Membership of the Committee expires if the relevant person ceases to be a Stanwell director.

Any director may at any time attend a Committee meeting, but will not be entitled to vote.

Quorum

Two (2) Committee members are required to be present to constitute a quorum.

Committee Secretary

The Company Secretary (or his/her delegate) will be the Committee Secretary.

The Committee Secretary will be responsible for:

- the preparation and circulation of meeting agenda.
- minuting Committee proceedings in consultation with the Committee Chair.
- recording any action items arising from the meeting.
- general administrative coordination of the Committee's activities.

4.0 COMMITTEE AUTHORITY

The Committee is authorised by the Board to investigate any activity that falls within the scope of this Charter. In this regards it is authorised to:

- investigate any matter within its area of responsibility; and
- seek information from any director, officer or employee of Stanwell or any company in the Stanwell Group, or from any officer, agent or representative of any of them.

The Committee is authorised with prior approval of the Chair or the Chair Audit and Risk Management Committee if the Chair is conflicted, to obtain independent external professional advice at Stanwell's expense.

The Committee is authorised to secure the attendance of external parties with relevant experience and expertise if it considers it necessary.

Except as specifically set out in this Charter or in a Board-approved policy, the Committee has no delegated authority to approve matters referred to it, nor does it have any executive power to implement its recommendations or findings.

5.0 COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Meetings

Committee meetings will be held at such times, and deal with such issues, as are agreed by the Committee in order to discharge its roles and responsibilities. The Committee Chair may call additional meetings as he/she deems appropriate. The Committee Chair must call a meeting if requested to do so by the Board to consider a matter. An annual meeting schedule for regular Committee meetings is to be approved in advance by the Committee.

Meetings must be conducted on a formal basis and be effectively minuted.

To the extent not specifically set out in this Charter, the rules and procedures adopted by the Stanwell Board in respect of Board meetings will be used in Committee meetings.

Agendas

The Committee Chair, Chief Executive Officer and the Committee Secretary are responsible for ensuring that the Committee considers in a timely way matters within the scope of this Charter.

The Committee Chair and the Committee Secretary are responsible for finalising each meeting agenda. Agendas and papers must be distributed to all Committee Members at least five (5) working days prior to a meeting.

Minutes

The Committee Secretary is responsible for keeping the minutes of the meeting.

Minutes (or draft minutes if not yet confirmed) of Committee meetings will be submitted to the next meeting of the Board.

Reporting by Committee Chair

The Committee Chair must give a summary report (including the decisions and recommendations) of each Committee meeting at the next Stanwell Board Meeting.

Attendees at Committee meetings

Stanwell staff may be required to attend Committee meetings (in whole or in part) on a regular basis or from time to time.

Conflicts

Committee members must comply with Board and Stanwell policies in relation to management of conflicts of interest.

Public comment

Public comment on matters relative to activities of the Committee is to be carried out as delegated in Board policies. Unless authorised pursuant to such policies or unless specifically approved by the Board, Committee Members may not make public comment on Committee activities and decisions.

6.0 ANNUAL REPORT OF COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES; COMMITTEE EVALUATION

Annually, the Committee Chair will provide a verbal report to a Board meeting in respect of committee activities for the past year, together with any recommendations for improving Committee performance, including any recommended changes in respect of this Charter. Should any changes to this Charter become necessary from Committee's viewpoint at any time, such changes will be put to the Board for consideration at its next meeting.

The Committee will participate in any evaluation of Board or committee performance, as required by the Board.
