

FAMILY DISCUSSION GUIDE

Starting the Conversation

1. Approach gently, not as a lecture.
2. Emphasize honesty and openness.
3. Offer unconditional support.

Questions to Ask

- Which fact about fentanyl surprised you the most?
- Why might some underestimate fentanyl's risk?
- How can we as a family stay updated on drug safety?

Closing the Chat

- Praise their engagement.
- Agree to keep learning together.
- Reassure your availability for support.

FAMILY DISCUSSION GUIDE

Talking Tips

1. Begin with Curiosity: Ask open questions to encourage honest conversation.
2. Support Over Judgement: Show understanding, not lectures. Every chat is a step towards safety.
3. Honest Dialogue: Value their thoughts and listen sincerely.
4. Consistent Support: Reassure your presence and help whenever needed.

Questions to Ask

1. What surprised you in the video?
2. Do you feel fentanyl is underestimated?
3. Why might teens take unknown pills?
4. Can we talk openly about drug safety?

Conversation Closure

1. Gratitude: Thank them for discussing this topic with you.
2. Open Door: Encourage ongoing talks about any new information.

Reminder

"One pill can be deadly. Let's agree, no random pills."

NATIONAL FENTANYL
AWARENESS
DAY