

Carefulness

Honesty

Honesty

Truthful words and ways.

“Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbor...”

Ephesians 4:25 NIV

Glen felt terrible. He knew he shouldn't have eaten a piece of the cake his mother had put on the table. He could clean the crumbs from his face and hands and maybe no one would find out he did it. But that would not be truthful. Glen decided he would tell his mother and say he was truly sorry.

Carefulness

Taking one step at a time to do a job right.

“Be very careful, then, how you live--not as unwise but as wise”

Ephesians 5:15 NIV

Billy enjoyed building model cars. When he first started doing it, he had sometimes hurried, and the car hadn't turned out right. Now that he had learned to take one step at a time, he had built a fine collection of models.