

WHY COLLEGE STUDENTS SHOULD USE SELF STORAGE

As a college student, there are plenty of reasons why you might need storage. Here are the most common reasons college students can benefit from self storage!

GET MORE SPACE IN DORMS

Dorm rooms are notoriously low on space, so make the most of what you have by keeping items you don't need all the time in a storage unit.

SAVE MONEY ON MOVING

Moving trucks are often expensive, but storage units offer an affordable, long-term solution to hauling things back and forth between home and college over and over.

STOW AWAY SEASONAL ITEMS

There's no sense in cluttering your limited space with winter clothes, holiday decor, and other seasonal items all year. A storage unit keeps them out of the way until they're needed.

SECURE YOUR VALUABLES

If you're worried about protecting valuable belongings in communal spaces like dorms, storage units can provide a secure, convenient place to keep these items safe.

STORE ITEMS WHILE ABROAD

Renting a storage unit to keep dorm room belongings close to campus while you're studying abroad is more convenient and cost-effective than bringing everything with you.

AVOID PRICEY PARKING FEES

Have a personal vehicle that you use occasionally but don't want to pay for parking? Rent an affordable vehicle storage unit at a nearby storage facility instead!
