VE Day Celebrations

Join us in celebrating the 80th anniversary of VE Day on Thursday 8 May, during a day of remembrance, joy, and community spirit.

This year's celebration promises to be an unforgettable tribute to the end of World War II, honouring those who served and celebrating the resilience of our community. Events taking place throughout the day will include a Wartime sing-along, victory parade, and ration book tasting event. Join us in your 1940s attire to truly bring the era to life and make this a celebration to remember. Events are free to join in so, gather your friends and family for a day of reflection, community spirit, and celebration. Call 01925 593800 to book.

Daydream Believers

Join us on Friday 6 June from 2pm – 3pm in The Venue for a delightful afternoon of music with the talented Daydream Believers, a musical duo known for their incredible performances and charming melodies. They will be offering a mix of classic tunes and feel-good vibes that are sure to brighten your day. Cost £3pp.

Pantastic Performers

Experience the soothing sounds of Pantastic Performers on Friday 9 May, at 2pm in the village gardens (weather permitting), for a truly unique and relaxing afternoon.

Whether you're a longtime fan of the handpan or discovering its enchanting melodies for the first time, this live musical show by the talented Pantastic Performers promises to be a tranquil musical journey. Let the rhythmic, meditative tones wash over you as you unwind in the serene beauty of nature. Join us for an experience you won't want to miss. Cost £3; booking essential.

A celebration of Chinese dance

We are thrilled to welcome the Manchester Chinese Academy of Dance for a vibrant and captivating afternoon of cultural performances, on Saturday 17 May, at 2pm in The Bistro.

Immerse yourself in the rich history and artistry of Chinese dance as the talented performers showcase traditional movements, costumes, and storytelling.

This is a wonderful opportunity to experience the beauty of Chinese culture and celebrate the artistry of the Manchester Chinese Academy of Dance, whilst enjoying the warm, welcoming atmosphere in The Bistro. The event is free to attend but please book in advance.

It's a wrap

Call in to The Bistro in May or June and enjoy our delicious Hunter's Chicken wrap, served with salad and coleslaw. Available all day for just £6.50; no need to book, simply call in and enjoy!
