1.15.8. Places an Order reasonably deemed by Cambridge, to represent a regulatory, compliance or business risk; or

1.15.9. Is, or is suspected of, regulatory noncompliance or breach of any laws or regulations.

1.15.10. Cambridge, acting reasonably, determines that Client is likely to soon breach at least some of Client's contractual obligations to Cambridge. Examples:

1.15.10.1. Client unilaterally cancels an established authorization for Cambridge to debit Client's Settlement bank account when there are still one or more Derivative Contracts outstanding between Client and Cambridge.

1.15.10.2. If Client's Facility with Cambridge is subject to Client potentially being required to post Variation Margin(s), then if Client's position at any time becomes out-the-money by at least 1.5 times the point at which Client's duty to post is triggered.

In such circumstances, it shall be deemed an Early Variation Event if Client fails to consistently maintain a valid guarantee from EDC regarding Client's debts to Cambridge, and/or to obtain and prove such guarantees from EDC throughout the period(s) of the Facility.

1.16. "Facility" means any trading limit, settlement limit, Foreign Currency exposure limit, or credit facility that Cambridge has expressly granted to Client. If Client is eligible, Cambridge may choose to issue Client a separate letter detailing Facility terms.

1.17. "Foreign Currency" means any fiat currency other than the currency issued or recognized as legal tender by the country of Client's principal place of business.

receipt of an instruction from Client, including Beneficiary details.

1.21. "Initial Margin" means an amount required by Cambridge, either in the form of funds held by Cambridge for a Client, or in the form of a Payment by Client, to be applied in partial payment of an Order.

1.22. "Insolvent" means that an entity is insolvent or otherwise unable to pay its debts as they become due, or is subject to any proceeding, whether voluntary or involuntary, for bankruptcy, liquidation, administration, or relief from creditors.

1.24. "Loss" or "Losses" means direct and consequential financial losses, damages, costs, judgments, penalties, fines, expenses, legal and accounting fees and expenses, costs of investigation, settlements, court costs and other expenses of litigation, as well as fees and expenses and losses not related to litigation or legal process and lost profits.

1.26. "Margin Threshold" is the negative mark-to-market exposure which Cambridge will accept before requiring via Margin Call that Client promptly provide Cambridge with Variation Margin to secure Client's obligations under an Order or series of Orders.

1.27. "Online System" means any secure Internet or cloud-based electronic system, which allows users to access Cambridge Services through an interface or protocol or application program interface, including any proprietary Cambridge application program interface product and service related to such proprietary application program interface.

1.28. "Online System Access Method" means a unique user identification and unique password for each User required to access the Online System.

1.31. "OTM" (stands for Out-The-Money): this is whenever market movement causes Client's position's net mark-to-market value to fall below zero. This makes Client's Cambridge account OTM.

1.32. "Outright Forward Contract" a binding agreement in which Client agrees to purchase from or sell to Cambridge a specific amount of funds in one currency and to settle, on an agreed future date, in a specific amount of funds in another currency.

1.34. "Payment" means good, cleared funds received by Cambridge from, or on behalf of, Client.

1.35. "Payment Acceptance Limit" means the amount of currency that Cambridge will remit to Client's Beneficiaries before receipt by Cambridge of cleared value from Client. Please note that when an order exceeds the Payment Acceptance Limit and Client settles with Cambridge via a method other than wire, all payments or line items within the order will be held by Cambridge until the transaction clears – typically between three and five Business Days after funds have left Client's bank account. As such, Cambridge suggests that Client should group payments appropriately to ensure that high- priority items are remitted first. If Client has a high priority payment which is under Client's Payment Acceptance Limit, Client should ensure that it is not grouped with any other payments which would put the total order over Client's Payment Acceptance Limit.

1.36. "Permitted Counterparty" means a client who, in Cambridge's sole discretion, has met the requirements for entering into an Option Contract with Cambridge, which requirements may be changed, from time to time, by Cambridge in its sole discretion.

1.39. "Premium Payment Date" means the date that is one (1) clear Business Day after the date that an Option Contract is entered into.

1.40. "Prepaid Card" refers to a physical or virtual card which notionally stores Client funds representing a claim against the third party issuing financial institution for use as a means of redemption for bank notes or payment for goods or services sold or provided by merchant members of the card network.

1.41. "Reporting Requirements" means any applicable laws, rules, regulations, instruments, orders or directives and any requirements of a regulatory or supervisory organization that mandate reporting and/or retention of transaction and similar information.

1.42. "Seller" means the Party so designated in an Option Contract.

1.43. "Services" means Cambridge's provision of various foreign exchange (including spot contracts and/or Derivative Contracts), settlement and delivery products and services, including without limitation, an electronic transaction platform; risk management and hedging services, and prepaid card products and services.

1.44. "Settlement" means the total amount, including the cost of currency acquisition and any fees and charges, Client owes to Cambridge, less any Initial Margin held by Cambridge.

1.45. "Settlement Instructions" means instructions given by Client to Cambridge whereby Client indicates the means by which it will pay to Cambridge the Settlement for an Order.

1.46. "User" (also called "Authorized User"; also called "Authorized Representative") means an individual authorized by Client to access the Services and place and/or enter into Orders on behalf of Client in accordance with this Agreement.

1.47. "Value Date" means the date on which an Order becomes due for delivery and Settlement.

1.48. "Variation Margin" means cash funds required when the net marked to market value of all open Orders exceeds 10% or an alternative percentage or fixed amount as Cambridge may advise, of the notional value of all open Orders.

1.49. "Window Forward Contract" means a binding agreement in which Client agrees to purchase from or sell to Cambridge a specific amount of funds in one currency and to settle, on any date during the Delivery Window, in a specific amount of funds in another currency.

2. CONDUCTING BUSINESS WITH CAMBRIDGE

2.1. Agreement. This Agreement shall apply to any and all Orders. The specific transactional details of each Order will be agreed upon and will be as set out in a Confirmation. For the avoidance of doubt, each Order for which Cambridge issues a Confirmation will constitute an independent contract, governed by the terms of this Agreement.

