As such, AFEX suggests that Client should group payments appropriately to ensure that high- priority items are remitted first.  - 1.40.2. Disputes the validity or existence of an Order;

2. CONDUCTING BUSINESS WITH AFEX

- 2.1. Agreement. This Agreement shall apply to any and all Orders. The specific transactional details of each Order will be agreed upon and will be as set out in a Confirmation. For the avoidance of doubt, each order for which AFEX issues a Confirmation will constitute an independent contract, governed by the terms of the Agreement.
- 2.2. Provision of Services. Where any of the Services involve the conversion of amounts from one currency into another currency and the remittance of funds to the designated Beneficiary, AFEX will provide such Services as principal.
- 2.3. Applicability of the Regulations to Corporates that are not Micro-Enterprises

2.3.1. This Clause only applies to Corporates that are not Micro-Enterprises.

2.3.2. The Parties acknowledge and agree that Part 3 and Regulations 86(1) and 86(2), 88(5) and 88(6), 96, 98, 101, 104, 112(1) to (13), and 112(21) of the Regulations do not apply to this Agreement.

2.3.3. In the event that the Client becomes a Micro-Enterprise, the Client shall notify AFEX immediately.

2.4. Execution of Order. Any Order received from Client will be acted upon on a commercially reasonable efforts basis only. There is no guarantee by AFEX that an Order can or will be filled or that instructions provided can or will be acted upon. AFEX may reject any Order if:

2.4.1. AFEX determines, in good faith and in its sole discretion, that such Order was not authorised by Client or a User;

2.4.2. AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that the Order may be contrary to law, contrary to prudent business practices, outside AFEX's risk profile, or would require AFEX to exceed the Facility granted to Client;

2.4.3. Client is Insolvent or in default of the Agreement or AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that it may not receive payment from Client in Settlement of the related Order; or

2.4.4. The Order is unclear, incorrect, incomplete or unsatisfactory to AFEX for any reason.

2.5. Reliance on Instruction. AFEX is hereby authorised by Client to accept, act and rely upon any instruction, whether oral or written, that AFEX reasonably believes to have been made by, or on behalf of Client. AFEX and its representatives are not liable for any Losses Client may suffer as a result of the misconduct of User(s) or any other person purporting to act on behalf of Client.

2.6. Audio Recording. An audio record of any or all oral Orders, and any other oral communications between the Parties, including Users, may be taken and maintained by AFEX, and Client hereby expressly authorises and agrees to the taking and maintaining of such records. All audio recordings are AFEX's sole property, subject to applicable law. Client agrees that such recordings may be relied upon by AFEX in the event of any dispute.

2.7. No Advice. Client represents that each Order entered into by Client will be based upon Client's own judgment and that Client is not relying on any communication of AFEX or its representatives as investment advice, as a recommendation to enter into a transaction or as an assurance of expected results. Client acknowledges that AFEX is not acting as a fiduciary or advisor to Client in respect of any Order.

2.8. Information Sources. Market information may, from time to time, be provided to Client through AFEX. This information may be obtained from various information providers through sources believed to be reliable. AFEX does not guarantee the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, or fitness for a particular purpose of any market information provided through AFEX. Such information may include opinions and recommendations of individuals or organisations and Client understands that AFEX may not endorse such recommendations or opinions, and that AFEX is not providing any investment, tax, accounting or legal advice to Client by including or making available such market information.

2.9. Orders Binding. An Order becomes binding on Client upon receipt by AFEX and creates an obligation on Client to settle the Order. Any Losses in connection with Client's failure to settle an Order are the sole responsibility of Client.

2.10. Confirmations. Upon AFEX's acceptance of an Order, AFEX may issue a Confirmation to Client. The Confirmation is evidence of certain material terms of the Order. An Order will not be invalidated if for any reason the Confirmation is not issued to Client by AFEX. In such circumstances, the records of AFEX with respect to that Order will constitute conclusive evidence of the terms of the Order. If there are any discrepancies between the Order and the Confirmation, Client must notify AFEX of such discrepancy within one (1) clear Business Day of the day that AFEX sends a Confirmation, otherwise the Confirmation will constitute conclusive proof and agreement of the Parties of the details of the Order.

2.11. Interest. No interest is paid by AFEX on any funds held on behalf of Client, except as may be agreed and separately documented.

