MEET THE ARTISTS

ALEX MAES

Alex Maes is a songwriter, performer, producer, recording engineer, and visionary creative director. As a solo performer and front-woman for Alex Maes and The Connection, she continues to shape contemporary music by embodying creativity, innovation, and artistry in the music industry. Her journey into production and recording earned her national acclaim and prestigious awards, showcasing her prowess and innovation within the studio. Based in Los Angeles, Alex actively collaborates with fellow musicians, breathing life into their musical visions, all while pursuing her own endeavors in performance and music creation.

AIIDA FRANTZEN

Aiida is a singer-songwriter from Oslo, Norway. Inspired by Aretha Franklin, Dagny, Robyn, and Dua Lipa, she prioritizes femininity and lyrics in her music. With powerhouse vocals and performances filled with energetic arrangements and rhinestones, Aiida knows how to excite a crowd and leave them wanting more. Her music has been featured on Spotify's Fresh Finds, New Music Friday Norway, and GRL PWR playlists. In 2022, this pop comet performed at Lollapalooza in Chicago, IL, Oslo Pride in Norway, and Washashore Music Festival, the LGBTQ+ music festival in Provincetown, MA.

TED BORDEAU

Ted Bordeaux is an L.A. based singer, songwriter and keyboardist. He is an old soul whose music harkens back to the pop sounds of the 60s, 70s and 80s while maintaining a modern sensibility. From tender ballads to raucous rockers, Bordeaux delivers a one-man show that is sure to excite!

SHAUNA MADINAH

As a former backup singer for Shania Twain, Shauna also sang lead vocals in the Sony animated film "The Swan Princess Christmas" in 2012. She wrote, produced, and sang the EDM-style music of the international fitness craze "Piloxing," which has been featured on "The Steve Harvey Show," "Good Morning LA," and many other daytime shows. Her music has even attracted the recognition of world leaders such as Nelson Mandela who featured her music at his birthday party in the Vodacom Stadium in South Africa.

KATHERINE NERRO

Katherine Nerro is a dynamic pop, R&B, and soul singer, songwriter, and performer, known for her powerful voice and commanding stage presence. Her journey in music began at the age of 11 when she joined an all-female performance group, where she showcased her singing, dancing, and performing talents at festivals, professional sports games, and theaters across her home state, Florida. Her musical influences include iconic 90s female artists such as Mariah Carey, Destiny's Child, Whitney Houston, Alicia Keys, Brandy and Lauryn Hill as well as contemporary stars including Ariana Grande and Adele. Katherine has also performed at some of the most iconic venues in Los Angeles including the Hollywood Bowl, The Los Angeles Coliseum, The Moroccan Lounge, The El Rey Theater, and The Echo.
