

Future Leaders of CSH Summer Leadership Conference

You're thinking about your career—your future. As a student interested in business, you have a lot of options on your horizon. But how do you know which path is right for you?

Whether your passion lies in accounting, finance, data analytics, business management, information systems, operations, or another business field, Clark Schaefer Hackett's 2025 Summer Leadership Conference can help you start to answer these questions and learn more about yourself.

Exciting Kickoff Event

Join us for an unforgettable experience that starts with an informal evening reception at Great American Ball Park on Tuesday, June 3, 2025. The following day, Wednesday, June 4, 2025 you'll participate in networking, training, and discussions at Clark Schaefer Hackett. You will gain valuable perspectives on the business world and environment, tailored to support your career goals and future success.

What's in It for You?

- Explore Career Paths: Discover the diverse specialties and career options available across the business field.
- Build Your Network: Connect with professionals who have been where you are now, as well as fellow students who share your ambitions.
- Develop Leadership Skills: Learn techniques to enhance your leadership abilities and understand the importance of strong relationships in business.

Requirements

- ✓ Preferred: Accounting or finance majors
- ✓ Considered: Other business majors
- ✓ GPA: Minimum 3.0
- ✓ Graduation Years: 2027 or 2028

Application Details

- Applications Open: January 6th - Please use the QR code below to locate the application on our careers page.
- Applications Close: April 11th or when all spots are filled.
- Contact: Brooke Moeves at BHMoeves@cshco.com for more information.

Ready to Lead?

Submit your application starting in January 2025. For updates on the event dates, follow us on social media or visit our website!

