Discernment

Able to see things as they really are.

“The Lord does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.”

1 Samuel 16:7 NIV

David had raked leaves to earn money for the missionary offering. Afterward he was hungry and thought how good a chocolate bar would taste. Then he realized how quickly the candy would be gone and how much good the money would do if used by the missionaries. With a smile, David put his money in the offering plate.

Flexibility

Willing to change my plans with a good spirit.

“I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.”

Philippians 4:12 NIV

Rosa had planned to spend Saturday playing with three of her friends. But when her mother asked Rosa to go with her to the store, Rosa went along happily to help with the shopping.
