91 Casamigos Blanco, 40%, $41

With lemon curd, butter cake, and vanilla milkshake on the nose, this is sweet and inviting. The palate remains sweet—a through line for Casamigos—but introduces some gentle agave and a light shake of black pepper. The sweets prevail, however, and the palate delivers butterscotch and vanilla frosting with the faintest hint of York Peppermint Pattie. The finish continues the sweetness with a touch of pepper adding depth.—SE
