How are Manufacturers Tackling Digital Transformation?

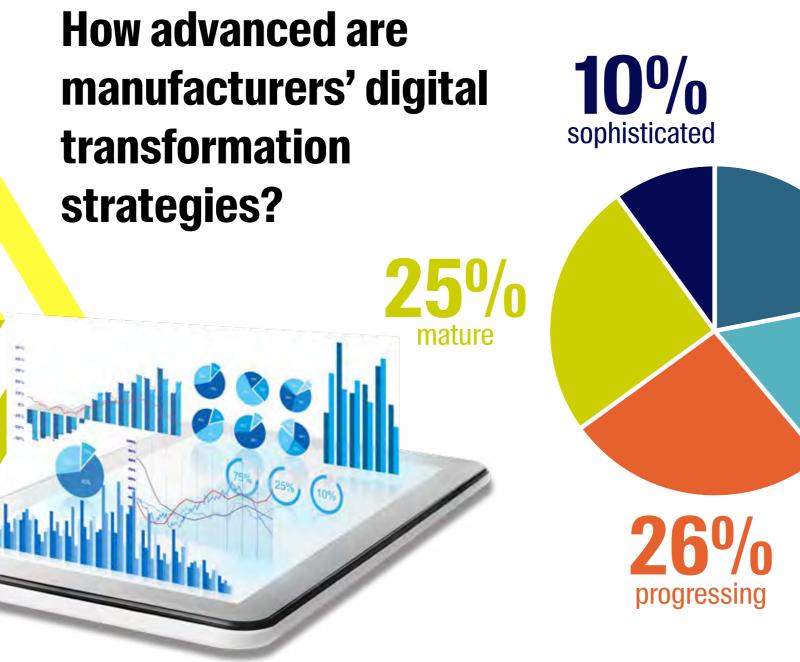

Digital transformation is a high priority for manufacturers. But how quickly are organizations embracing change – and which business areas are they automating first? Scroll to learn more ≽

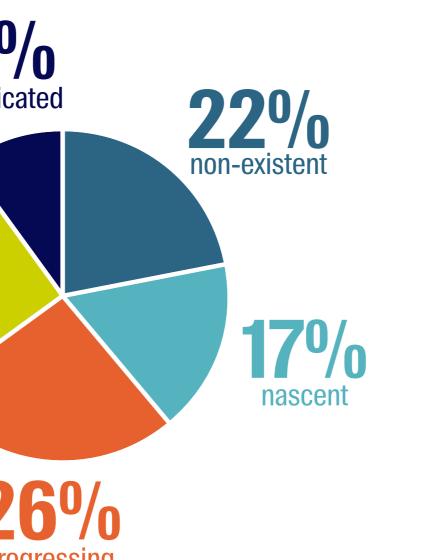

Automation is underway

560/0 of North American manufacturers have a roadmap in place for digital transformation

20/0 of organizations say they are quick adopt new technologies

Closing data gaps

Insight is a major obstacle for many manufacturers: 64% admit to having significant gaps in their business data.

What business areas have manufacturers already automated?

50% creating bill of materials/calculating recipes and formulas

 480_0 tracing product components/ingredients

 $46^{0}/_{0}$ quoting and estimating

45% managing production processes and production volumes

45% analyzing and managing profit margin

Digitization drives prosperity

Manufacturers that have completed digital transformation projects are 57% more likely to be prospering financially than those that haven't.

Top 5 benefits of digital transformation – as rated by manufacturers:

Quicker speed of production

2 More productive employees

3 Greater flexibility

4 Lower operational costs

5. Improved product quality and consistency

Innovate your business with Aptean Manufacturing ERP

See more, make more, earn more: our ERP software empowers organizations to make smarter operational and strategic decisions using real-time insights.

Accelerate your digital transformation strategy with Aptean Manufacturing ERP.

Book Your Free ERP Demo

aptean Ready for What's Next, Now®