

BOARD POLICY MANUAL

FEBRUARY 11, 2004

AMENDED MAY 3, 2023

AND NOVEMBER 6, 2024

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of TELUS Corporation (the “Company”) is responsible for the stewardship of the Company and overseeing the management of the Company’s business and affairs. The Board has statutory obligations to act in the best interests of the Company, and in doing so, shall consider the interests of all affected stakeholders.

The Board is committed to ensuring it can exercise judgment independently of management and strives to adopt sound and effective practices in corporate governance in order to enhance shareholder value.

The Board Policy Manual is meant as a guideline for the Board and contains terms of reference for each committee.

Its purpose is to:

- establish an effective corporate governance system that reflects appropriate best practices in corporate governance;
- set out expectations of the Board, individual directors and committees of the Board which go beyond legal requirements;
- assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities in the most effective manner possible; and
- reinforce and facilitate the independence of the Board from management.

The Board Policy Manual consists of the following:
