

Loïc Tassel

President,
Europe Selling & Market Operations

Loïc Tassel leads P&G’s business across 57 countries in Europe, serving more than 850 million consumers. He is responsible for nearly a quarter of company sales and profit and one-third of P&G’s global workforce, operating across 33 P&G manufacturing sites and four global Research & Development centers in the region.

Loïc leverages his knowledge of consumers, customers, competitors and the dynamic retail environment to lead P&G’s rapidly growing e-commerce business in the region, and to drive new models of responsible and sustainable consumption in Europe across the company’s operations, products and packaging.

Since joining P&G in 1988 as an assistant brand manager in France, Loïc has spent his career developing winning organizations, building global brands and growing businesses across P&G’s brand portfolio and global operations. Prior to his current role, Loïc served as vice president for Shave Care in Europe and India, Middle East and Africa, leading one of P&G’s biggest businesses worth more than $2.5 billion in revenue across 135 countries.
