What is a complaint?

A complaint is any contact from, or on behalf of, a customer or potential customer who is not satisfied with any part of our service. We don't respond to mass lobbying campaigns as it affects the overall service our customers expect from us.

Resolving your complaint

If you're unhappy with our service, we're sorry and we'd like to put it right. Our customer service team is here to put things right for you as soon as possible. If they can't, they'll connect you with a Complaints Manager, who will look after you until everything is sorted. In order to make things easy for you, your Complaints Manager will let you know how long it should take to resolve your complaint and will agree how and when you'll be updated. The resolution of your complaint might include actions to put our mistake right, an apology, explanation or compensation.

If we've not resolved your complaint within 8 weeks, we'll write to you.

Still not happy?

You may also have the right to refer your complaint to a dispute resolution service known as the Utilities ADR, a free and independent service. ADR is there to resolve disputes between consumers and energy companies that have not been resolved within 8 weeks, or after we have sent you a Final Resolution Offer Letter (also known as a deadlock letter). This letter describes what we can do to resolve your complaint.
