Issues or Questions Involved in an Appeal	215
Statement of the Case	217
Summary of the Argument (If Required)	217
Standards of Review	218
The De Novo Standard of Review	219
The Arbitrary and Capricious Standard of Review	219
The Clearly Erroneous Standard of Review	220
The No Substantial Evidence Standard of Review	220
The Abuse of Discretion Standard of Review	221
The Argument Section of an Appellate Brief	221
The Appellate Record	222
Drafting Opposition and Reply Briefs in the Appellate Context	223

Part 6: Persuasion Through Oral Argument

Chapter 11: Preparing for and Delivering an Oral Argument 227

Purpose of Oral Argument	227
Logistics of an Oral Argument in the Law School Setting	228
Logistics of an Oral Argument in a Courtroom Setting	228
Substantive Preparation for Oral Argument	229
Drafting the Argument Outline	229
Case Law Prompt Sheet	230
Judges' Questions Prompt Sheet	231
Logistical Preparation for an Oral Argument	231
What Else to Bring to an Oral Argument	232
Rebuttal	232
Handling Challenging Aspects of an Oral Argument	233
Mind Going Blank	233
Periodic Stumbles	234
Difficult Questions from the Judges	234
Pausing to Think	235
Ending the Argument	235
Other Oral Argument Tips	235

Part 7: Drafting Persuasive Mediation/Arbitration Papers

Chapter 12: What Is Mediation? 239

Chapter 13: What Is Arbitration? 243

Part 8: Persuasive Writing in the Transactional Context

Chapter 14: Persuasion in Transactional Lawyering 247

Term Sheet 248

Contract Drafts 249

Negotiation Matrix 249

Negotiation Letter 250

Appendices 253

Appendix A: Complaint 255

Appendix B: Answer 263

Appendix C: Converting Benchslaps to Backslaps . . . 267

Appendix D: Sample Motion to Compel and Accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities 289

Appendix E: Sample Opposition to Motion to Compel 299

Appendix F: Sample Motion to Dismiss and Accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities 307

Appendix G: Sample Appellate Brief 321

Appendix H: Sample Mediation Brief 339

Appendix I: Sample Settlement Agreement 347

Appendix J: Sample Oral Argument Outline 351

Index 357