2.12. Means of Processing Transactions. AFEX may use whatever intermediary banks, payments systems or methods AFEX deems commercially reasonable and appropriate for processing an Order. Client agrees to be bound by applicable law, regulations, clearing house rules or other rules or procedures of any funds transfer or communications system that is used. While AFEX will make every commercially reasonable effort to ensure the timely fulfilment of each Order, AFEX is not responsible for the speed and timing of payment processing by financial institutions or systems beyond the control of AFEX. AFEX is not responsible for any errors or omissions or for any actions that may be taken or not taken, or fees that may be deducted, by any intermediary or correspondent financial institution or by the Beneficiary's financial institution in association with any Order, including any cancellation or rejection.

2.13. Payment Instructions. Provided that Client has fully paid for the funds purchased from AFEX and complied with this Agreement, AFEX will hold those funds until AFEX's receipt of payment instructions from Client. AFEX will accept an instruction from Client to perform a Payment Transaction by mail, electronic mail, facsimile, telephone or Online System and instructions must include, but are not limited to, date, amount in the applicable currency and beneficiary details, including beneficiary's bank details. The Client's instruction will be treated by AFEX as the Client's consent to execute that Payment Transaction.

2.14. Inaccuracy or Incomplete Instruction. Client agrees that AFEX may rely on information provided by Client in processing an Order (including a Payment Transaction). If Client fails to provide a timely, complete, accurate or legible instruction, AFEX may place the funds in a Funding Balance pending receipt from Client of the information necessary to fulfil the Order (including a Payment Transaction). AFEX and its representatives shall not be liable for any Loss as a result of any such delay. Furthermore, Client agrees that any error or omission in such information, including, but not limited to, incorrect Beneficiary account number or name, Beneficiary financial institution name, or other account, international bank account number or routing number, or transit numbers, are Client's sole responsibility and liability.

2.15. Processing times for Payment Transactions.

2.15.1. This Clause 2.15 and its sub-clauses apply only to Micro-Enterprises.

2.15.2. AFEX agrees to process Payment Transactions for the Client in accordance with the Client's instructions on the same day the instructions are received by AFEX, if the Instruction is received before 15.00 AFEX Local Time. Instructions received after 15.00 AFEX Local Time or on a day other than a Business Day will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.

2.15.3. AFEX will provide the Client with the maximum execution time of the payment by AFEX and a breakdown of charges payable by Client where applicable. AFEX cannot be responsible for any delays due to the processing of the Payment Transaction by the Beneficiary's payment service provider. The delivery of the payment can be affected by public holiday or working hours of foreign payment service providers in other jurisdictions to which the Payment Transaction has been remitted. AFEX reserves the right to reject or stop processing any Order that is incorrect or incomplete, or where AFEX has a right or obligation to do so pursuant to applicable law or regulation.

2.16. Cancellation and Correction.

2.16.1. This Clause 2.16.1 applies only to Micro-Enterprises. Once AFEX has received the Client's instruction to perform a Payment Transaction, the Client may only cancel the Payment Transaction where the Client provides AFEX clear written notice not to proceed with the Payment Transaction which is received by AFEX no later than the end of the last Business Day before the Payment Transaction was due to take place. For the avoidance of doubt, if the instructions in the Client's notice are unclear, AFEX will not treat the Client's consent to the Payment Transaction as being withdrawn and will proceed with the Payment Transaction.

2.16.2. This clause 2.16.2 applies to Clients who are not Micro-Enterprises. Without prejudice to Clause 2.16.1, once AFEX accepts an Order, the Client may not cancel the Order and is liable for all amounts owed as result. As set out above, Client may correct Order details if the Confirmation does not reflect the Order details agreed upon. If Client otherwise wishes to cancel or amend an Order, AFEX shall use commercially reasonable efforts only to do so. There is no assurance that AFEX will be able to cancel or amend an Order.

2.17. Fees. Client understands that AFEX will charge certain fees for the Services, as set forth in a fee schedule made available to Client. Client agrees and acknowledges that Client has agreed to the relevant fee for the Service before placing an Order. AFEX may change the fees charged for the Services in its sole discretion at any time upon notice to Client, effective from the date of the notice, or as soon as permitted by applicable law. Client further agrees and acknowledges that all fees payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any legally applicable value added tax or similar sales or turnover tax in any relevant jurisdiction.

3. SETTLEMENT

3.1. Payment. To fund payments that Client initiates through AFEX, Client authorises AFEX to transfer funds from the bank account indicated in any agreement between the Parties whereby Client authorises AFEX to electronically debit a bank account designated by the Client. This authority is to remain in full force and effect until AFEX has received written notification from Client of its termination in such time and manner as to afford AFEX a reasonable opportunity to act on such notification after completing all open Orders at the time of such notification.

