Workhuman for Microsoft Outlook

Embed the flow of Social Recognition into your email platform

Did you know your culture of Social Recognition® can be cultivated without any interruptions to the flow of work? Workhuman®, the world's #1 employee recognition platform, is dedicated to providing your employees the tools they need to give and receive recognition anytime, anywhere.

With the Workhuman app for Microsoft Outlook, your employees can engage with the power of recognition without ever leaving Outlook. Equip and inspire everyone in your company to send recognition the moment good work occurs, resulting in timely recognition embedded in the flow of work and grounded in collaboration, performance, and meaningful company values.

“If we can highlight our team members that are making an impact in the organization in one more channel, we are going to do it.”

Andrea LaBarbera
VP, Global Talent & Engagement

Expand the reach and increase the impact of recognition with:

Embedded nomination flow. Give recognition directly within Outlook, instantly. The nomination flow mirrors the recognition experiences in our other MS365 integrations (i.e., Teams).

Seamless communications. Quickly send recognition that adheres to your company's values from within emails and meetings. When searching for award recipients, you can pre-populate eligible users from email recipients (From, To, and Cc) or meeting participants right in Outlook.

A full-fledged nomination process. Give recognition in Outlook exactly how you would on the Workhuman platform. Access your program to choose your award level and reason, and personalize your award with your own title, message, and imagery. While writing your messages, leverage our AI-powered Inclusion Advisor to mitigate unconscious bias and ensure you're sending authentic, positive recognition.

Strategic integrations can turn a simple “thank you” into an unstoppable force for good. Learn more here.
