What do people do to celebrate Independence Day?

There are a lot of ways that people celebrate on the Fourth of July. Perhaps the most popular is to have a cookout with friends or family and then watch fireworks. It is safe to say there will be a grill burning in almost every neighborhood in America on Independence Day. Some people also buy and light their own fireworks, while others will go and watch huge public displays of fireworks.

The day is a day of national pride as well. This includes flying the US flag and wearing red, white, and blue. Whether you wear crazy red, white and blue socks or you have on a pair of awesome overall's ... you'll look just great!

Other ways to celebrate include parades, outdoor picnics, baseball games, and musical concerts. Many bands play patriotic songs like The Star Spangled Banner and God Bless America. Because the holiday is in the middle of summer much of the celebration takes place outdoors.