3.2. Settlement. Unless otherwise provided in the Agreement or agreed in writing between the Parties, Client agrees to promptly deliver the total amount of the cost to Client of an Order, including the cost of currency acquisition as well as any fees and charges related to the execution of the Delivery Instructions, to AFEX's nominated bank account in immediately available funds on or before the Value Date. If Settlement is paid to AFEX electronically, Client agrees that Settlement shall not be recallable by Client without AFEX's prior written consent. If Client fails to make immediate payment in full Settlement for an Order, AFEX has the right to suspend the Agreement; terminate the Agreement; terminate, close or unwind any Order; initiate any proceedings and take any other steps necessary to recover any Balance Due. Such steps shall be in the sole discretion of AFEX. The Client acknowledges and agrees: (i) that AFEX and its representatives shall have no liability to Client, and Client waives any claim or action against AFEX and its representatives; (ii) to indemnify and hold AFEX and its representatives harmless from any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and its representatives resulting from Client's failure to pay and AFEX's effort to collect any Balance Due, including any costs associated with terminating and unwinding any Order; (iii) AFEX may recover interest upon any unpaid amounts calculated at the daily rate of the indicator lending rate for business overdrafts as periodically announced by the local central bank, reserve bank, or monetary authority, plus 2%. AFEX reserves the right to deduct interest, and any fees charged and costs incurred pursuant to this Agreement, from Initial Margins and Variation Margins AFEX may hold for Client. Client acknowledges that AFEX will be entitled to notify a credit reporting body of non-payment by Client, in accordance with any applicable privacy legislation.

- 3.3. Right of Set-off and Netting. AFEX may, without prior notice, set off any amount owing by Client to AFEX against any other amount owing by AFEX to Client, including amounts held as Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin. In the event that any Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin is used to set-off any amounts owed by Client, Client shall immediately restore the Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin requirements for all Forward Contracts, as required by AFEX, failing which AFEX may terminate any or all unfulfilled Orders and Client shall be responsible for all of AFEX's Losses as a result of such termination(s). For the avoidance of doubt where Client also transacts with AFEX Markets to carry out MiFID business, Client acknowledges and agrees that the right of set-off in this Clause 3.3 shall apply to amounts owing to AFEX Markets by Client and amounts owing to Client by AFEX Markets and that margin held by AFEX Markets may be used to satisfy this set-off right.
- 3.4. Client acknowledges and consents to AFEX netting Orders for the purpose of satisfying any Margin Call issued by AFEX and/or for satisfying any shortfall incurred by AFEX on the liquidation of any or all Orders, including, for the avoidance of doubt, Orders entered into with AFEX Markets. Client acknowledges and agrees that AFEX is not obliged to net Orders for such purposes but that AFEX may do so in its sole discretion.
- 3.5. Limitation on Rights: Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as creating any security interest or right of set-off or netting to the extent that the creation or existence of such right or interest would be contrary to any applicable laws to AFEX is subject (including, without limitation, the Regulations).
- 3.6. Payment Instructions. Provided that Client has fully paid for the funds purchased from AFEX and complied with this Agreement, AFEX Ireland or AFEX Inc. will hold those funds until AFEX's receipt of Delivery Instructions from Client. Client may initiate transfer of its purchased funds by providing instructions to AFEX.
- 3.7. Electronic Debits. If Client has authorised AFEX to initiate debit entries to Client's bank or other financial institution account by direct debits, Client agrees that in the case of debit instructions transmitted through the Online System, the usage of the Online System Access Method is a security procedure which constitutes a commercially reasonable method of protecting against unauthorised debits. Client agrees to be bound by any debit instructions, whether authorised or not, issued in its name and acted upon by AFEX. In the event Client elects not to use or adhere to the security procedures described herein, Client will remain liable for any debit instructions issued in its name, whether authorised or not, and acted upon by AFEX. Client agrees that AFEX and Client's financial institution(s) are authorised to credit Client's account from time to time in the event that credit adjustments become necessary. Client agrees to indemnify AFEX and hold it harmless from any Losses incurred by any of them in connection with the execution of debit instructions believed by any of them to have been issued by a User.
- 3.8. Dishonoured Settlement. In the event any funds transfer of any kind authorised by Client is dishonoured by Client's financial institution or not completed for any reason, AFEX will charge and Client agrees, unless otherwise restricted by law or regulation, to pay all processing costs, fees, penalties and liabilities incurred by AFEX as a result of such incomplete funds transfer.
- 3.9. Settlement Extension. In the event AFEX fails to receive Settlement on or before Value Date, AFEX may, without the consent of Client, amend the originally agreed upon Value Date to the immediately subsequent Business Day ("Settlement Extension"). Client shall pay AFEX any Losses incurred as a result of a difference between the value of the Order on the originally agreed upon Value Date and the prevailing market rate on the subsequent Business Day. AFEX reserves the right to extend the settlement date of an Order as often as needed prior to its receipt of past due Settlement. At any time prior to the Value Date, Client may request AFEX to extend the Value Date to a future Business Day ("Settlement Extension Request"). Client must have an underlying business purpose for each Settlement Extension Request. All Settlement Extension Requests are subject to the approval of AFEX. AFEX may decline a Settlement Extension Request in its sole discretion for any reason. In the event of AFEX's acceptance of a Settlement Extension Request, Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses incurred by AFEX and any fee assessed by AFEX to Client in connection with its fulfilment of the Settlement Extension Request.