2.2. Provision of Services. Where any of the Services involve the conversion of amounts from one currency into another currency and the remittance of funds to the designated Beneficiary, Cambridge will provide such Services as principal.

2.3. Execution of Order. Any Order received from Client will be acted upon on a commercially reasonable efforts basis only. There is no guarantee by Cambridge that an Order can or will be filled (even if a previous, similar Order was filled) or that instructions provided can or will be acted upon. Cambridge may reject any Order if:

2.3.1. Cambridge determines, in good faith and in its sole discretion, that such Order is unclear or was not authorized by Client or a User;

2.3.2. Cambridge determines, in its sole discretion, that the Order may be contrary to law, contrary to prudent business practices, outside Cambridge's risk profile, or would require Cambridge to exceed the Facility granted to Client;

2.3.3. Client is Insolvent or in default of this Agreement or Cambridge determines, in its sole discretion, that it may not receive payment from Client in Settlement of the related Order; or

2.3.4. The Order is incorrect, incomplete or unsatisfactory to Cambridge for any reason.

2.4. Reliance on Instruction. Cambridge is hereby authorized by Client to accept, act and rely upon any instruction, whether oral or written, that Cambridge reasonably believes to have been made by, or on behalf of Client.

Cambridge and its representatives are not liable for any Losses Client may suffer as a result of the misconduct of User(s) or any other person purporting to act on behalf of Client.

2.5. Audio Recording. An audio record of any or all oral Orders, and any other oral communications between the Parties, including Users, may be taken and maintained by Cambridge, and Client hereby expressly authorizes and agrees to the taking and maintaining of such records. All audio recordings are Cambridge's sole property, subject to applicable law. Client agrees that such recordings may be relied upon by Cambridge in the event of any dispute.

2.6. No Advice. Client represents that each Order entered into by Client will be based upon Client's own judgment and that Client is not relying on any communication of Cambridge or its representatives as investment advice, as a recommendation to enter into a transaction or as an assurance of expected results. Client acknowledges that Cambridge is not acting as a fiduciary or advisor to Client in respect of any Order.

2.7. Information Sources. Market information may, from time to time, be provided to Client through Cambridge. This information may be obtained from various information providers through sources believed to be reliable. Cambridge does not guarantee the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, or fitness for a particular purpose of any market information provided through Cambridge. Such information may include opinions and recommendations of individuals or organizations and Client understands that Cambridge may not endorse such recommendations or opinions, and that Cambridge is not providing any investment, tax, accounting, or legal advice to Client by including or making available such market information.

2.8. Orders Binding. An Order becomes binding on Client upon receipt by Cambridge and creates an obligation on Client to settle the Order. Any Losses in connection with Client's failure to settle an Order are the sole responsibility of Client.

2.9. Confirmations. Upon Cambridge's acceptance of an Order, Cambridge may issue a Confirmation to Client. The Confirmation is evidence of certain material terms of the Order. An Order will not be invalidated if for any reason the Confirmation is not issued to Client by Cambridge. In such circumstances, the records of Cambridge with respect to that Order will constitute conclusive evidence of the terms of the Order. If there are any discrepancies between the Order and the Confirmation, Client must notify Cambridge of such discrepancy within one (1) clear Business Day of the day that Cambridge sends a Confirmation, otherwise the Confirmation will constitute conclusive proof and agreement of the Parties of the details of the Order.

2.10. Interest. No interest is paid by Cambridge on any funds held on behalf of Client, except as may be agreed and separately documented.

2.11. Means of Processing Transactions. Cambridge may use whatever intermediary banks, payments systems or methods Cambridge deems commercially reasonable and appropriate for processing an Order. Client agrees to be bound by applicable law, regulations, clearing house rules or other rules or procedures of any funds transfer or communications system that is used. While Cambridge will make every commercially reasonable effort to ensure the timely fulfilment of each Order, Cambridge is not responsible for the speed and timing of payment processing by financial institutions or systems beyond the control of Cambridge. Cambridge is not responsible for any errors or omissions or for any actions that may be taken or not taken, or fees that may be deducted, by any intermediary or correspondent financial institution or by the Beneficiary's financial institution in association with any Order, including any cancellation or rejection.

2.12. Inaccuracy or Incomplete Instruction. Client agrees that Cambridge may rely on information provided by Client in processing an Order. If Client fails to provide a timely, complete, accurate or legible instruction, Cambridge may place the funds in a Funding Balance pending receipt from Client of the information necessary to fulfil the Order. Cambridge and its representatives shall not be liable for any Loss as a result of any such delay. Furthermore, Client agrees that any error or omission in such information, including, but not limited to, incorrect Beneficiary account number or name, Beneficiary financial institution name, or other account, international bank account number or routing number, or transit numbers, are Client's sole responsibility and liability.

2.13. Cancellation and Correction. Once Cambridge accepts an Order, Client may not cancel the Order and Client is liable for all amounts owed as result. As set out above, Client may correct Order details if the Confirmation does not reflect the Order details agreed upon. If Client otherwise wishes to cancel or amend an Order, Cambridge shall use commercially reasonable efforts only to do so. There is no assurance that Cambridge will be able to cancel or amend an Order. Client shall indemnify and hold Cambridge and its representatives harmless for any and all Losses incurred by Cambridge and its representatives in attempting to cancel or amend an Order, whether or not ultimately successful.

2.14. Fees. Client understands that Cambridge will charge certain fees for the Services, as set forth in a fee schedule that will be provided to Client upon request. Client agrees and acknowledges that Client has agreed to the relevant fee for the Service before placing an Order. All fees payable under this Agreement are exclusive of any legally applicable value added tax or similar sales or turnover tax in any relevant jurisdiction.

3. SETTLEMENT

3.1. Payment. To fund payments that Client initiates through Cambridge, Client authorizes Cambridge to transfer funds from the bank account indicated in any agreement between the Parties whereby Client authorizes Cambridge to electronically debit a bank account designated by the Client. This authority is to remain in full force and effect until Cambridge has received written notification from Client of its termination in such time and manner as to afford Cambridge a reasonable opportunity to act on such notification after completing all open Orders at the time of such notification.

