December Release Recap

December Feature Release Highlights

Product	Solution/ Feature Name	Overview	Prerequisites	How to get started eCommerce	My Orders	Several enhancements are available to the "My Orders" section of the Workhuman Store. First, you can now access "My Orders" from your profile menu in the Global Navigation in addition to "My Dashboard." Second, the "My Orders" page will now support right to left languages, comply with accessibility standards, and be optimized for mobile. These enhancements optimize your experience, allowing you to check on order status from anywhere in the platform and your mobile device, and drives better inclusivity.	Store	General Availability – Automatically enabled
Conversations	Dashboard Filtering	A new drop-down menu on your Conversations toolbar allows you to filter the Conversations dashboard by date, feedback, check-in type, or priority type. With this update, you can manage your Conversations dashboard and find entries quickly and easily.	Conversations	Contact your Customer Success Manager

January Feature Preview

Feature Preview: What's Coming in January

The following features are planned for release over the next several weeks. This list represents current best estimates and is subject to change.

Product	Feature Name	Overview	Prerequisites	Availability
Conversations	Conversations for Mobile	New features are available for Conversations in the native mobile app including Auto-save, Comments, and Open Check-ins. These enhancements improve the user experience on mobile and empower you to manage their performance development from anywhere.	Conversations	Early Access
Integrations	Social Recognition Integration with Slack	Workhuman is launching a new integration with Slack that helps you extend gratitude from your Social Recognition program into social channels such as Slack. Upon completing a nomination, the nominator is given the option to post the award in Slack, choosing the specific channel where it would be shared. By integrating with Slack, you'll socialize gratitude making it a core part of your culture, and you'll drive better adoption of your recognition program by making it part of your team's daily flow of work.