4. DIRECT DEBIT PAYMENT

- 4.1. Direct Debit Payment. AFEX may, with the consent of Client, initiate debit entries to a specified deposit account held by Client at a commercial banking institution ("Direct Debit Payment").
- 4.2. Deposit Account Information. Client shall furnish certain deposit account information, including, without limitation, bank account number and bank routing number for each Direct Debit Payment election. Client represents that all deposit account information provided to AFEX is accurate. Client further represents that Client is the sole owner of the deposit account whose number or bank routing number is provided for the Direct Debit Payment and that Client possesses the authority to withdraw funds from the deposit account without the approval or participation of other person(s).
- 4.3. Sufficient Funds. When Client elects to make Payment for Services by Direct Debit Payment, Client warrants that the deposit account maintains sufficient funds to fully cover the value of the Order.
- 4.4. Losses. Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses and expenses incurred by AFEX in connection with the Direct Debit Payment. AFEX and its representatives are not liable for any fees assessed by Client's commercial banking institution for the Direct Debit Payment.
- 4.5. Notice. Client shall provide immediate written notice to AFEX in the event that it closes the deposit account used for Direct Debit Payment.

5. FUNDING BALANCE

- 5.1. Funds Applied to Client's Funding Balance. AFEX will credit all funds purchased by Client or paid to it by Client in relation to an Order where Client has not provided Delivery Instructions to a Funding Balance.
- 5.2. Funding Balance Limits. Funds may be maintained in Client's Funding Balance for a maximum of ninety (90) days. Client shall be responsible for all risks excluding, for the avoidance of doubt the risk of AFEX Ireland becoming insolvent which is addressed at Clause 5.3 but including, without limitation, volatility of the Foreign Currency market, associated with maintaining Funding Balances in one or more Foreign Currency.
- 5.3. Funds Relating to Payment Transactions. Where AFEX Ireland receives funds from Clients in relation to Payment Transactions, including Orders where Client provides Delivery Instructions, or funds that have been credited to Client's Funding Balance or where AFEX receives funds from a third party on Client's behalf for Incoming Payments, as defined below, these funds will be protected and covered by AFEX Ireland in accordance with the Regulations ("Safeguarded Funds"). In the event of AFEX Ireland's insolvency, the Safeguarded

Funds will form an asset pool which is separate from AFEX Ireland's insolvent estate and an administrator will be entitled to reimburse Client from this pool (in priority to other creditors)

- 5.4. Repayment on termination. In the event that the Agreement is terminated for any reason, or in the event that funds are maintained in Client's Funding Balance beyond the maximum ninety (90) day period permitted above, AFEX may convert funds that are held in Client's Funding Balance into Client's base currency at the then-prevailing exchange rate(s) and return such funds to Client. In the event that the Agreement is terminated for any reason, AFEX may convert funds that are held for Client as Safeguarded Funds into Client's base currency at the then prevailing exchange rate(s) and return such funds to Client.
- 5.5. Unclaimed Funding Balance. Dependent on the jurisdiction of Client, legislation or regulation may set out obligations and processes where Funding Balance may be considered abandoned. AFEX will be bound by any applicable legislation or regulation governing the treatment of abandoned Funding Balance. Unless prohibited, AFEX may charge all costs and expenses of any notice, advertisement, payment and delivery of the Funding Balance to the applicable governing agency, against the Funding Balance prior to remitting in accordance with the legislation or regulation. If AFEX has remitted the Funding Balance in accordance with the legislative or regulatory requirements, AFEX has no further liability to Client and Client must apply to the appropriate governing agency to reclaim the Funding Balance.
- #### 6. FORWARD CONTRACTS
- 6.1. Risks Involved. Client acknowledges and agrees that the Foreign Currency markets are volatile. Client expressly accepts the risk that the value of the currencies in a Forward Contract may change between the date of the Order and the Balance Due Date.
- 6.2. Delivery of Funds. Once Settlement has been received by AFEX with respect to a Forward Contract, AFEX will deliver the funds in accordance with the Order or, if no such Delivery Instruction is provided, will credit Client's Funding Balance.
- 6.3. Draw Down. Subject to the Agreement, Client may draw down against a Window Forward Contract during the Delivery Window provided that AFEX has received Settlement in immediately available funds corresponding to the amount of the draw down. Notwithstanding any draw down, Client is required to provide full Settlement, or any remaining balance, to AFEX in good, cleared funds in connection with a Forward Contract on or before the end of the Value Date. AFEX may, in its discretion, apply to any draw down any rate of exchange that it deems reasonably appropriate.
- 6.4. Termination of a Forward Contract. In the event of a Termination Event, AFEX may, without notice, immediately terminate the relevant Forward Contract and/or any other outstanding Forward Contract agreed to between the Parties without any liability to AFEX or its representatives and/or take any other steps AFEX deems appropriate, including any actions contemplated in this Agreement to mitigate the potential Loss(es). In the event of such a Termination Event, Client agrees to pay to AFEX on demand within five (5) clear Business Days the amount of any and all Losses incurred by AFEX in connection with the termination and Forward Contract(s). Where a Forward Contract has been terminated, Client agrees that AFEX's sole liability to Client is to return any amounts Client paid to AFEX that remain after deducting all amounts owed to AFEX. Client understands and agrees that Client cannot terminate or Forward Contract, except as contemplated in this clause.