3.2. Settlement. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or agreed in writing between the Parties, Client agrees to promptly deliver to Cambridge the total amount of the cost to Client of an Order, including the cost of currency acquisition as well as any fees and charges related to the execution of the Delivery Instructions, to Cambridge's nominated bank account in immediately available funds on or before the Value Date. If Settlement is paid to Cambridge electronically, Client agrees that Settlement shall not be recallable by Client without Cambridge's prior written consent. If Client fails to make immediate payment in full Settlement for an Order, Cambridge has the right to suspend this Agreement; terminate this Agreement; terminate, close or unwind any Order; initiate any proceedings and take any other steps necessary to recover any Balance Due. Such steps shall be in the sole discretion of Cambridge, and Client agrees: (i) that Cambridge and its representatives shall have no liability to Client, and Client waives any claim or action against Cambridge and its representatives; (ii) to indemnify and hold Cambridge and its representatives harmless from any and all Losses incurred by Cambridge and its representatives resulting from Client's failure to pay and Cambridge's effort to collect any Balance Due, including any costs associated with terminating and unwinding any Order; (iii) Cambridge may recover interest upon any unpaid amounts calculated at the daily rate of the indicator lending rate for business overdrafts as periodically announced by the local central bank, reserve bank, or monetary authority plus 2%. Cambridge reserves the right to deduct interest, and any fees charged and costs incurred pursuant to this Agreement, from Initial Margins and Variation Margins that Cambridge may hold for Client. Client acknowledges that Cambridge will be entitled to notify a credit reporting body of non-payment by Client, in accordance with any applicable privacy legislation.

3.3. Right of Set-off and Netting. Cambridge may, without prior notice, set-off any amount owing by Client to Cambridge against any other amount owing by Cambridge to Client, including amounts held as Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin. In the event that any Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin is used to set-off any amounts owed by Client, Client shall immediately restore the Initial Margin and Variation Margin requirements for all Derivative Contracts, as required by Cambridge, failing which Cambridge may terminate any or all unfulfilled Orders and Client shall be responsible for all of Cambridge's Losses as a result of such termination(s). Client acknowledges and consents to Cambridge netting Orders for the purpose of satisfying any Margin Call issued by Cambridge and/or for satisfying any shortfall incurred by Cambridge on the liquidation of any or all Orders. Client acknowledges and agrees that Cambridge is not obliged to net Orders for such purposes but that Cambridge may do so in its sole discretion.

3.4. Payment Instructions. Provided that Client has fully paid for the funds purchased from Cambridge and complied with this Agreement, Cambridge will hold those funds until Cambridge's receipt of Delivery Instructions from Client. Client may initiate transfer of its purchased funds by providing instructions to Cambridge.

3.5. Electronic debits. If Client has authorized Cambridge to initiate debit entries to Client's bank or other financial institution account by direct debits, Client agrees that in the case of debit instructions transmitted through the Online System, the usage of the Online System Access Method is a security procedure, which constitutes a commercially reasonable method of protecting against unauthorized debits. Client agrees to be bound by any debit instructions, whether authorized or not, issued in its name and acted upon by Cambridge, and Client agrees to indemnify Cambridge and hold it harmless from any Losses incurred by any of them in connection with the execution of debit instructions believed by any of them to have been issued by a User. In the event Client elects not to use or adhere to the security procedures described herein, Client will remain liable for any debit instructions issued in its name, whether authorized or not, and acted upon by Cambridge. Client agrees that Cambridge and Client's financial institution(s) are authorized to credit Client's account from time to time in the event that credit adjustments become necessary.

3.6. Dishonoured Settlement. In the event any funds transfer of any kind authorized by Client is dishonoured by Client's financial institution or not completed for any reason, Cambridge will charge and Client agrees, unless otherwise restricted by law or regulation, to pay all processing costs, fees, penalties and liabilities incurred by Cambridge as a result of such incomplete funds transfer.

3.7. Settlement Extension. In the event Cambridge fails to receive Settlement on or before Value Date, Cambridge may, without the consent of Client, amend the originally agreed upon Value Date to the immediately subsequent Business Day ("Settlement Extension"). Client shall pay Cambridge any Losses incurred as a result of a difference between the value of the Order on the originally agreed upon Value Date and the prevailing market rate on the subsequent Business Day. Cambridge reserves the right to extend the settlement date of an Order as often as needed prior to its receipt of past due Settlement. At any time prior to the Value Date, Client may request Cambridge to extend the Value Date to a future Business Day ("Settlement Extension Request"). Client must have an underlying business purpose for each Settlement Extension Request. All Settlement Extension Requests are subject to the approval of Cambridge. Cambridge may decline a Settlement Extension Request in its sole discretion for any reason. In the event of Cambridge's acceptance of a Settlement Extension Request, Client agrees to pay to Cambridge on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses incurred by Cambridge and any fee assessed by Cambridge to Client in connection with its fulfilment of the Settlement Extension Request.

4. PRE-AUTHORIZED DEBIT

4.1. Pre-Authorized Debit. Cambridge may, with the consent of Client, initiate debit entries to a specified deposit account held by Client at a depository financial institution. Client acknowledges and agrees any Pre-Authorized Debit ("PAD") will be subject to the Canadian Payments Act and the rules of Payments Canada.

4.2. Deposit Account Information. Client shall furnish certain deposit account information, including, without limitation, bank account number and bank routing number for each PAD transaction election. Client represents that all deposit account information provided to Cambridge is accurate. Client further represents that Client is the sole owner of the deposit account whose number or bank routing number is provided for the PAD and that Client possesses the authority to withdraw funds from the deposit account without the approval or participation of other person(s)

4.3. Sufficient Funds. When Client elects to make Payment for Services by PAD, Client warrants that the deposit account maintains sufficient funds to fully cover the value of the Order.

4.4. Losses. Client agrees to pay to Cambridge on demand within one (1) clear Business Day the amount of any and all Losses and expenses incurred by Cambridge in connection with PAD (e.g., Payment). Cambridge and its representatives are not liable for any fees assessed by Client's commercial banking institution for PAD.

4.5. Notice. Client shall provide immediate written notice to Cambridge in the event that it closes the deposit account used for PAD(s).

