OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Theology degree is a primary qualification in theology and is the basis for further study at postgraduate level. It is a broad course combining both theological and practical studies.

Admission into this course is open to all suitably qualified applicants, male and female. After satisfying the requirements of the Bachelor of Theology, students may be eligible to complete a postgraduate course of study advised by the Faculty Board.

Part-time study is available, although priority of placement is given to prospective full-time students during the admissions process.

RATIONALE

Given the distinctive theological ethos and character of Eastern Christianity, the aim of the College's educational program is to integrate spirituality, faith and academic excellence. Consequently, St Andrew's is not a secular institution. The mind, the heart and the soul are to be nurtured: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself" (Luke 10:27).

In the spirit of Orthodox Christianity, educational growth is inseparably bound to the values, spirit and experience of the faith. As such, St Andrew's is concerned with the spiritual and moral development of the students. The theologian is the one who struggles not only to gain a deep understanding of the faith but also lives this faith with all its powers and practical applications.

St Andrew's aspires to promote a student's potential towards excellence. The College is concerned with the advancement of Eastern Orthodox Christian thought and life. Through research, publications and ecumenical encounters, it seeks to provide sound theological reflection on vital issues facing the Church. It has always envisioned itself to be a place and source of renewal and continuing education for those already engaged in ministry. It is dedicated to the task of helping those aspiring to fulfil their calling in various ministries in the midst of the complexities and responsibilities of this post-modern era. Furthermore, given our own sceptical and secular age, which has attempted to demythologise and trivialise the most fundamental elements of the faith, one aspect of the College's academic thrust is to demonstrate the historical certainty upon which the Church's faith is grounded. In this particular endeavour, St Andrew's does not hesitate to employ contemporary historical and analytical forms of inquiry.

NATURE OF THE PROGRAM

The primary aim of St Andrew's is to train and educate priests, theologians and theologically literate volunteers and co-workers for Greek Orthodox Parishes and Communities throughout Australia, as well as to train and educate those who serve, or will serve, within the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Australia, and, more broadly, within the jurisdictions of local canonical hierarchs who belong to the Episcopal Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of Oceania.

It should be noted that an emphasis on the discipline of 'Theology' is due to the significance which Orthodoxy places upon the Church Fathers and their understanding of Holy Scripture. As an essential and universal dimension of Orthodox theological endeavour, Patristic Theology constitutes an additional field in the discipline of 'Theology', owing to its interrelationship and interaction with Systematic Theology. In this offering, St Andrew's becomes distinctive among member institutions of the AUCD.

COURSE OUTCOMES

Knowledge

Graduates will have a broad and coherent body of knowledge in Theology, Biblical Studies, and one other discipline or area of practice, that will form the basis for independent lifelong learning.

Skills

Graduates will have cognitive, communication, and technical skills in a theology-related body of knowledge, so that they are able to:

- review, reflect on, and synthesize theological information and identify and provide solutions to complex problems
- think critically and generate and evaluate complex ideas
- demonstrate an understanding of theoretical theological concepts
- communicate theologically related knowledge, skills and ideas clearly and coherently

Applications of Knowledge and Skills

Graduates will have the ability to:

- demonstrate an understanding of theological knowledge by applying it creatively in Christian ministry
- make high level, independent judgments in a range of ministry settings
- initiate, plan, and implement activities and projects within a range of ministry settings

COURSE STRUCTURE

1. Completion of 216 credit points (i.e., 24 units) including three sub-major sequences:
 - a. Biblical Studies
 - b. Systematic Theology
 - c. Church History
2. At least one of these sub-majors shall be extended to a major, namely Systematic Theology.
3. A second major may be completed in the disciplines of Biblical Studies or Christian Life and Ministry, or in the sub-discipline of Church History.
4. A major in a sub-discipline requires 54 credit points from the sub-discipline, with not more than 18 credit points from 7100 series units. Under certain provisions (see clause 7 below), up to 36 credit points from 8100 and 9200 series units may be included.
5. A major in a discipline requires 54 credit points from the discipline, with at least 27 credit points in one sub-discipline, with not more than 18 credit points from 7100 series units. Under certain provisions (see clause 7 below), up to 36 credit points from 8100 and 9200 series units may be included.
6. A sub-major requires 36 credit points from units assigned to the major including no more than 18 credit points from 7100 series units.
7. Candidates who have completed 108 credit points towards the Bachelor of Theology may select up to 36 credit points from the Schedule of 8100 and 9200 series units. Within these units, a candidate can only select up to 18 credit points of 9200 series units provided they have already completed at least a sub-major in that sub-discipline with a Grade Point Average of at least 2.0.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. The Student Support and Administration Committee of the Australian University College of Divinity, at the recommendation of St Andrew's, may grant leave of absence from the Bachelor of Theology. The period of leave shall not be counted as part of the period of candidature for the Bachelor.
2. The period of leave shall normally be one semester after which a candidate may apply for a further period of one semester or else be required to complete their candidature.

CREDIT FOR PREVIOUS OR CONCURRENT STUDY

1. Credit may be granted in units for comparable work completed or concurrently being undertaken at an approved level at any recognised tertiary institution, to a maximum of 144 credit points. Applications for credit must include an authorised transcript of the studies undertaken and the official description of units completed at the other institutions.
2. Credit is determined by the Student Administration Committee of the AUCD and is subject to its final approval.
3. Receipt of credit for previous or concurrent study does not normally exempt a student from completing the compulsory requirements of St Andrew's unless such exemption is approved by the Faculty Board.

EXTERNAL STUDIES

The requirements of specific units in majors and sub-majors may also be fulfilled if a student undertakes an equivalent unit at another member institution of the AUCD or at a university or recognised tertiary institution via cross-institutional study after consultation with the Registrar and subject to Faculty Board approval.

EXIT POINTS

Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Theology may exit with a Diploma of Christian Studies (DipChSt) or an Associate Degree of Theology and Ministry (AssocDegThMin) provided they have met the requirements of these awards.

DELIVERY OF UNITS

1. Units are offered by weekly lectures during each semester. Please consult the Timetable page on the website.
2. Units are offered via distance education (online) within the parameters of the two regular semesters.
