

Data Privacy Policy

Al Hilal Charity Foundation (1077)

Introduction

The Data Privacy Policy requires all individuals working on behalf of Al Hilal Club Foundation, including Board of Trustees members, executive officials, employees, and volunteers, to maintain the confidentiality of employee, volunteer, and beneficiary data and not share it with others except within a very limited scope, as outlined in the following provisions.

Scope This policy applies to all individuals working on behalf of the Foundation, including members of the Board of Trustees, executive officials, employees, and volunteers.

Data Data includes any public or private information, such as personal data, email addresses, internal correspondence, or any other information provided to the Foundation by beneficiaries, volunteers, or users of any service offered by the Foundation.

Safeguards This policy aims to clarify the procedures for handling data and maintaining its confidentiality within the Foundation. The Foundation shall ensure the following:

- All data related to individuals dealing with the Foundation shall be treated confidentially unless they explicitly consent to its publication.
- No data belonging to individuals dealing with the Foundation shall be shared with any third party without their permission.
- The Foundation shall publish its Data Privacy Policy on its website. If a website is not available, a printed copy shall be made available upon request.
- The Foundation shall maintain a specific privacy policy governing its electronic platforms and websites.

Website Privacy Policy We thank you for visiting the Al Hilal Club Foundation website and are committed to maintaining the confidentiality of your information. Our policy regarding your data is as follows:

- We are committed to protecting the rights of all visitors and users of the website and maintaining the confidentiality of their information.

- No personal information is collected from visitors unless they voluntarily consent to provide it.
- Information registered on the website may be used for surveys and feedback purposes to improve the website and provide visitors with a better user experience.
- In exceptional cases, such as legal proceedings or investigations, information may be accessed by authorized employees, regulatory authorities, or any party legally entitled to review such information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
- This Privacy Policy applies to all services and transactions conducted through the website unless a specific service or transaction is subject to a separate privacy policy.
- Due to the continuous advancement of technology and changes in laws governing electronic activities, the website reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy at any time it deems appropriate. Such amendments will be published on this page, and visitors will be notified of any material changes affecting the protection of personal data.