5. FUNDING BALANCE

5.1. Funds Applied to Client's Funding Balance. Cambridge will credit all funds purchased by Client or paid to it by Client, or a third party on Client's behalf for Incoming Payments, as defined below, to a Funding Balance. Client acknowledges and agrees that Cambridge shall not pay interest to Client on Funding Balance.

5.2. Treatment of Funding Balance. Cambridge may combine Client's Funding Balance with funds held on behalf of other Cambridge clients (collectively "Pooled Funding Balances").

5.2.1. Client acknowledges that Funding Balance is neither a "deposit" nor is it insured by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (CDIC).

5.2.2. Cambridge shall maintain sufficient accounting records to determine the funds held for the benefit of Client. Cambridge will not use Funding Balance or Pooled Funding Balances for any purpose other than as permitted by applicable laws, the main lawful purpose being its provision of Services to Cambridge clients, including Client.

5.3. Funding Balance Limits. Funds may be maintained in Client's Funding Balance for a maximum of ninety (90) days. Client shall be responsible for all risks, including, without limitation, volatility of the Foreign Currency market, associated with maintaining Funding Balances in one or more Foreign Currency.

5.4. Repayment of Funding Balance. In the event that this Agreement is terminated for any reason, or in the event that funds are maintained in Client's Funding Balance beyond the maximum ninety (90) day period permitted above, Cambridge may convert funds that are held in Client's Funding Balance into Canadian Dollars at the then-prevailing exchange rate(s) and return such funds to Client.

5.5. Unclaimed Funding Balance. Dependent on the jurisdiction of Client, legislation or regulation may set out obligations and processes where Funding Balance may be considered abandoned. Cambridge will be bound by any applicable legislation or regulation governing the treatment of abandoned Funding Balance. Unless prohibited, Cambridge may charge all costs and expenses of any notice, advertisement, payment and delivery of the Funding Balance to the applicable governing agency, against the Funding Balance prior to remitting in accordance with the legislation or regulation. If Cambridge has remitted the Funding Balance in accordance with the legislative or regulatory requirements, Cambridge has no further liability to Client and Client must apply to the appropriate governing agency to reclaim the Funding Balance.

6. DERIVATIVE CONTRACTS

6.1. Risks Involved. Client acknowledges and agrees that the Foreign Currency markets are volatile. Client expressly accepts the risk that the value of the currencies in a Derivative Contract may change between the date of the Order and the Balance Due Date.

6.2. Delivery of Funds. Once Settlement has been received by Cambridge with respect to a Derivative Contract, Cambridge will deliver the funds in accordance with the Order or, if no such Delivery Instruction is provided, will credit Client's Funding Balance.

6.3. Draw Down. Subject to this Agreement, Client may draw down against a Window Forward Contract during the Delivery Window provided that Cambridge has received Settlement in immediately available funds corresponding to the amount of the draw down. Notwithstanding any draw down, Client is required to provide full Settlement, or any remaining balance, to Cambridge in good, cleared funds in connection with a Derivative Contract on or before the end of the Value Date. Cambridge may, in its discretion, apply to any draw down any rate of exchange that it deems reasonably appropriate.

6.4. Option Contracts. Client may authorize Cambridge to enter into an Option Contract so long as Cambridge has determined Client to be a Permitted Counterparty. Cambridge may require Client to provide certain documentation, including without limitation, audited financial statements and certifications, in order to reach a determination on Client's status as a Permitted Counterparty. Each Option Contract shall be governed by the provisions of this Agreement in addition to the terms set out in the Option Contract.

6.5. Payment of Premium. Buyer must pay to the Seller the Premium in cleared funds on the Premium Payment Date in accordance with the Seller's instructions. The Premium is non-refundable. If the Buyer fails to pay the Premium in full on or before the Premium Payment Date, the Seller is not obliged to exercise the Option Contract and may terminate the Option Contract and recover all Losses incurred in connection with the Option Contract, including payment of the Premium, which shall remain due and payable. For the avoidance of doubt, the payment of the Premium is separate and distinct from any payment obligations that arise upon exercise of an Option Contract.

6.6. Premium Amounts. Upon placing an Order for an Option Contract, Cambridge may require, in its sole discretion, Client to pay to Cambridge a Premium. Should Client fail to pay any Premium within 24 hours of Cambridge's demand, or within such other time as otherwise specified by Cambridge, Cambridge may, in its sole discretion, cancel the Option Contract or complete the Order. In such circumstances, Client will be liable to Cambridge for any Losses but will not be entitled to any profit.

6.7. Exercise. The Buyer may exercise an Option Contract by giving a notice of exercise to the Seller. The notice of exercise of an Option Contract must be given on the expiration date of the Option Contract and not later than the expiration time as specified in the Option Contract. The Seller must accept the notice of exercise provided that any applicable Premium has been paid. Unless Client provides Cambridge with a Delivery Instruction to the contrary, if Client is the Buyer of an Option Contract that is ITM on the expiration date of the Option Contract, Cambridge will exercise the Option Contract provided that any applicable Premium has been paid and Client is not otherwise in breach of this Agreement.

6.8. Derivative Contracts & Early Variation Events. In the event of an Early Variation Event:

6.8.1. Cambridge may, without notice, 6.8.1.1. Terminate Client's Facility and/or vary some/all of the terms of Client's Facility; and/or 6.8.1.2. Trigger an earlier Margin Call for Initial Margin and/or Variation Margin, by unilaterally and immediately changing the terms of when a Margin Call is triggered; and/or

6.8.1.3. Execute forward-cap (re some or all of the Client's Derivative Contract positions) via purchase, on Client's behalf, of Derivative Contracts at Client's expense & risk to mitigate both parties' exposure to further market fluctuation. Such purchase shall trigger a final grace period of 10 Business Days for Client to bring its Cambridge account into good standing through margin payment and/or drawdown; and/or 6.8.1.4. Immediately offset and/or terminate the relevant Derivative Contract(s) and/or any other outstanding Derivative Contract(s) agreed to between the Parties without any liability to Cambridge or its representatives, and/or 6.8.1.5. Take any other steps Cambridge deems appropriate, including any actions contemplated in this Agreement to mitigate the potential Loss(es).

