

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Introduction 1
- Chapter One: Origins of the Lawsuit 5
 - A. The Clients Tell Their Story 5
 - 1. The Olmans’ Employment History 5
 - 2. New Management at Full Moon 6
 - 3. Bad News 8
 - 4. The Olmans Respond 9
 - 5. Otis Is Fired 10
 - 6. The Olmans Take Legal Action 10
 - B. Lane’s First Steps 11
 - A Note Concerning: Remedies* 12
 - C. Lane’s Ethical Considerations 14
 - A Note Concerning: Lawyers’ Ethical Responsibilities to Clients* 14
 - D. Financial Considerations 15
 - Task 1.1 18
 - E. Preparing to File Suit 20
 - 1. Investigating the Facts 20
 - 2. Determining the Applicable Law 21
 - a. Sources and Types of Law 21
 - b. Federal Law Applicable to the Olmans’ Dispute 23
 - (1) The Olmans’ Claims for Discriminatory Treatment 23
 - Tactical Tip: List the Elements of Each Potential Claim* 23
 - Task 1.2* 24

(2) Otis’s Claim for Retaliation	24
Task 1.3	25
(3) Federal Law Remedies	25
c. State Law Applicable to the Olmans’ Claims	26
(1) Statutory Claims for Age Discrimination and Retaliation	26
(2) State Common Law Claims	27
Question 1.1	28
Task 1.4	29
F. Final Considerations	29
1. Determining Jurisdiction and Venue	30
2. Determining When to File Suit	30
A Note Concerning: Sources of Procedural Law	31
Chapter Two: Selecting the Locale for Litigation	33
A. Personal Jurisdiction	33
1. Whose Law Governs Personal Jurisdiction?	34
2. Common Bases for Exercising Personal Jurisdiction	35
Question 2.1	36
Question 2.2	38
3. Constitutional Limitations on Personal Jurisdiction	38
Question 2.3	39
B. Service of Process	40
1. The Mechanics of Service	40
2. Waiving Formal Service of Process	42
Question 2.4	43
3. The Constitutionality of Service Methods	43

Chapter Three: Choosing Between State and Federal Court	45
A. Courts and the Judicial Power in the United States	45
1. The Allocation of Judicial Power	45
2. Reasons for Invoking the Federal Courts’ Jurisdiction	46
B. Federal Jurisdiction and Claims Arising Under Federal Law	48
1. Arising Under Jurisdiction	48
Question 3.1	49
2. Supplemental Jurisdiction	50
Question 3.2	51
C. Diversity of Citizenship Jurisdiction	52
Question 3.3	54
D. Removal Jurisdiction	54
Question 3.4	56
Chapter Four: Venue: A Final Decision About the Forum	57
A. Forum Selection and Venue	57
Question 4.1	59
Question 4.2	60
B. Challenging the Plaintiff’s Choice of Venue	60
Chapter Five: Choosing the Law that Governs a Suit	63
A. Choice of Law in Litigation	63
B. State Common Law in Federal Court	64
C. Choosing Which State’s Law to Apply	65
D. The Potential Impact of State Law on “Procedural” Issues	67
Question 5.1	69

Chapter Six: Commencing the Lawsuit	71
A. The Complaint	71
Document: Complaint and Demand for Jury Trial	74
A Drafting Tip: Relying on Form Books or “Model” Complaints	81
B. Lane’s Goals in Drafting the Complaint	81
1. Preparing for the Defendants’ Anticipated Responses	82
Tactical Tip: Alleging the Elements of a Cause of Action	83
2. Preserving the Opportunity to Fully Litigate the Case with a Minimum of Procedural Cost	83
3. Preserving a Client’s Legal Rights	84
4. Pinning Down the Defendants	85
5. Telling a Good Story to the Court, the Defendants, and (Perhaps) the Public	85
6. Complying with a Lawyer’s Ethical Obligations	86
Question 6.1	87
C. Specificity in Pleading	87
D. Filing and Serving the Complaint	88
Chapter Seven: The Opening Defense	89
A. Full Moon Responds to the Complaint	89
1. Pre-Answer Motions	92
a. Power Motions	94
Question 7.1	94
b. Pleading Motions	94
Question 7.2	95
Document: Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss Count Five for Failure to State a Claim and Supporting Memorandum	97
c. Other Possible Motions	99
Question 7.3	100

2. Full Moon’s Answer	101
Question 7.4	101
Question 7.5	103
Document: Answer and Counterclaim of Defendant Full Moon Sports, Inc.	105
B. Belcher’s Belated Response to the Suit	110
Question 7.6	110
Chapter Eight: Prelude to Discovery	111
A. Lane Responds to the Defendants.....	111
Question 8.1	112
Question 8.2	113
B. The Pleadings Are Closed . . . or Are They?.....	113
Question 8.3	114
C. Case Management.....	115
A Note Concerning: Appeals	117
Document: Case Management and Scheduling Order	117
Chapter Nine: The Discovery Process.....	121
A. Preparing for Discovery.....	121
Tactical Tip: Party Autonomy in Discovery	122
Task 9.1	123
B. The Parties Make Their Required Disclosures	123
Tactical Tip: Read the Rules	124
Question 9.1	125
Document: Required Disclosure Statement of Plaintiffs Otis and Fiona Olman	125
Question 9.2	128
C. Discovery Devices: Uses and Disputes	129

