

HOW DOES OUTSOURCED ACCOUNTING & FINANCE WORK?

There are different types of outsourcing your financial operations, from basic bookkeeping to a full-service accounting and finance solution.

Managed Financial Solutions
(Full-service accounting & finance department)

- Real-time accounting, financial planning and analysis plus back-office support
- Team-based approach to service – process and roles are critical to controlling costs
- Value proposition = proactive ongoing financial and business guidance

Client Accounting/
Bookkeeping

- Routine bookkeeping and financial statement cleanup
- Individual contributor execution with little ability to leverage rates and control costs
- Value proposition = financial statement or tax return deliverables

Scalable Solution
as Your Business Grows

As your business grows, so does the complexity of your accounting needs. Hiring in-house talent—especially employees that can stretch beyond the transactional work to manage accounting systems, cash flow and profitability—is expensive.

Scalable Team
& Expertise

That's where Managed Financial Solutions comes in. Outsourcing your accounting needs to a dedicated team means your financial operations are handled and your risks are managed, and you have the time and energy to focus on your business.

Scalable
Technology

With the use of leading-edge technology, you can close your books quicker and access real-time reporting. You'll gain visibility into your financial health with access to financial data and records anytime, anywhere.

Outsourced Accounting and Finance firms offer different varieties of services. Some provide basic bookkeeping, while others provide advanced financial reporting and advisory services. It's important to compare the solutions and find the best option for your business.

If you are thinking about finance and accounting outsourcing, schedule an appointment with an expert today to see how we can help you:

- ✓ Choose the right solution that fits your business needs
- ✓ Save thousands of dollars annually on accounting costs
- ✓ Spend more time on growing your business