6.8.2. Client agrees to pay to Cambridge on demand within five (5) clear Business Days the amount of any and all Losses incurred by Cambridge in connection with the offset, termination and/or unwinding of Derivative Contract(s).

6.8.3. Where a Derivative Contract has been terminated and/or offset, Client agrees that Cambridge's sole liability to Client is to return any amounts Client paid to Cambridge that remain after deducting all amounts owed to Cambridge.

6.8.4. Client understands and agrees that Client cannot terminate any Derivative Contract, except as contemplated in this 6.8.

7. DERIVATIVE REPORTING

7.1. Client Identifiers. Client acknowledges and agrees that: (i) it may require a Legal Entity Identifier to enter into certain Orders with Cambridge; (ii) if notified by Cambridge that a LEI is required for an Order contemplated by Client, Client will, if it has a LEI at the time of the notice, advise Cambridge of its LEI promptly; or if it does not have a LEI at the time of the notice, obtain a LEI and advise Cambridge of it as soon as reasonably practicable; (iii) Cambridge may elect not to enter into Orders with Client if Client has not provided details of its LEI to Cambridge; (iv) Cambridge may, in its sole discretion, elect to accept any other form of client identifier recognized under the Reporting Requirements in lieu of a LEI; and (v) unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Parties, Client is solely responsible for obtaining and maintaining its LEI, and promptly communicating to Cambridge any changes in its LEI.

8. MARGIN

8.1. Initial Margin Requirement. Cambridge may, in its sole discretion, require Client: (i) to provide Initial Margin in relation to any Derivative Contract within twenty-four (24) hours of Client's instructions to enter into a Derivative Contract; and/or (ii) to provide Initial Margin, if not already provided, within one (1) clear Business Day at any time during the term of a Derivative Contract.

8.2. Variation Margin Requirement. If Cambridge determines, in its sole discretion, that the net market value of all of Client's open Orders has declined and the unrealized loss when marked to market exceeds 10% or an alternative percentage or fixed amount as Cambridge may advise, of the notional value of the open Orders, Client is required to post Variation Margin with Cambridge as stated in the Margin Call issued by Cambridge. Each time the net market value of all of Client's open Orders declines and the unrealized loss when marked to market further increases, Cambridge may issue a Margin Call whereby Client is required to post with Cambridge additional Variation Margin in the amount stated in the Margin Call within one (1) clear Business Day. Payment of Variation Margin is due on or before the close of business on the next Business Day after the day Cambridge issues Margin Call to Client.

8.3. Valuation of Orders. Orders are assigned mark-to-market valuation using prevailing market rates provided from a reputable financial data provider. Cambridge reserves the right to change the financial data provider at any time without notice to Client.

8.4. Acknowledgement. In providing Initial Margin and Variation Margin to Cambridge, Client agrees that such monies: (i) may be used by Cambridge in the ordinary course of Cambridge's business; (ii) will not be maintained by Cambridge in a segregated account; and (iii) shall not be subject to a trust, deemed or otherwise, in Client's favour, and that Client's right to have the amount of the Initial Margin and Variation Margin, credited in Client's favour on maturity date of Client's Derivative Contract represents an unsecured claim against Cambridge and does not represent a claim, by way of trust or otherwise, to the Initial Margin or Variation Margin amounts or to any assets of or under the control of Cambridge.

8.5. Return of Variation Margin. If the unrealized loss of all open Orders with Cambridge by Client falls below the Variation Margin requirements established elsewhere in this Agreement, based on Cambridge's computation on any Business Day, then Client may request that Cambridge return to it the difference between the unrealized loss of all open Orders and the Variation Margin held by Cambridge on that Business Day. Any such request must be made, in writing, before 12 p.m., Cambridge Local Time, on the same Business Day, and Cambridge will then process the request on the Business Day on which it was made and the surplus Variation Margin will be returned in a timely manner. Any request made after 12 p.m., Cambridge Local Time, will be processed by Cambridge the following Business Day and the surplus Variation Margin will be returned to Client in a timely manner.

8.6. Purpose of Initial Margin. Initial Margin is intended to maintain the relative value of the funds to be purchased from or sold to Cambridge pursuant to a Derivative Contract or to address, in Cambridge's sole discretion, an adverse change in Client's financial standing and/or credit worthiness or an adverse change in the external economic environment. Client acknowledges and agrees that the amount of Initial Margin will be determined by Cambridge in its sole and reasonable discretion, subject to the total of any such payments being less than or equal to the total payment obligation owed to Cambridge with respect to the relevant Derivative Contract, and that Cambridge may require Initial Margin to be made even if Cambridge has provided Client with a Facility. Any Initial Margin delivered by Client and received by Cambridge are non-refundable and will be applied to satisfy Client's total payment obligation owed to Cambridge with respect to the relevant Derivative Contract on the Value Date or on the date of any final Draw Down or any other amount permitted by this Agreement.

8.7. Failure to Honour Initial Margin or Variation Margin Requirements. If Cambridge does not receive Initial Margin or Variation Margin when due, Cambridge, at its option and in its sole discretion, may close out (and/or offset) any or all of Client's open Orders and apply the proceeds first to reimburse Cambridge for the amounts due under the Orders, including all Losses, and remit the balance of the proceeds, if any, to Client. If the proceeds of disposition are insufficient to fully satisfy the amount owing to Cambridge, then Client shall pay to Cambridge the difference within one (1) clear Business Day.

9. INCOMING PAYMENT AND RETURNED CHEQUES AND DRAFTS

9.1. Incoming Payment.

9.1.1. Cambridge may receive domestic or Foreign Currency from a third party for payment on behalf of Client ("Incoming Payment") or for further credit to Client's Funding Balance, in the form of an incoming draft, wire or cheque. Cash cannot and will not be accepted from any source.