MARGIN

- 6.5. Initial Margin Requirement. AFEX may, in its sole discretion, require Client: (i) to provide Initial Margin in relation to any Forward Contract within twenty-four (24) hours of Client's instructions to enter into an Forward Contract; and/or

- (ii) to provide Initial Margin, if not already provided, within one (1) clear Business Day at any time during the term of an Forward Contract.
- 6.6. Variation Margin Requirement. If AFEX determines, in its sole discretion, that the net market value of all of Client's open Orders has declined and the unrealized loss when marked to market exceeds 10% or an alternative percentage or fixed amount as AFEX may advise, of the notional value of the open Orders. Client is required to post with AFEX Variation Margin as stated in the Margin Call issued by AFEX. Each time the net market value of all of Client's open Orders declines and the unrealized loss when marked to market further increases, AFEX may issue a Margin Call whereby Client is required to post additional Variation Margin in the amount stated in the Margin Call within one (1) clear Business Day. Payment of Variation Margin is due on or before the close of business on the next Business Day after the day AFEX issues Margin Call to Client.
- 6.7. Valuation of Orders. Forward Contracts are marked to market using prevailing market rates provided from a reputable financial data provider. AFEX reserves the right to change the financial data provider at any time without notice to Client.
- 6.8. Acknowledgement. Where Client also transacts with AFEX Markets to carry out MiFID business, Client acknowledges that Initial Margin and Variation Margin may also be held by AFEX Markets in accordance with Client's agreement with AFEX Markets and that a Margin Call may be made by either AFEX Markets or AFEX Ireland. Client acknowledges and agrees that where Initial Margin or Variation Margin is held by AFEX Markets, such Initial Margin or Variation Margin shall be treated as being held in connection with AFEX Markets' MiFID business.
- 6.9. Return of Variation Margin. If the unrealised loss of all open Forward Contracts with AFEX by Client falls below the Variation Margin requirements established elsewhere in this Agreement, based on AFEX's computation on any Business Day, then Client may request that AFEX return to it the difference between the amount(s) held and the Variation Margin required to be held by AFEX Markets on that Business Day. Any such request must be made, in writing, before 12.00, AFEX Local Time, on the same Business Day, and AFEX will process the request on the Business Day on which it was made and the surplus Variation Margin will be returned in a timely manner. Any request made after 12.00 AFEX Local Time, will be processed by AFEX the following Business Day and the Variation Margin will be returned to Client in a timely manner.
- 6.10. Purpose of Initial Margin. Initial Margin is intended to maintain the relative value of the funds to be purchased from or sold to AFEX pursuant to a Forward Contract or to address, in AFEX's sole discretion, an adverse change in Client's financial standing and/or credit worthiness or an adverse change in the external economic environment. Client acknowledges and agrees that the amount of Initial Margin will be determined by AFEX in its sole and reasonable discretion, subject to the total of any such payments being less than or equal to the total payment obligation owed to AFEX with respect to the relevant Forward Contract, and that AFEX may require Initial Margin to be made even if AFEX has provided Client with a Facility. Any Initial Margin delivered by Client and received by AFEX are non-refundable and will be applied to satisfy Client's total payment obligation owed to AFEX with respect to the relevant Forward Contract on the Value Date or on the date of any final Draw Down or any other amount permitted by the Agreement.
- 6.11. Remedy for Failure to Honour Initial Margin or Variation Margin Requirements. If AFEX does not receive Initial Margin or Variation Margin when due, AFEX, at its option and in its sole discretion, may close out any or all of Client's open Orders and apply the proceeds first to reimburse AFEX for the amounts due under the Orders, including all Losses, and remit the balance of the proceeds, if any, to Client. If the proceeds of disposition are insufficient to fully satisfy the amount owing to AFEX, then Client shall pay to AFEX the difference within one (1) clear Business Day.

