Alertness

Knowing what is going on around me.

“But you, keep your head in all situations...”

2 Timothy 4:5 NIV

Lewis knew the girls behind him were whispering and passing notes. He also knew that what the teacher had to say was important. Lewis ignored the girls and listened carefully to the teacher. He was glad that he had when the teacher gave a quiz later.

Attentiveness

Listening with your ears, eyes, and heart.

“My son, pay attention to what I say; listen closely to my words. Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart”

Proverbs 4:20, 21 NIV

The chapel speaker had some important things to say. Joyce was watching and listening carefully, even though some of the children around her were not. She knew that God wanted her to hear the speaker's message.