9.1.2. Cambridge reserves the right to withhold credit for any Incoming Payment until Cambridge, in Cambridge's sole discretion, is satisfied that cleared funds have been received. In the event that any Incoming Payment is subsequently recalled, returned to Cambridge as non-negotiable or for insufficient funds or is otherwise not accepted by Cambridge's depository financial institution, such Incoming Payment will be returned to Client and Client agrees to indemnify Cambridge and its representatives in respect of Losses incurred by Cambridge, including any foreign exchange Losses, charges and fees in handling the returned, unaccepted or recalled Incoming Payment. Client acknowledges and agrees that Cambridge is relying upon this indemnity in providing value in exchange for any Foreign Currency draft or cheque.

9.1.3. The form in which Cambridge credits the Incoming Payment to Client shall be subject to instructions from Client as documented in an Order or Delivery Instructions. Client shall require that the third-party payer specify Client's full legal name and account number, as designated by Cambridge, in the memo or reference line of any such Incoming Payment. Cambridge may in its sole discretion, attempt to contact the third-party sender to secure any additional information that may be needed to ensure accurate processing of the Incoming Payment.

10. DRAFTS AND CHEQUES

10.1. Foreign Currency Drafts and Cheque Purchase. Cambridge may agree to purchase and convert a Foreign Currency draft(s) and cheque(s) that Client has received in its name and delivered to Cambridge. Cambridge may request additional information satisfactory to Cambridge, in its sole discretion, that Client has the authority to deliver the Foreign Currency draft and cheque to Cambridge for purposes of Foreign Currency conversion and negotiation.

10.2. Endorsement. Any Foreign Currency draft(s) and cheque(s) delivered to Cambridge for the purpose of purchase and conversion must be endorsed to Cambridge, without restriction or qualification, by an authorized representative of Client.

10.3. Lost Drafts and Cheques. In the event a draft or cheque issued or sold by Cambridge on behalf of Client is not received by the Beneficiary for any reason, Client agrees to notify Cambridge as soon as Client becomes so aware. Upon notification to Cambridge of the Beneficiary's non-receipt, Cambridge will use reasonable efforts to place a recall or stop payment on the instrument as soon as practicable. Client agrees to indemnify Cambridge against any Losses incurred as a result of the stop payment or recall request. If Cambridge determines that the draft or cheque has been redeemed, Cambridge shall be under no obligation to issue a refund or replacement. If Cambridge determines that the draft or cheque has not been redeemed and a stop payment or recall has been successful, Cambridge may issue a refund or issue a replacement. In such event, Client agrees to take all reasonable steps to ensure no attempt is made to redeem the original draft or cheque and, if found, it is returned to Cambridge. If Client recovers such draft or cheque, Client shall hold it in trust for Cambridge.

10.4. Unclaimed and Uncashed Cheques and Drafts. Cheques and drafts issued or sold by Cambridge, which remain unclaimed, unredeemed or uncashed longer than 6 months from issuance shall be treated as abandoned. Cambridge will be bound by legislation or regulation governing the treatment of abandoned funds. Unless prohibited, Cambridge may deduct all costs and expenses of any notice, advertisement, payment and delivery of the abandoned funds to the applicable governing agency, against the abandoned funds prior to remitting in accordance with the legislation or regulation. If Cambridge has remitted the abandoned funds in accordance with the legislative or regulatory requirements, Cambridge has no further liability to Client or any Beneficiary of the Client.

11. RATE ORDER

11.1. Rate Order. If Client instructs Cambridge to execute an Order when a particular exchange rate is at a specified or better rate (a "Rate Order"), Client authorizes Cambridge to act in accordance with the instructions and to purchase or sell currencies on behalf of Client. Each Rate Order will only be effective after Cambridge has had a commercially reasonable opportunity to act upon it. The effective period of the Rate Order ("Effective Period"), as communicated to Cambridge in the Order, and accepted by Cambridge in an Order, shall be deemed to be good until cancelled unless Client provided a fixed ascertainable date for the end of the Effective Period.

11.2. Rate Order Purchase or Termination. Cambridge will provide Client with a summary of the material terms of each Rate Order. If the terms of the Rate Order are met during the Effective Period, Cambridge may issue a Confirmation to Client. If the terms of the Rate Order are not met by the end of the Effective Period, the Rate Order will expire. Client agrees to promptly review each summary and Confirmation for accuracy and immediately notify Cambridge of any error or discrepancy.

11.3. Cancellation of a Rate Order. To cancel a Rate Order, Cambridge must receive an instruction directing cancellation and have had a commercially reasonable opportunity to act upon such instruction. In the absence of such instruction, Cambridge will attempt to fill the Rate Order and Client will be liable for Settlement.

11.4. Target Rate. If the exchange rate specified in the Rate Order ("Target Rate") does not become sustainable and purchasable during the Effective Period, the Rate Order will automatically expire at the end of the Effective Period. The Target Rate must be traded in the market with volume sufficient to sustain that rate level for a commercially reasonable timeframe. Unless otherwise stated by Cambridge, Orders will remain in force until 11:59 p.m. Cambridge Local Time on the last day of the Effective Period.

12. ERRORS AND DISCREPANCIES

12.1. Errors and Discrepancies.

12.1.1. Client must promptly review each Confirmation, report, or other reporting or advisory communication regarding Orders or transaction history issued by Cambridge and promptly notify Cambridge of any error, discrepancy, irregularity or unauthorized activity.

12.1.2. Client may not assert any claim against Cambridge or its representatives in connection with any errors, discrepancies or irregularities if Client did not exercise reasonable care in examining any such communication which reflected such errors, discrepancies or irregularities, or if Client did not notify Cambridge in writing and in a reasonably prompt manner that Client disputes any information contained in, or missing from, any communication.

12.1.3. Client shall provide Cambridge with all information necessary for Cambridge to investigate the error, discrepancy or irregularity.

12.1.4. For additional information, please visit <https://corporate-payments.corpay.com/file-a-complaint/>.

13.1. Prepaid Card. Client may elect for certain authorized individuals to receive a Prepaid Card ("Prepaid Card End User").

13.2. Prepaid Card End Users. Client must provide Cambridge with certain identifying information for each Prepaid Card End User, including, without limitation, full legal name, residential address, and date of birth. Cambridge may refuse to provide a Prepaid Card to any individual for any reason in its sole discretion. All Prepaid Card End Users must agree to separate terms and conditions governing the use of the Prepaid Card by the Prepaid Card End user, and the rights and responsibilities of Client in relation to the Prepaid Card End User.