In the event that any Incoming Payment is subsequently recalled, returned to AFEX as non-negotiable or for insufficient funds or is otherwise not accepted by AFEX's depository financial institution, such Incoming Payment will be returned to third party payer. The Client agrees to indemnify AFEX and its representatives in respect of Losses incurred by AFEX, including any foreign exchange Losses, charges and fees in handling the returned, unaccepted or recalled Incoming Payment. - 9.2. Rate Order Purchase or Termination. AFEX will provide Client with a summary of the material terms of each Rate Order. If the terms of the Rate Order are met during the Effective Period, AFEX will issue Client a Confirmation. If the terms of the Rate Order are not met by the end of the Effective Period, the Rate Order will expire. Client agrees to promptly review each summary and Confirmation for accuracy and immediately notify AFEX of any error or discrepancy.
- 9.3. Cancellation of a Rate Order. To cancel a Rate Order, AFEX must receive an instruction directing cancellation and have had a commercially reasonable opportunity to act upon such instruction. In the absence of such instruction, AFEX will attempt to fill the Rate Order and Client will be liable for Settlement.
- 9.4. Target Rate. If the exchange rate specified in the Rate Order ("Target Rate") does not become sustainable and purchasable during the Effective Period, the Rate Order will automatically expire at the end of the Effective Period. All communications sent by personal delivery will be deemed received on the day of actual delivery, if a Business Day, and if not a Business Day, on the next Business Day after the day of actual delivery. Facsimile communications will be deemed to have been received on the day of transmission if a Business Day, and if not a Business Day, on the next Business Day after the day of transmission. All electronic communications will be deemed to be received on the day the electronic communication is sent, if a Business Day, and if not a Business Day, on the next Business Day after the date on which the electronic communication is sent.

20.1.3. Client must inform AFEX immediately in writing of any change of: beneficial ownership, address, delivery information, Client financial institution or designated account(s) or its bank/financial institution from which AFEX has been granted the authority to initiate electronic debits. Any changes directed by a notice will be taken into effect by AFEX within thirty (30) days after AFEX's receipt of such notice.

20.1.4. If AFEX is unable to deliver any communications due to incorrect address or contact information, Client is in breach of the Agreement and AFEX will have no further obligation to seek out correct contact information or to continue to attempt to deliver. AFEX is not responsible for Client's failure to receive any communication if sent in accordance with contact information as provided by Client.

20.1.5. If Client uses electronic mail to initiate payment requests or other instructions or otherwise communicate with AFEX, Client agrees to bear the risk that such electronic mail may be corrupted, modified, incomplete, hacked, compromised or be undeliverable with or without notice to the sender or receiver. Client agrees to bear the risk of these events and agrees to hold AFEX harmless from acting or failing to act on any and all electronic communications purporting to be sent by Client.

21. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

21.1. 21.1.1. The Parties will use their best efforts to resolve any disputes arising hereunder without formal litigation. If a dispute arises out of, or in connection with, the Agreement or the performance, validity or enforceability of it and the Parties do not resolve some or all of the dispute through normal internal discussions, then the Parties shall follow the procedure set out in this clause:

21.1.1.1. At first instance, the matter in dispute will be escalated to the most senior officer within each Party; and 21.1.1.2. At second instance, if the Parties do not resolve some or all of the issues in dispute within 15 business days after the first day that the matter has been escalated at first instance, then the Parties agree to attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation, in accordance with the Terms of Mediation set out in this Agreement.

21.2. The Parties agree that the representatives selected to participate at all instances in the dispute resolution process will have the authority required to settle the dispute, whether by virtue of the authority of their office, or by virtue of delegated authority.

21.3. Any discussions between the Parties at the first and second instances shall be regarded as "without prejudice" for the purpose of settlement negotiations and shall be treated as confidential by the Parties and their representatives, unless otherwise required by law. However, evidence that is independently admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable by virtue of its use during the negotiations.

