

From Quoting to Delivery: Transform Your Dealership with End-to-End Automation

Discover how Aptean Equipment ERP software can help streamline your operations and boost efficiency.

With industry-specific enterprise resource planning (ERP) software, you can automate critical processes, centralize data and ditch inefficient pen-and-paper and excel spreadsheet workflows. Automation streamlines operations, significantly minimizes errors and reduces administrative costs.

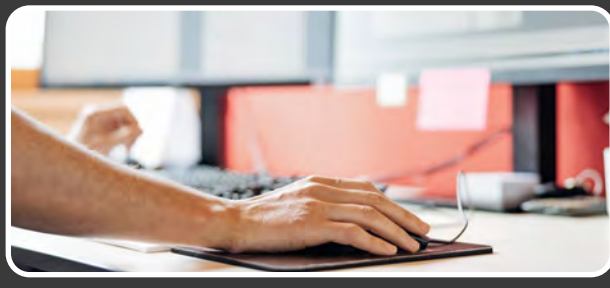

Streamlined Quoting and Pricing Process

Sales staff can quickly generate accurate quotes with real-time pricing, significantly reducing errors and speeding up the sales process.

Accurate Profitability Estimates

The sales management team can gain clear visibility into margins and costs, enabling them to set competitive rates while maintaining profitability.

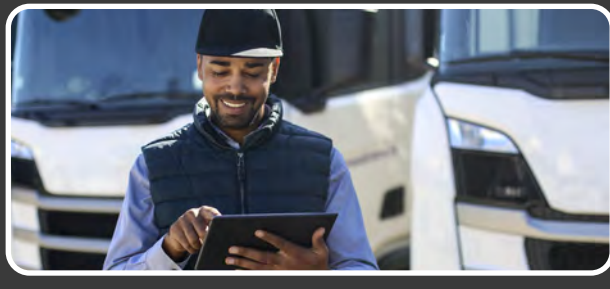

Efficient Order Conversion

Sales staff can effortlessly convert quotes into orders with a single click, saving time and ensuring data accuracy.

Seamless Receiving and Processing

Warehouse and inventory managers can leverage real-time data to efficiently track assets.

Optimized Delivery Scheduling

Logistics staff can easily schedule pickups and shipments, optimize routes ensuring timely deliveries and minimizing travel costs.

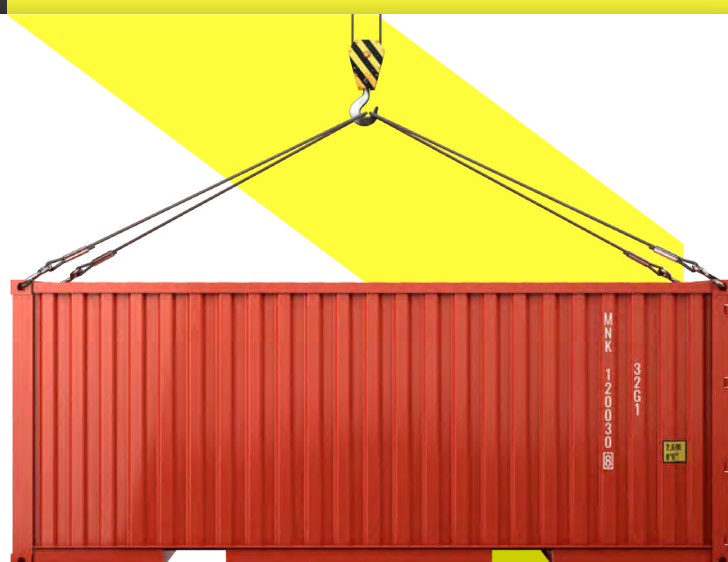

Post-Sale and Beyond

Customer Service can automate follow-up tasks, such as warranty registration and service reminders, enhancing client satisfaction and retention.

Aptean Equipment ERP Helps Manage Your Business from Dock to Delivery

An industry-specific ERP provides your equipment dealership with a unified platform that seamlessly connects your entire organization and processes. Our software allows you to efficiently manage your equipment lifecycle with increased visibility from the time machinery and parts land on your dock, until products are delivered to your customers.

“With Aptean Equipment ERP and Microsoft Dynamics, we have full assurance that our investment can be leveraged for as many years as we need it.”