13.3. Issuing Bank. The Prepaid Card is issued by an unaffiliated third party financial institution ("Issuing Bank"). All funds stored on the Prepaid Card are in the sole possession of the Issuing Bank. Cambridge may change the Issuing Bank at any time with written notice to Client.

13.4. Prepaid Card Processor. The Prepaid Card is serviced by an unaffiliated third party institution ("Prepaid Card Processor"). The Prepaid Card Processor is responsible for processing all transactions initiated with the Prepaid Card. The Prepaid Card Processor may provide Client with access to an Internet or cloud based system to manage the Prepaid Card ("Prepaid Card System"). The Prepaid Card System is not owned, monitored or controlled by Cambridge. Cambridge may change the Prepaid Card Processor at any time with written notice to Client.

13.5. Prepaid Card Administrator. Client shall appoint an authorized individual to provide administrative oversight of all Prepaid Cards ("Prepaid Card Administrator"). The Prepaid Card Administrator may use the Prepaid Card System to add funds to any Prepaid Card.

13.6. Prepaid Card Transactions. Prior to use of the Prepaid Card, Client must add funds to the Prepaid Card. The funds available on the Prepaid Card are limited to the funds added by Client less any fees assessed by Cambridge. Cambridge reserves the right to block or cancel any Prepaid Card transaction if Cambridge detects what is reasonably believed to be fraudulent, suspicious or criminal activity or any activity that is inconsistent with either the terms and conditions applicable to the Prepaid Card End User or this Agreement. Cambridge will incur no liability to Client because of the unavailability of any blocked or canceled funds or Prepaid Card transactions that are not completed for any reason.

13.7. Fees. Client understands that Cambridge will charge certain fees for the addition of funds to the Prepaid Card ("Load Fee"). The Load Fee will be set forth in a fee schedule that will be made available to Client. Cambridge may change the Load Fee or add other Prepaid Card maintenance fees in its sole discretion at any time upon notice to Client.

14. ONLINE SYSTEM

14.2. Online Payment System Prohibitions. Client agrees that the Online System is and shall remain the exclusive property of Cambridge. Accordingly, Client represents, warrants and covenants that it and its User(s), employees, directors, officers, agents, or affiliates shall not:

14.2.1. Distribute or disclose the Online System, or any component of it, to, or permit use of the Online System by, any third party;

15.1. Use of Online System. In order to use the Online System, Client will be required to create an electronic account and agrees to provide Cambridge with a written list of Users that Client would like to access and use Online System on Client's behalf. Upon Cambridge's approval of such Users, Cambridge grants such Users a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use Online System for the sole purpose of accessing the Services in accordance with this Agreement. Users may have full or limited access to the Online System, in Cambridge's sole discretion. If Client wishes Cambridge to terminate a User's access to the Online System, Client agrees to issue such request in writing, to be confirmed by Cambridge in writing. 15.6. Online System Provided "As Is". The Online System, and all other related Services, are provided "as is" with no representations, warranties or conditions of any kind, either express or implied. Cambridge shall have no responsibility for transmission errors, faulty or unreliable Internet connections or website downtime. All disclaimers, limitation of liability and indemnity terms set forth in this Agreement shall apply fully to Client's and its User(s)' use of the Online System, as well as any other means of accessing such Services.

15.7. Multi-Factor Authentication ("MFA") Service. Cambridge may utilize a MFA service to safeguard User access to the Online System. The MFA service may require each User to provide certain contact information to Cambridge. Client authorizes Cambridge to transmit a unique authentication identifier to the contact information provided by the User. Client shall be solely responsible for any third-party fees incurred by Client or Users, including, but not limited to those assessed by telecommunication service providers, as a result of use of the MFA service. Client and Users may opt out of the MFA service at any time, upon notice to Cambridge.

15.8. Security of the Online System Access Method. The confidentiality and security of the Online System Access Methods will at all times be the sole responsibility of Client. Client hereby acknowledges that:

20.3. Freezing or Blocking Transactions. In certain circumstances, Cambridge may be obliged to freeze or block an Order to comply with applicable laws mandated by one or more of several jurisdictions. Freezing or blocking can arise as a result of the account monitoring that Cambridge conducts as required by relevant laws or where the name of a sender or beneficiary of an Order matches a name on a relevant government list of prohibited persons or where the Order is being sent to a country that has been subjected to relevant government asset control or sanctions. If this occurs, Cambridge and its representatives are not liable to Client for any resulting Losses whatsoever and Client agrees to indemnify Cambridge and its representatives to the extent that Cambridge and its representatives incur any Losses in connection with the freezing or blocking of Client's account. Additionally:

20.3.1. Cambridge uses various intermediary or correspondent financial institutions to process Orders. 20.4. Refusal or Delay of Services. Cambridge may refuse or delay the provision of Services if Cambridge reasonably determines that doing so is necessary to avoid or mitigate Losses to Cambridge; to comply with Cambridge policies; to adhere to laws or regulations; if an Order is not or does not appear to be related to Client's line of business, or to reduce risk to Cambridge. This includes, but is not limited to, events where Cambridge reasonably suspects that the Service is being used or accessed to perpetrate financial fraud or exploitation, even if Client or User has authorized the Service.

20.5. Disclosure. Client understands that Cambridge takes measures to ensure that it is not participating or assisting in money laundering or terrorist financing. Client agrees that Cambridge, in its sole discretion, may disclose any transaction-related information including but not limited to confidential information of Client or information about a Beneficiary in order to satisfy Cambridge's legal obligations under applicable law, including, but not limited to, anti-money laundering, trade and economic sanctions laws and/or regulations, or as may otherwise be required by law or court order. Furthermore, such disclosure may be made to any governmental agency, body or department that exercises regulatory or supervisory authority with respect to Cambridge's operations, where such disclosure is made to satisfy governmental audit or examination requirements or as part of information required to be submitted to such governmental entities in the ordinary course of business.