21.4. No Party may commence any court proceedings in relation to any dispute arising out of this Agreement until it has attempted to settle the dispute by mediation and either the mediation has terminated or the other Party has failed to participate in the mediation, provided that the right to issue proceedings is not prejudiced by a delay.

21.5. The Parties agree that Section 21 shall not prevent AFEX Ireland from seeking payment for unsettled Orders through the use of a duly registered collection agency. Should recovery not be successful through the collection agency process, the Parties shall subsequently attorn to the process set out in Section 21.

21.6. Complaints. Should the Client have any complaints regarding the Payment Transaction, the Client must contact their AFEX account executive in the first instance for details of AFEX's complaints procedure. Clients that are still dissatisfied following AFEX's response to any complaint, may have a right to refer a complaint to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman Lincoln House, Lincoln PI, Dublin 2, D02 VH29. While Client is pursuing a resolution to the dispute pursuant to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman procedure, the processes set out in sections 21 and 22 will be suspended.

22. TERMS OF MEDIATION

22.1. Notice.

22.1.1. If a dispute arises and the Parties do not resolve some or all of that dispute through first instance and second instance negotiations, as set out above, then the Parties will attempt to settle it by mediation in accordance with the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution ("CEDR") Model Mediation Procedure. To initiate the mediation either Party may promptly submit to the other Party a notice of intent to mediate. A copy of the notice should be sent to CEDR.

22.1.2. This notice shall be in writing and shall specify the issues in dispute.

22.1.3. The general notice provisions of the Agreement apply equally to the documents referred to in this Section.

22.2. Selection of Mediator. The mediator can be chosen by joint agreement of the Parties, or if unable to agree within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of delivery of the notice of intent to mediate, or if the Parties agree, by the CEDR.

22.3. Schedule. The Parties shall jointly select a date for the mediation that is no later than ninety (90) calendar days from the date of the notice of intent to mediate.

22.4. Location. The mediation shall be held in Dublin, Ireland, or such other location as the Parties agree.

22.5. Exchange of information. The Parties agree to an exchange of all information upon which they intend to rely in any oral or written presentation during the mediation. This exchange shall be complete no later than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date set for the mediation.

22.6. Costs. The Parties agree that they will each be responsible for their own costs of mediation, including travel. Fees and expenses of the mediator and all administrative costs of the mediation, if any, shall be shared equally by the Parties.

22.7. Confidentiality. Any discussions between the Parties during the mediation shall be regarded as "without prejudice" for the purpose of settlement negotiations and shall be treated as confidential by the Parties and their representatives, unless otherwise required by law. However, evidence that is independently admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable by virtue of its use during the mediation.

22.8. Caucusing. The mediator is free to caucus with the Parties individually, as the mediator sees fit to improve the chances of a mediated settlement. Any confidential information revealed to the mediator by one Party during such caucusing may only be disclosed to the other Party with the former Party's express permission.

22.9. Prohibition against Future Assistance. It is agreed that the mediator will neither represent nor testify on behalf of any of the Parties in any subsequent legal or administrative proceeding between the Parties or where they are opposed in interest. It is further agreed that the personal notes and written opinions of the mediator made in relation to this mediation are confidential and may not be used in any subsequent proceeding between the Parties.

22.10. Termination. The mediation may be terminated by any means described in the CEDR Model Mediation Procedure.

22.11. Mediator's Report. In the event that no agreement is reached, or is reached on some issues only, the mediator shall promptly provide a report to the Parties stating that no agreement was reached on some or all of the outstanding issues.

22.12. Other Proceedings. No Party may commence any court proceedings in relation to any Dispute arising out of the Agreement until it has attempted to settle the Dispute by mediation and either the mediation has terminated or the other Party has failed to participate in the mediation, provided that the right to issue proceedings is not prejudiced by a delay.

23. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

23.1. Anti-money laundering. In line with its anti-money laundering obligations, AFEX is required to implement certain due diligence procedures in relation to the identity of each Client, the nature of each client's business and other details relating to the Services. Client agrees to provide AFEX with all the information AFEX requires as part of its customer due diligence procedures. Client agrees that AFEX may withhold any monies due to Client until AFEX has received all requested documentation. AFEX reserves the right to reject or limit payments for reasons related to compliance with anti-money laundering regulations or policies where we have objectively justified reasons to do so. When rejecting a payment, AFEX will disclose the reason for the rejection to the extent not prohibited under law.

23.2. Third Parties. The Agreement is not intended to, and shall not, confer upon anyone other than the Parties and their lawful successors or assigns, any legal or equitable rights, benefits, claims or remedies of any nature.

23.3. No Waiver. AFEX's failure to exercise any of its rights under the Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such rights or remedies at a later time.

