- 4.7. All Exotic Bets shall be accepted as per Betting Types.
- 4.8. The default Tote pool and dividends for all exotic bets is Victoria unless one of the other Tote pools is available to you in our Betting Platform and selected by you when you place your bet. For certain bet types (eg. quadrellas) and races there is no option to select a Tote pool other than Victoria.
- 4.9. The default Tote for exotic betting may, where our Betting Platform allows it, be overridden by selecting it in our Betting Platform at the time you place your bet.

- 4.10. The Tote pool displayed to you when you place a particular bet overrides the default Tote set by you in the My Account section of our Betting Platform. If the Queensland or NSW Tote is set as your default Tote for exotic betting, where that Tote is not offered by us, the Victorian Tote declared pool and dividend will apply subject to our maximum betting payouts.
- 4.11. When the relevant Tote does not declare a dividend on the correct official finishing order, (either by way of a consolation dividend or jackpot), we will derive and declare a dividend that applies to the official finishing order only. All other combinations will be deemed losers.
- 4.12. For Australian racing, in the event that races or bet types are not covered by all three Australian Totes, or when dividends (other than for the Place) are declared by less than the three Australian Totes, the payout will exceed at least one Australian Totes.
- 4.13. In the event that there is no dividend declared for any Exotic Bet (Quinellas, Exactas, Trifetas, First Fours and Quadrellas) by the nominated Tote the maximum payout for that bet type will be limited to the pool size of the nominated Tote. In these circumstances the dividend will be the pool size divided by the number of successful $1 units held by us and subject to our maximum betting payout limits. In the event that the successful number of units is less than $1 then the maximum payout will be the pool size of the nominated Tote. Where the player's stake is larger than the pool size, the player will receive their stake back rather than the pool.
- 4.14. If a fixed odds exotic bet has been accepted and a runner that is not in the bet selection is scratched from the field, then a successful exotic bet will be paid at the Victorian tote dividend.

5. MULTI BETS

- 5.1. A multi bet may include both All-in and final field legs. In the event that a final field leg is scratched the multi bet will stand but will be subject to deductions as per the Schedule of Deductions. If a leg that was "All-In" does not start, the multi bet will be resulted as a losing bet.
- 5.2. Contrary to rule 3.12 of the General Betting Rules, multi bets that include the same runner in separate races are allowed at reduced odds.

6. SCRATCHING

- 6.1. Unless otherwise stated, in the event that a horse or greyhound is scratched from a race:

7.2. The deduction rate shall be applied based on the fixed odds of the scratched runner at the time of the scratching.

7.3. The deduction shall be applied as follows:

7.3.1. The deduction rate shall be applied to the face value of the bet.

- 8.2. The win limit is the maximum amount that can be won by one player (i.e. player return less player bet cost) per bet type, per race, for all winning bets. For PLACE bet win limits, the win limit is the maximum amount that can be won on each place-getter, per race, per player.

- 8.5. It is the responsibility of each account holder to be aware of the limits expressed herein, and we shall not be in any way responsible for communicating such limits in any other form or via any other medium at the time that the wager(s) is placed.
- 8.6. The limits stipulated herein are open to upwards negotiation at our sole discretion. Any player requesting a review of these limits, must apply in writing to us and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the win limit increase application process.

- 8.7. Without prior negotiation, the maximum win payable to any one player, per bet type (or per individual place-getter in the case of PLACE bets), per race, for all winning bets, shall be limited to:

A racing carnival shall include a series of race meetings as approved by the relevant racing authority. Betting on the Jockey Challenge is win only. In the case of 2 or more jockeys finishing the day on the same amount of points, dead heat rules apply. This is regardless of the number of outright winners ridden by either of those jockeys.
- 15.2. Prior to commencement of betting, we will prepare a list of jockeys and opening prices. The list will include an "any other" price option to cover any jockey who is not included in the original list. At all times the "any other" option shall be treated as one entity.
- 15.3. If any individual jockey in the market does not complete at least one ride for the meeting, all wagers on the Jockey Challenge for that meeting will be cancelled and monies refunded.
- 15.4. For wagers on any Jockey Challenge to stand, all races scheduled for the race meeting must be run and correct weight declared. If the meeting is postponed, abandoned, or any race is declared a "no-race" by the Stewards, all wagers on the Jockey Challenge for that meeting will be cancelled and the monies refunded unless there is an unassailable leader in which case all bets will stand.
- 15.5. No points shall be allocated in relation to a race scheduled to be conducted at a race meeting if that race is postponed to another race meeting, abandoned or declared a no race by the Stewards on the day of the race meeting.

