What type of insurance is this?

SafetyWing Insurance I.L.'s ("SafetyWing's") Nomad Insurance is a global travel medical insurance. It covers the cost of unforeseen medical emergencies, and a selection of unforeseen travel related costs. The insurance works while you are outside your home country, and for medical coverage during short visits home. This insurance is not intended to cover treatments for chronic conditions such as cancer, and in most cases it does not cover pre-existing illness or injuries. This description of coverage includes all the information you need to learn exactly what is covered and not covered.

Who can get this insurance?

Most people, from anywhere in the world, can get this insurance.

The exceptions are:

- If you were born less than 14 days ago.
- If your age is 70 or older.

Where can I use this insurance?

You can use this insurance in the vast majority of the world, but there are some exceptions:

- You are not covered by this insurance in your home country, except as described in the section called "Medical coverage during visits to your home country".
- You are not covered when traveling to the US, except if you have the add-on described in the section called "[Add-on] Include coverage in the USA".
- We will not provide cover and not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit under the Policy to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose us to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or any trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America, including Puerto Rico.

What is covered?

Below are all the areas the Policy will cover you when the Policy is active (your benefits). Each section is a condition of the Policy with a clear title, a description of what is covered which clearly sets out when we will pay. All your benefits will also be limited by other sections of this description of coverage, especially important is the section called "What is not covered?". This is why we encourage you to read the whole description of coverage.

How to file a claim?

You need to claim within 60 days of the end date of your insurance. Some types of claims require that you notify us in advance, or that we make the arrangements (for example "Emergency transportation to a better equipped hospital"). If you're hospitalized, you have to give us notice as soon as possible, at the latest before you are discharged.

You may submit your claim as follows:

1. Pay yourself and submit a claim for reimbursement on the SafetyWing website, or email claims@safetywing.com. Some claims require that you notify us beforehand, or that we arrange for the payment as described below.
2. Reach out to our 24/7 assistance so we can arrange for the payment. This option is not available for all types of claims.

Important:

Every claim will need to be supported by documents that confirm you've met the requirements of the benefit you are claiming for. The 24/7 customer service team is always there to help you if you're unsure about what documentation you need.

For example if you are claiming for medical treatment, you also need a medical statement from those who treated you. Make sure to ask for this before you leave. If you only submit a receipt, the claims department will have to do the work of getting a hold of the provider to confirm your claim, and this is not always possible.

Each time you make a medical claim, if it could be relevant, we'll look at your medical history. We might ask for more information to understand if your illness or injury is new or pre-existing. In cases where a pre-existing illness or injury could be the cause of your claim, the claims process may take a bit longer, and you might need to provide us with more information or documentation.

Other insurance

We do not pay for claims if the medical expenses have been paid by other medical insurance or you or the insured have received a reimbursement from any other source.

If you or the insured have other medical insurance, including medical benefits under any employment contract, which allows you or them to claim a refund for medical expenses, you or the insured must first claim from these policies before making any claim under the Policy. Our obligations to pay under the Policy will only arise after you have fully claimed under these policies.

If we have paid any benefit to you first before a claim is made under the other medical insurance policies or employee benefits, the other medical insurers or employer will have to refund us their share. You must give us all the information and evidence we need to help us get back any other medical insurer's share of the claim we have paid.

For every claim, the total reimbursement we will make will not be more than the actual expenses paid.

Cancellations

You can cancel anytime you want if you are not satisfied with this Policy. Reach out to the customer service team to cancel your Policy (via chat, or email support@safetywing.com).

Your premiums will be refunded in full if we receive the cancellation request before the start date of your active insurance period.

If we receive the cancellation request after the start date of your active insurance period, the unused portion of your premiums will be refunded only if you haven't filed a claim; we will apply a $25 cancellation fee.

The premiums paid for adventure sports and theft coverage for electronics add-ons are non refundable if the cancellation request is received after the start date of your active insurance period.