23.4. Information and notifications concerning Payment Transactions. In accordance with the Regulations, if so required by the Client, AFEX must provide or make available to the Client, periodically and at least once a month, certain information relating to Payment Transaction(s). Such information will be provided to the Client in English using a method of communication which AFEX reasonably considers to be appropriate.

23.5. This clause 23.5 only applies to a Client that is a Micro-Enterprise. The Client may request an up-to-date version of this Agreement by contacting AFEX Ireland at Denshaw House, 120/121 Baggot Street Lower, Dublin 2, D02 FD45. AFEX will provide the requested document by email. If requested by the Client, AFEX must provide the Client with the information set out in the Regulation 76 of the Regulations.

23.6. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the provisions shall remain in effect and shall be binding upon the Parties.

23.7. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. The Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Ireland. Each of the Parties shall attorn to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Ireland having jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Agreement. The Parties agree that Dublin, Ireland is a convenient forum to bring any action.

23.8. Assignment. Client shall not assign the Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder without AFEX's written consent. If AFEX provides its written consent to any assignment of the Agreement, the Agreement shall be binding upon the successors, heirs, and assigns of Client.

23.9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations, understandings, negotiations, and discussions between the parties, whether oral or written. The terms of this Agreement may not be changed, modified, or supplemented except by an instrument in writing agreed upon by both Parties.

23.10. Changes to Agreement.

23.10.1. This Clause 23.10.1 only applies to Corporate Clients and not Micro-Enterprises: AFEX reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change, amend, or otherwise modify this Agreement at any time upon written notice to Client. Any changes, amendments, or modifications so conveyed to Client shall be effective from the date such change, amendment or modification goes into effect, unless otherwise stated.

23.10.2. This Clause 23.10.2 only applies to a Client that is a Micro-Enterprise. Any changes to this Agreement will be communicated to the Client at least two months before such changes are due to take effect unless such a change is to the Client's advantage, as reasonably determined by AFEX, or represents a change to an external reference exchange rate to which the Client's exchange rate is linked. In these circumstances AFEX may make the change immediately and inform the Client forthwith. If the Client disagrees with a change, the Client has the right to terminate this Agreement without penalty by giving AFEX notice before the changes are due to take effect. The Client shall be deemed to have accepted any changes to this Agreement if the Client fails to notify AFEX of any disagreement before this time.

23.11. Miscellaneous. In the event that the Client requires any further information in relation to the Regulations or has any questions regarding the impact of the Regulations on this Agreement, such questions should be directed to AFEX's Compliance Team at corpaycbcompliance@fleetcor.com.

24. EARLY RELEASE TERMS

24.1. AFEX, in its sole and absolute discretion, may grant Client a Facility which includes an Early Release Period to enable fast tracking the release of funds on some Orders to certain Beneficiaries of Client. If that occurs, then such Early Release Period shall be subject to the following terms.

24.2. "Early Release Period" is the period from when AFEX releases funds to a Beneficiary of an Order, continuing until Client's Payment to AFEX for that Order comes due.

24.3. Each time an Order booked by Client is booked with an Early Release Period, that Order's Early Release Period shall be 7 OR 14 OR 21 OR 28 days in duration. Client can, where eligible, pick among these four choices at the time of booking the Order.

24.4. Client authorizes AFEX to initiate an EFT/ACH/SEPA debit from Client's depository account on the due date (i.e., the last day of the applicable Early Release Period; this is pushed instead to the first following Business Day if that last day is a non-Business-Day) with a value date equal to the first Business Day after the due date.

24.5. This early release privilege is subject to some rules, including:

24.5.1. The Payment Acceptance Limit, specified by AFEX for Client's Facility, sets the cumulative cap on early-released payments Client has not yet paid AFEX for. Thus, each Order that is in middle of its Early Release Period shall count against Client's Payment Acceptance Limit.

24.5.2. In general, the early release privilege may not be used for any Derivative Contracts.

24.5.3. If, for any reason, an EFT/ACH/SEPA debit by AFEX as described above is returned (i.e., it bounces) whether because of non-sufficient funds ("NSF"), or any other reason:

24.5.3.1. Client must promptly make AFEX whole with a make-up Payment, and Client must pay this by wire.

24.5.3.2. If, within any rolling 6-month period, there are two or more returns, then Client's early release privilege shall be revoked for at least 6 months during which there must be no returns before AFEX will consider restoring the privilege.

25. If during (or before) the period when this Agreement is in effect the parties enter (or have entered) with one another an NDA (non-disclosure agreement), that NDA shall last at least as long as this Agreement is in effect.