 - 3 points for a winning ride
 - 2 points for a second placed ride
 - 1 point for a third placed ride

15.6.1. Points will only be allocated to the jockey(s) who actually ride the winning or placed horse(s) in a race. Points will not be allocated to any rider who may have been engaged to ride a horse but was subsequently replaced by permission or direction of the Stewards.

15.11. Payment will be declared at the end of each race meeting or carnival, unless otherwise directed by the Stewards.

15.12. Any matter in respect to a Jockey Challenge at a race meeting or a racing carnival not provided for in these Rules shall be determined by the Chairman of Racing NSW stewards.

16. FAVOURITE VS THE FIELD

16.1. 'Favourite Versus the Field' bets are available on selected races. The designated favourite in the Favourite versus the Field is the favourite nominated by us and may not necessarily be the prevailing favourite.

16.2. If the nominated favourite is scratched then all wagers are void and will be refunded. "The field" comprises all other runners apart from the nominated favourite. If there is a scratching from "The Field", then all bets stand, but are subject to deductions. In the event of a dead heat, the Dead Heat rule applies.

16.3. The price may be fixed. If there is a '*' next to the price, this indicates that the price is subject to change or yet to be determined.

17. PICK YOUR OWN ODDS (PYOO)

21. USA RACING – FIXED ODDS

- 21.1. For all USA racing where fixed pricing is offered, the starting price is the last fixed odds offered by us on that race. If we do not offer fixed odds on that race, the final dividend will be paid based on the US Tote dividend provided by EasyGate.

- 22.1.1. USA Tote Win
 - 22.1.2. USA Tote Place
 - 22.1.3. Exotics bets including Exacta and Trifecta
- 22.2. USA Tote Place bets are settled to the USA Tote show pool. All bets wagered on show markets are refunded where the number of betting interests has been reduced to less than eight (8).
- 22.3. Bets are settled using the odds as declared by the US tracks (via EasyGate) as the official results. All odds and potential dividends displayed on our site prior to a race starting are for guidance only and are provided to us by the racetracks via EasyGate. Where EasyGate do not declare an Exotic dividend, successful Exotic bets will be settled as followed:
- 22.3.1. A successful Exacta dividend will be calculated by multiplying the Win dividend of the winner (declared by EasyGate) by the Place dividend of the 2nd placed runner (declared by EasyGate).
 - 22.3.2. A successful Trifecta dividend will be calculated by multiplying the Win dividend of the winner (declared by EasyGate) by the Place dividend of the 2nd placed runner (declared by EasyGate) by the Place dividend for the 3rd placed runner (declared by EasyGate).
- 22.4. Bet types on individual races are only accepted where they are made available by the relevant track and for which the appropriate betting pool has been opened via EasyGate.
- 22.5. Stakes are refunded on any race declared a “no contest” by the relevant US track. A simple rule is that when there is a dividend for a bet type declared - then you’re on!
- 22.6. Stakes are refunded on certain pool bet types when the amount of runners in a race is less than four.
- 22.7. Track odds are paid upon results as declared by the US Host Track (via EasyGate).
- 22.8. All monies wagered on races are refunded where races have insufficient wagering interests remaining to fulfil the requirements of the bet type due to scratched (non-runners) entrants. See Rule 21.2 above. That is:
- 22.8.1. For Win pools and Exacta pools offered in contests where the number of betting interests has been reduced to less than two (2).

- 22.8.2. For Quinella pools and Trifecta pools offered in contests where the number of betting interests has been reduced to fewer than three (3).
- 22.9. The US Host Track's rules apply, and can be found at <http://arcicom.businesscatalyst.com/members.html>.
- 22.10. The US Host Track's settlement rules apply in regard to non-runners, refunds and consolations. These include:
- 22.10.1. Stakes are refunded on Win and Place wagering where the selection(s) is scratched (non-runner).
- 22.10.2. Stakes are refunded on Exacta, Quinella and Trifecta wagers that include a scratched (non-runner) selection. In boxed (combination) wagers on these bet types, refunds are made on all elements of the multiple wager incorporating the scratched selection(s) and wagers stand on elements of multiple wagers devoid of scratched selection(s).
- 22.11. The individual US Host Track settlement rules apply in regard to coupled and mutual fields selections. Coupled and mutual fields selections in the US are treated as a single wagering entry in ALL pools. Where any contestant in a coupled entry or mutual field is officially withdrawn or scratched, the remaining contestants in that coupled entry or mutual field remain valid betting interests. If all contestants within a coupled entry or mutual field are scratched, then tickets on such betting interests are refunded, notwithstanding other provisions of these rules.
- 22.12. Bets are accepted up to the closure of wagering at the US Host Track.
- 22.13. Coupling arrangements do not apply where a fixed price (or Industry SP) is taken on any US racing. Bets are settled based on the published result from the US Host Track.