How long or short can I buy this insurance for?

One active insurance period lasts a minimum of 5 days, up to a maximum of 364 days. You can keep buying new insurance plans an unlimited amount of times, until you turn 70 years old. Starting the day you turn 70, you can no longer buy coverage with this insurance.

Whenever you buy a new plan with a new start date, any illness or injury you have had before or at the start date will be deemed a pre-existing illness or injury during this new active insurance period.

When is my insurance active?

If you are outside your home country

→ By default your start date is set to the date you buy the insurance, and your insurance is activated the moment you receive your proof of insurance email after a purchase. If you buy our insurance with a start date in the future, your insurance is activated at 00:00 (12am) on that date in UTC timezone.

If you are inside your home country

→ You have to leave your home country before the insurance can be activated. If the start date is on the day you leave or earlier, your coverage is active from the moment you cross the border and leave your home country.

If you visit your home country

→ There is limited coverage for a certain number of days for visits home. Read more under the section called “Medical coverage during visits to your home country”. If you stay in your home country longer than the amount of days available for home country coverage, you will not have any coverage under this insurance until you leave your home country. Your coverage resumes when you leave your home country as long as you are still within your active insurance period.

If you choose to set up your insurance with the auto extension enabled, your plan will auto renew for up to 364 days, and every time you successfully pay for your extension, the end date of your active insurance period will be pushed 28 days further into the future until you cancel or until the end date is day number 364.

Your coverage expires on the end date of your active insurance period. Before the end date we will send you two reminder emails about renewing your insurance so that you can avoid any lapse in coverage by confirming to purchase a new plan with a new start date immediately after the previous end date.

Benefit period: If you are in the middle of medical treatment for a covered illness or injury when your coverage reaches its end date, the medical treatment for that specific illness or injury is covered for up to 90 days from the first day of your diagnosis or treatment. Treatment is only covered for something that happened while your insurance was active, not for anything that happens after the end date.

My claim was denied, and I disagree. How do I appeal?

If your claim is denied you will receive a written explanation of why it was denied. If you do not agree with our decision, you can appeal within 6 months (180 days) of the day you received the decision. The appeal can be sent to claims@safetywing.com.

When we receive the appeal we will review it and you'll get a response back in writing. You can appeal a decision two times, but it does not limit your right to make a complaint as described below.

How to make a complaint?

If you're not happy with anything related to the Policy and/or claims, we are here to help. Please follow this process to ensure that your problem or concern is dealt with effectively and efficiently.

1. First, if you haven't yet, get in touch with us through one of the following channels:
 - a. Our online chat on safetywing.com
 - b. To our claims department at claims@safetywing.com
2. If you are not satisfied even after speaking to our Support Team, you can escalate your concerns to management by contacting feedback@safetywing.com.

You will be contacted within 5 business days with our proposed solution. If more time is needed to resolve the issue, we will keep you updated at every step on what further information we might need and how much longer it might take.

Please be sure to provide:

- Claim or Policy number (if applicable)
 - As much information as possible on your dispute or complaint, including any prior responses from us on the issue
3. If, after completing Steps 1 and 2, you are still not satisfied with how we handled things, SafetyWing may propose that your issue be referred to the Centre for Effective Resolution (CEDR), an independent mediation service provider for conflict resolution.
 4. Finally, please know that your legal rights are not affected by following the above outlined process. We recommend that you read the information in the "Arbitration" section under "Disclaimers and legal notices".

This insurance is not subject to, and does not provide certain insurance benefits required by the United States' Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act ("PPACA"). Tax penalties may be imposed on U.S. residents or citizens who do not maintain minimum essential coverage, and on certain employers who do not offer PPACA compliant insurance coverage to their employees. In some cases, certain individuals may be deemed to have minimum essential coverage under PPACA even if their insurance coverage does not provide all of the benefits required by PPACA. You should consult your attorney or tax professional to determine whether this policy meets any obligations you may have under PPACA.
