COURSE RATIONALE, PROFILE & OUTCOMES

The Graduate Certificate in Greek Philosophy is designed for those holding an AQF Level 7 undergraduate degree in any field who wish to acquire focused, transferable knowledge and skills in the study of Greek philosophical thought as part of their continuing professional development or preparation for further learning. Through a coherent program engaging the key figures, texts, and ideas of the ancient and Byzantine philosophical traditions, the award introduces and cultivates critical and analytical abilities and provides an ideal pathway to further postgraduate study in philosophy, theology, or the humanities.

The Graduate Certificate in Greek Philosophy focuses on cultivating the capacity to engage critically with the key figures, texts, and ideas of the ancient and Byzantine Greek philosophical tradition, equipping graduates to apply these insights in further study, education, ministry, or other cultural and professional contexts.

Knowledge
Graduates will:

- demonstrate specialised and advance theoretical and technical knowledge of ancient and Byzantine Greek philosophy, including its principal figures, texts, and concepts, and its influence on later philosophical and theological traditions.

Skills
Graduates will demonstrate specialised cognitive and technical skills in Greek philosophy so that they are able independently to:

- critically analyse and interpret primary philosophical texts and arguments;
- evaluate and synthesise complex philosophical ideas across diverse schools and periods;
- formulate, substantiate and communicate well-reasoned responses to philosophical and interdisciplinary questions.

Applications of Knowledge and Skills
Graduates will have the ability to:

- apply their knowledge and skills with autonomy, well-developed judgement, adaptability, and responsibility in academic, educational, cultural, or related professional contexts.

ARTICULATION TO OTHER AWARDS

Students who satisfactorily complete this award will be eligible to:

- be admitted to the Master of Greek Philosophy.
- articulate with full credit to the Australian University College of Divinity Graduate Diploma of Greek Philosophy on condition that the Graduate Certificate in Greek Philosophy will be surrendered prior to graduation in the further award.
- articulate to other Australian University College of Divinity Graduate awards, provided that they meet the entry requirements of that award.

EXIT AWARDS
