Hi [REDACTED],

Please see email from our accountant below with regards to the latest share issue which has now been executed.

As indicated previously this issue has no impact on the % shareholding of any investors which remain exactly as submitted in our license application.

I hope this is clear, do let me know if you need anything else

Best regards

Hi [REDACTED]

As per your instruction on Wednesday 19th August we have now issued a further 2,499 shares in the company – please find attached the updated shareholders information which shows the shares for each shareholder.

For the latest share round – because the share premium was different to the earlier share issues, these latest issues are shown separately.

Please do not hesitate to contact us should you have any queries,

Kind regards