1. General Considerations	129
a. Relevance, Proportionality, and Privilege.....	129
A Note Concerning: Common Privileges	131
b. Tools of Discovery.....	132
A Guide to Gathering Information Under the Rules	133
2. Initial Paper Discovery.....	136
a. Lane Begins the Discovery Process.....	136
Task 9.2	137
Document: Plaintiffs' First Request for Production of Documents	139
Tactical Tip: Subpoenaing Non-Parties	141
Task 9.3	143
Document: Plaintiffs' First Set of Interrogatories to Defendant	144
b. Full Moon Responds.....	145
Document: Defendant's Responses and Objections to Plaintiffs' First Request for Production of Documents	147
Document: Defendant's Answers and Objections to Plaintiffs' First Set of Interrogatories	150
c. Lane Reacts.....	152
Tactical Tip: Courts and Discovery Disputes	154
Question 9.3	155
d. The Discovery Dispute Is Resolved	156
Question 9.4	157
3. Depositions.....	159
a. Lane Prepares for Depositions.....	159
A Note Concerning: Corporate Testimony	161
b. A Discovery Controversy	161
c. Preparing Witnesses.....	163

d. Taking a Deposition.....	164
Question 9.5	168
4. The Second Wave of Paper Discovery: Admissions	169
D. Expert Discovery	169
Question 9.6	171
Chapter Ten: Joinder and Amendment	173
A. Structuring Litigation.....	173
1. Otis’s Claims Against Full Moon and Belcher.....	173
Question 10.1	174
Question 10.2	175
2. Fiona’s Claims Against Full Moon.....	176
Question 10.3	176
3. Full Moon’s Counterclaim Against Otis.....	176
Question 10.4	177
Question 10.5	177
B. Lane Considers Whether to Amend the Complaint	178
1. Joining a New Defendant	178
Question 10.6	179
2. Joining an Additional Plaintiff	179
Question 10.7	180
3. Amending the Pleadings: The Importance of Timing	181
a. The Potential Impact of Rules 15 and 16.....	181
b. Beating the Statute of Limitations and Rule 15(c)	183
Question 10.8	184
C. Some Concluding Joinder Issues: What Might Have Been.....	184

1. Impleader.....	184
2. Compulsory Joinder of Parties	185
Question 10.9	187
3. Intervention	187
Question 10.10	188
4. Class Actions.....	188
a. The Prerequisites to Class Certification	189
Question 10.11	191
b. Types of Classes.....	191
Question 10.12	192
Chapter Eleven: Summary Judgment	193
A. Full Moon Moves for Summary Judgment.....	193
B. The Standard for Summary Judgment	193
Question 11.1	195
C. Full Moon’s Grounds for Summary Judgment	196
1. Challenging Fiona’s Suit Based on the Affirmative Defense of Release.....	196
Question 11.2	196
2. Challenging Otis’s Claims that Full Moon Acted with Ageist Motive	196
3. Challenging Otis’s Claim of Retaliation	198
Question 11.3	201
D. Full Moon Seeks Summary Judgment of Otis Olman’s Age Discrimination Claims	201
Tactical Tip: Making the Record	202
Document: Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment and Supporting Memorandum of Law	205
Document: Affidavit of Chloé Michaela	211

Question 11.4	213
E. The Olmans’ Response to Summary Judgment	213
1. Responding to the Liability Release.....	213
2. Responding to Full Moon’s Contention that Otis Was Demoted for Economic Reasons	214
Document: Memorandum in Opposition to Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment	215
Question 11.5	219
F. Judge Goodenough’s Ruling.....	219
Document: Order and Memorandum	220
Question 11.6	222
Chapter Twelve: Trial	223
A. Preparing for Trial.....	223
Tactical Tip: The Importance of Preparation	225
B. The Trial.....	226
1. Structure of a Trial and the Role of Procedure.....	226
The Structure of a Civil Trial	227
2. Selecting a Jury and the Beginning of Trial	227
Task 12.1	229
3. Otis’s Case-in-Chief	230
Question 12.1	232
A Note Concerning: The Jury	233
4. Full Moon’s Case-in-Chief.....	234
Question 12.2	235
5. The Jury Deliberates and Reaches Its Verdict.....	235
Document: Verdict Form	237

C. Post-Trial Matters Before Judge Goodenough	239
Document: Judgment on Jury Verdict	240
Question 12.3	241
Question 12.4	242
Chapter Thirteen: Final Resolution	243
A. Considering Appeal.....	243
1. The Olmans’ Perspective.....	243
2. Full Moon’s Perspective.....	244
Document: Notice of Appeal	247
B. Settlement Negotiations Continue	248
Document: Joint Stipulation to Dismiss with Prejudice	250
Postscript	251
Otis and Fiona Olman	251
Bertie Lurch	251
Sid Shockley	251
Bruce Belcher	251
Eleanor Lane	251
Ramona Quincy	251
Bart Tweedy	252
Appendix	A-1
Characters.....	A-1
Chronology of Key Events.....	A-3
Summary of Legal Claims and Elements.....	A-5
Index	I-1