20.6. Additional Information. Upon request, Client agrees to provide any additional information that Cambridge may need, including with respect to Client, third party payers or payees, authorized representatives, beneficial owners, employees and directors, to satisfy its ongoing legal and regulatory obligations. Failure or delay in providing additional information may result in a delay or failure to provide Services. In addition, Client authorizes Cambridge to make any inquiries it may deem necessary or appropriate in accordance with applicable law, including, without limitation, inquiries into Client's business profile, solvency or credit history, to assess Client's suitability for a business relationship with Cambridge as well as ongoing maintenance of that relationship. Such information may extend to Client's authorized representatives and directors.

Reasonable measures include but are not limited to periodically requesting and obtaining Client credit and financial information, from credit bureaux and other sources of such information as may be relevant to assess Client's credit risk and creditworthiness.

20.8. Client agrees to provide Cambridge with any information that Cambridge requests to review an Order and further agrees to provide Cambridge with any information that Client discovers in the future that may have the effect of invalidating or modifying the information that Client previously provided to Cambridge and to correct any errors in regard to any information that Client provided to Cambridge.

21.2. New Products and Services. Unless Client has indicated otherwise and in accordance with applicable laws, Cambridge may contact Client, by telephone, mail, or other means, with information about the products and services available which Cambridge believes may be of interest to Client.

22. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY; INDEMNITY

22.1. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL Cambridge AND ITS REPRESENTATIVES BE LIABLE TO CLIENT OR TO ANY OTHER PARTY FOR LOST REVENUE, PROFITS OR FOR ANY OTHER SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF Cambridge OR ITS REPRESENTATIVES HAVE BEEN INFORMED OF SUCH POTENTIAL LOSS OR DAMAGE AS A RESULT OF OR ARISING OUT OF THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED TO THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THIS LIMITATION REPRESENTS A REASONABLE ALLOCATION OF RISK, WITHOUT WHICH Cambridge WOULD NOT HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT. THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY STATED IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL HAVE EFFECT TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

24.1.1. At first instance, the matter in dispute will be escalated to the most senior officer within each Party; and 24.1.2. At second instance, if the Parties do not resolve some or all of the issues in dispute within thirty (30) calendar days after the first day that the matter has been escalated at first instance, then the Parties agree to attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation, in accordance with the Terms of Mediation set out in this Agreement.

24.2. The Parties agree that the representatives selected to participate at all instances in the dispute resolution process will have the authority required to settle the dispute, whether by virtue of the authority of their office, or by virtue of delegated authority.

24.3. Any discussions between the Parties at the first and second instances shall be regarded as "without prejudice" for the purpose of settlement negotiations and shall be treated as confidential by the Parties and their representatives, unless otherwise required by law. However, evidence that is independently admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or non-discoverable by virtue of its use during the negotiations.

25.8. Caucusing. The mediator is free to caucus with the Parties individually, as the mediator sees fit to improve the chances of a mediated settlement. Any confidential information revealed to the mediator by one Party during such caucusing may only be disclosed to the other Party with the former Party's express permission.

25.9. Prohibition against Future Assistance. It is agreed that the mediator will neither represent nor testify on behalf of any of the Parties in any subsequent legal or administrative proceeding between the Parties or where they are opposed in interest. It is further agreed that the personal notes and written opinions of the mediator made in relation to this mediation are confidential and may not be used in any subsequent proceeding between the Parties.

26.2. No Waiver. Cambridge's failure to exercise any of its rights under this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such rights or remedies at a later time.

26.3. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the provisions shall remain in effect and shall be binding upon the Parties.

26.4. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario. 26.6. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations, understandings, negotiations and discussions between the parties, whether oral or written. The terms of this Agreement may not be changed, modified or supplemented except by an instrument in writing agreed upon by both Parties.

26.7. Changes to Agreement. Cambridge reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change, amend, or otherwise modify this Agreement at any time upon written notice to Client. 26.8.1. Subject to 26.8.2 below: CLIENT WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY AND ANY RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN ANY CLASS ACTION OR CLASS ARBITRATION.

26.8.2. Client has the right, regarding each Order, to opt out of 26.8.1 applying to that Order, by opting out within 30 days after initiating that Order; to opt out Client must phone 1-(800) 374-8077, ext. 2255.

26.9. I confirm that I have requested this Agreement and all related documents to be drawn up in the English language only. Je confirme avoir exigé que ce contrat et tous les documents s'y rapportant soient rédigés en Anglais.

27. EARLY RELEASE TERMS

27.1. Cambridge, in its sole and absolute discretion, may grant Client a Facility which includes an Early Release Period to enable fast tracking the release of funds on some Orders to certain Beneficiaries of Client. If that occurs, then such Early Release Period shall be subject to the following terms.

27.2. "Early Release Period" is the period from when Cambridge releases funds to a Beneficiary of an Order, continuing until Client's Payment to Cambridge for that Order comes due.

27.3. Each time an Order booked by Client is booked with an Early Release Period, that Order's Early Release Period shall be 7 OR 14 OR 21 OR 28 days in duration. Client can, where eligible, pick among these four choices at the time of booking the Order.

27.4. Client authorizes Cambridge to initiate an EFT/ACH debit from Client's depository account on the due date (i.e., the last day of the applicable Early Release Period; this is pushed instead to the first following Business Day if that last day is a non-Business-Day) with a value date equal to the first Business Day after the due date.

27.5. This early release privilege is subject to some rules, including:

27.5.1. The Payment Acceptance Limit, specified by Cambridge for Client's Facility, sets the cumulative cap on early-released payments Client has not yet paid Cambridge for. Thus, each Order that is in middle of its Early Release Period shall count against Client's Payment Acceptance Limit.

27.5.2. In general, the early release privilege may not be used for any Derivative Contracts.

27.5.3. If, for any reason, an EFT/ACH debit by Cambridge as described above is returned (i.e., it bounces) whether because of non-sufficient funds ("NSF"), or any other reason:

27.5.3.1. Client must promptly make Cambridge whole with a make-up Payment, and Client must pay this by wire.

27.5.3.2. If, within any rolling 6-month period, there are two or more returns, then Client's early release privilege shall be revoked for at least 6 months during which there must be no returns before Cambridge will consider restoring the privilege.
